PREFACE

HAPPINESS has for ever been the prime aim of every human being. All activities of Man are directed towards acquiring the maximum happiness in life. But through the wrong deluded notion that objects will give happiness man searches for it outside. The result is that in spite of all his life long efforts he gets disappointment only. Vexation and misery alone is to be seen everywhere. The real lasting happiness lies within man. Such happiness or Ananda is the Inner Self the Antar atman. The very nature of atman is Pure Joy. This is never perceived because the mind is completely externalised. As long as the mind is restlessly wondering about amidst objects ever fluctuating excited agitated and uncontrolled this true joy cannot be realised and enjoyed. To control the restless mind and still perfectly all thoughts and cravings is the greatest problem of man. If he has subjugated the mind he is the emperor of emperors.

For gaining mastery over the mind you have to know what it is, how it works, how it deceives you at every turn and by which methods it can be subdued. In this book the subject has been dealt with and the nature of the mind, the various forms that it assumes, the secret of its inner workings and the way to control it are fully and clearly explained. The previous editions were eagerly read and appreciated by thousands of aspirants who wrote to say how immensely they were helped by the instructions. The lessons and instructions are eminently practical and many helpful ideas and suggestions got during my meditations have been recorded and put down here. Very useful hints on concentration and meditation will be found in the book which if faithfully followed will bring success in a short time without fail.

I wish every aspirant to study constantly the valuable instructions with care and follow the practical hints given in his Sadhana and daily life. It will doubtless enable you to gain control over your passions and cravings and to get established in Yoga. The Bhakta, the student of Vedanta, the Raja Yogi, the Karma Yogi, all will find this book and its first volume indispensable guides. The later stages of Yoga Sadhana are common in all the four paths and Dharana and Dhyana are quite impossible without first subduing the mind. All Sadhanas are therefore aimed at obtaining mastery over the mind. Hence it is that I have tried to present the ways and means of achieving this through simple yet well tried and effective methods. My efforts would be amply fulfilled if even a single earnest aspirant is helped on the spiritual path and attains the Goal.

May the Lord, the Antaryamin, the Supreme Indweller inspire all to attempt at mind control and Yoga ! May He bestow success to the sincere aspirants that struggle to master the unruly mind ! May you reach the Goal of Life, Immortality, Supreme knowledge and Bliss !

CHAPTER I

1 Who is God ?

1 God is Truth God is Love God is Light of lights. God is Peace God is Knowledge God is the embodiment of Bliss God is Sat-chit-ānanda Existence Absolute Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute. God is Eternity God is Immortality God is Infinity God is Atmasi Supreme Iastu God is All-pervading Essence or Substance God is the only Sara Vastu God is Infinite Beauty

That Secondless Supreme Being who resides in the chambers of your heart as Antaryami or Inner Ruler or Controller or Sutradhara or Saksi (silent witness) Antar-Atma (Inner Self) who has no beginning middle or end who is the source of this world the Vedas body mind Indriyas and Prana who is all-pervading, who is unchanging who is one homogeneous Essence (Elarasa) who exists in the past present and future who is self-existent (Stayambhu) who is independent (Siatastra) and who is self-luminous (SV-41) ANJOTI is God or Atma or Brahman or Purusa or Chaitanya or Bhagavan or Purusottama

Nitya Sukha (Eternal Bliss) Parama Santi (Supreme Peace) Nitya Tripti (Eternal Satisfaction)

Infinite happiness Akhandā Sukha (Unbrokeo Joy) can only be had in God. Attain this God-consciousness or Self-realisation or Darsana of God through Ananya Bhakti or Vichara. This is the goal of life. This is your highest duty. All other duties are secondary.

2. God is the Niyamata (Ruler) Antaryami (Knower of the heart) and Pieraka (Prompter) also. He helps the Sadhakas in a variety of ways viz. through dreams the Inner Voice by talking through the mouths of others in daily cooversations and advice from friends.

3. Sristi (Creation) Sthiti (Preservation) Samhara (Destruction) Tirodhana (Veiling) and Anugraha (Blessing) are the five kinds of action (Pancha-Kritya) of God.

4. Bhagavan is a synoymous term for God. He who has the six attributes viz. Jnana (Wisdom) Vairajya (Dispassion) Isha (Fame) Aiswarya (Divine Powers) Sri (Wealth) and Dharma (Righteousness) in their fullest measure is Bhagavan.

5. Sarvajnatva (Omniscience Knowledge of all the worlds their Jivas and their Karmas) Sarvesvaratva (Supreme Rulership of all, the power of disposing the fruits of all Jivas) Sarvantaryamitva (Inner control of all names and forms and all Indriyas and minds) Sarvalokanatva (Causality for the creation preservation and destruction of all) Sarmanyantritva (doing everything without failure of myama) Sarvakarttva (the doing of all actions) Sarvasaktimata (Omnipotence) Statantiatua (absolute indepeodence) are the seven attributes of God

6 According to Vayu Purana

Omniscience satisfaction eternal knowledge independence constant presence of power infinity of power—these six are said to be the aspects (angas) of the Great Lord

7 Knowledge desirelessness power of control purificatory action truth forgiveness endurance creation the Knowledge of the Self aod being the substratum of all activities—these ten unchangeable qualities (avyayas) always live in the Great Source of all Good

2 Facts on Mind

8 Mind is not only daily made but always made Every minute, it chaoges its colours and shape like a chameleoo It is very chanchala and asthira (wavering and unsteady)

(Gita VI. 26)

9 Who else than Brahma the Creator can easily and truly understand the wonderful poteocy of the mind ?

10. The actions of the mind alone are indeed actions not so much, those of the body

11 When the mind is intensely fond of anything there will be no perception of pain even if destruction awaits the body. When the mind is completely drowned in any object who else is there to observe and flee from the actions of the body ?

12 Habitual study of abstract problems will result—in another earthly life—in a well developed power for abstract thinking while flippant, hasty thinking flying from one object to another will bequeath a restless ill regulated mind to the following birth into this world.

13 Mind has got various preconceptions. When an artist begins to draw a picture on the canvas he draws the picture out of the materials preconceived by the mind.

14 Intense Rajas takes a Sattvic turn. Dacoit Ratnakar became the Sage Valmiki. Jagai and Madhai who were intensely rajasic and who pelted stones at Lord Gouranga became his first disciples.

15 The mind divides and subdivides until it arrives at the minimum psychoses which objectively considered may be called, to use an expressive term of a recent English work Psychon which in Indian terminology is a Paramanu.

16 These are the characteristics of the mind viz change (Parinama) activity (Chetan) suppression (Virodha) ideation in action (Sakti), physical life (Jivana) characterisation (Dharma)

17 A spark of light presents the appearance of a continuous circle of light if it is made to rotate rapidly. Even so though the mind can attend to only one thing at a time—either hearing or seeing or smelling—though it can admit only one kind of sensation at a time yet we are led to believe that it does several actions simultaneously because it moves from one object to another with tremendous velocity so rapidly that its successive attention and perception appear as a simultaneous activity.

18. Perception through the finite mind or cognition or experience takes place serially and not simultaneously. Simultaneous knowledge can only be had in isvara samadhi where past and future merge in the present. Only a buddhi will have simultaneous knowledge. A man of the world with a finite mind can have only a knowledge in succession. Though several objects may come in contact simultaneously with the different sense organs yet the mind acts like a gatekeeper who can admit only one person at a time through the gate. The mind can send only one kind of sensation at a time into the mental factory inside for the manufacture of a decent percept and a nice concept.

19 When his mind is fully occupied with the affairs of the war the soldier does not feel any serious injury as a gun-shot wound in the leg. He is not aware of the loss of a large quantity of blood also. He is filled with enthusiasm. He is not conscious of his body—so to say—for the time being. When the excitement is over when he sees some blood spots on his clothing or when some one of his friends points out to him the wound in the leg he gets the consciousness. Then he is alarmed a bit. The power of imagination plays havoc now. He gets a collapse now. The power of imagination always exaggerates.

20 Whenever the minds of two friends are strained by ill feelings these minds begin to exaggerate and concoct things. Fault-finding increases. It is very difficult to get at the truth of the statements of these two broken friends with broken friendship. Their utterances are always coloured by their inner feelings. The power of imagination does havoc now. Maya plays havocs through the mind and its power of imagination.

21 There are three Saktis (powers potencies) in the mind viz. Ichchha Sakti (Will) Kriya Sakti (Action) and Jnana Sakti (Knowledge). A desire arises in the mind. This is Ichchha Sakti. The mind exerts to have this desire gratified. This is Kriya Sakti. It plans, schemes and finds out methods etc. for the achievement of the desired object. This is Jnana Sakti.

22 There is a secretion from endocrine glands which are ductless viz. Thyroid, Thymus, Parotid, Pineal, Suprarenal etc. These secretions are directly absorbed into the blood. They play a vital part in constituting the temperament of every individual. The temperament of a man can be greatly modified by environments, education and experience. It can hardly be changed in toto That is the reason why the Gita says — सह्य चेष्टे स्वन्या प्रकृतेः शानवानपि Even the man of knowledge behaves in conformity with nature

(Gita III. 33)

23. Where the vision is turned outward (Bahir-mulika vritti) the rush of fleeting events engages the mind The outgoing energies of the mind begin to play

24 Even an infinitely superior mind is yet a mind and of the same mould as any man's.

25 It took me many years to understand thoroughly the subtle workings of the mind Mind works havoc through its power of imagination Imaginary fears of various sorts exaggeration concoction mental dramatisation building castles in the air are all due to this power of imagination Even a perfect healthy man has some imaginary disease or other due to the power of imagination of the mind. A man may have a little weakness When he becomes your enemy you at once exaggerate and magnify his weakness and dosa. You even superimpose on this or concoct many more weaknesses and dosas. This is due to evil imagination on your part Much energy is wasted on account of imaginary fears

26. Belief reasoning knowledge and faith are the four important psychic processes. First you have belief in a doctor. You go to him for diagnosis and treatment. He makes a thorough examination and then prescribes certain medicines. You take them. You reason out. Such and such is the disease. The doctor has given me Iron and Iodide. Iron will improve my blood. The Iodide will stimulate the lymphatics and absorb the exudation and growth in the liver. So I should take it. Then the disease is cured by a course of these drugs in a month. Then you get knowledge of and perfect faith in the efficacy of the medicine and the proficiency of the doctor. Then you recommend to your friends this doctor and his drugs.

27 I was absent-minded. I did not hear. I was absent-minded. I did not see. It is thus evident that a person sees with the mind, hears with the mind. Desire, determination, uncertainty, belief, disbelief, steadiness, unsteadiness, shame, intellect, fear, all this is the mind alone. Therefore when touched from behind a person knows by the mind." Bṛihadaranyaka Upaniṣad Ch. I Brah. V. 3

28 I shall explain to you the nature of mental dramatisation. Mark the ways of the mind. During conversation with your friends the mind sometimes imagines in vain that it has hurt the feelings of your friend. It spends much of its energy in unnecessary feeling. You think, How can I see him tomorrow morning. He may be displeased with me. Next morning when you meet him nothing happens. Your friend starts a pleasant conversation and smiles. You are surprised. To your great astonishment the subject of talk takes quite a different turn altogether. A family man imagines when a severe epidemic of plague ravages. What shall I do if my wife develops plague and dies now? I have got six children. This is his vain imagination. Nothing happens. Sometimes when the train moves slowly on the Pamhan Bridge over the sea near Rameshwaram the mind imagines. If the bridge gives way now what will become of me? I shall be smashed to pieces. A touch of fear creeps in. There are thousand and one ways of mental dramatisation like these. The power of imagination plays a vital part in mental dramatisation.

29 Time is but a mode of the mind. It is kāla-sakti. It is also illusory like the objects. When your mind is deeply concentrated, period of two hours passes like five minutes. If the mind is distracted, and wandering half an hour hangs on as two hours. This is every body's experience. In dream also many events that represent a period of fifty years take place within ten minutes. Through the play of the mind a kalpa is considered by it as a moment and vice versa.

30 Mark how one sankalpa expands into many sankalpas (listava) in a short time. Suppose you get a sankalpa to have a tea-party for your friends. One thought of tea invites instantaneously the thoughts of sugar, milk, tea-cups, tables, chairs, table cloth, napkins, spoons, sweetmeats, salted things etc. So this world is nothing but the expansion of sankalpas. The expansion of thoughts of the mind towards moving with prodigious rapidity backward and forward from one end to the other

57 The mind evolves through the impressions received from the universe through the senses. It will take many bodies till it gathers the complete experience of the world

58 The mind is not conscious of the greater portion of its own activities. A mind can hold in consciousness but one fact at a time. Only a fraction of our knowledge can be in the field of consciousness at any one moment.

59 An animal is not able to know itself. It has only physical consciousness. It has no self-consciousness. An animal feels the discomfort and pain. It is not able to analyse its own mental states. A man not only knows but he knows that he knows. This is either mental consciousness or self-consciousness. The man not only feels or senses things but he has words to express his feelings and sensations. He can vividly describe his feelings. He may think of himself as experiencing them. He can separate himself from the sensation or feeling. He is able to think, I feel, I hear, I see, I smell, I taste, I desire, I act, I enjoy.

60 "I know this book. I know also that I know this book. This is self-consciousness peculiar to human beings only.

61 Some people faint when they see a copious quantity of blood. Some men cannot see a surgical operation. They faint. These are all mental weaknesses. Some cannot take their food if some faecal or vomitted matter is nearby. All mental weaknesses must be eradicated by vichara.

62. Whenever you want to introduce any new healthy idea in the mind and eschew any old outgrown idea the mind fights against it and rebels with vehemence. The vast majority of persons are slaves of old outgrown ideas. They have not got the strength to change the old habits in the mind and the old ideas.

63. Cosmic mind is Hiranyagarbha. He is the sum total (Samasti) of all the minds. He is the Sutratma (threadlike Self). The individual mind of A although separated from the mind-substance used by other individuals B C D E, X Y etc. by a thin wall of very finest kind of matter is really in touch with the other apparently separated minds and with the universal mind of which it forms a part.

64. The mind in the vast majority of persons has been allowed to run wild and follow its own sweet will and desires. It is like a spoiled child who is given too much indulgence by its parents or a badly trained animal. The minds of many of us are like menageries of wild animals each pursuing the bent of its own nature and going its own way. Restraint on the mind is a thing unknown to the vast majority of persons.

65 The essence of Indriyas is the mind the essence of mind is Buddhi the essence of Buddhi is Ahanlara the essence of Ahanlara is Jiva (the individual soul) Brahman or Suddha Chaitanya is the womb or yoni or Adhishthana or substratum for everything. He is the Saksi or witness of everything.

66. When one thinks then he understands without having thought one does not know it is only after having thought that one understands (Chhandogya Upanisad ch VII. Sec. xxi 1)

67 What you call an umbrella is really a long stick plus a black cloth and some thin iron pieces Similarly what you call personality is really the external physical body plus brain and the nervous system and the mind which has its seat in the brain

68. Mind is constantly changing. You are gaining new experiences daily Your beliefs and conscience of 1932 and the faculty which judges right from wrong will change in 1942. The mind evolves through experience The world is the best teacher or Guru.

69 When you draw water with a rope and bucket from a well with a brick parapet a definite groove is formed along the brick and the rope readily runs along the groove. Even so the mental force (the mind) runs easily or flows readily along the grooves in the brain made by continuous thinking on certain lines

70 Mind always attaches itself to something objective (sthula) It cannot stand by itself It is only this mind that asserts itself as "I" in this body It is the most important Tattwa of Linga Sarira Linga Sarira is the astral body or Sukshma Sarira that is linked to the physical body through physical Prana It separates itself at death from the physical body and travels to Swarga or heaven It is this body that enjoys and suffers on account of Karma It is this body that does Aivagamana (coming and going) This body melts in Videha Mukti (disembodied salvation)

71 You know the existence of a tree through the mind only You must have an intellectual grasp intellectual conviction and comprehensive understanding of Brahman first through the purified mind. The help of the mind is always needed either for perception of an object or for the understanding of Brahman. Meditation proceeds from the mind only

72 If you perform actions through a stainless mind (with Akarta Bhava and Nishkama Bhava) your body will not share their fruits It is the mind alone which brings pleasures or pains on itself and enjoys them through its excessive inclination towards objects

73 There are various types of mind. The Bengalee type of mind is emotional and fit for devotion and art. The Madrassie type of mind is intellectual and clever in Mathematics. The Punjahee type of mind and Maharashtra type of mind are chivalrous. Bengal has produced devotional saints Lord Gouranga or Chaitanya Mahaprabhu Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa Deva etc. Madras has produced intellectual philosophers like Sri Ramanuja and Sri Sankara. The Punjab has produced Guru Govind Singh etc. The sadhana and path of Yoga vary according to type of mind temperament and capacity. Tastes also differ. The sight of a fish brings excessive joy to a Bengalee. The sight of tamarind and chillies excites the glossopharyngeal nerve of a Madrasite. The sight of a Palmyra fruit excites the Jaffna Tamil of Ceylon and brings excessive joy. The sight of meat brings a peculiar joy to a meat-eater. Is this not a mystery that an object lies outside and saliva appears in the tongue at the sight of it? Because you have this experience daily in every day life you do not attach much importance to it. Mind is very mysterious. So is Maya too.

74. The thing that gives you pleasure gives you pain also. 'ये हि संस्पर्शजा भोगा दुःखयोगिन्य एव ते' The delights that are contact born they are verily wombs of pain.

(Gita V 22)

75. In the Police Station the chapharnasi (peon) strikes ten at the gate. The sound vibrates and passes into the ears of men and animals. The animals also hear ten times the beating. But the man counts them and knows through his Buddhi "Now it is ten o'clock." He has got this Vishesa Jnana (special knowledge) whereas animals have got Samanya Jnana (ordinary knowledge) It is this special knowledge that differentiates a man from an animal Ahara Nidra Bhaya Marthana (food sleep fear and copulation) are common to both. Through this Vishesa Jnana he knows right from wrong good from bad what to do and what not to do (kartavya and akartavya)

76 Mind is nirayaya (without parts divisions compartments) It can have only one idea at a time This is the siddhanta of Naiyayikas Even those Vedantins who say that mind is saraya (with compartments) on the analogy of chora-nari (the prostitute whose mind is on the paramour even while she works in her house) admit that the mind can have vishesa vritti of the lover only and samanya vritti of the work on hand at the time

77 You cannot have visayakara vritti as Ghat-patadi vritti (modifications of pot cloth etc.) and Brahmakara vritti (thought of Brahman) also at the same time It is Sruti Virodha i.e. against the utterances of the Srutis) It is against practical experience also

78 When the mind gives attention and is attached to the sense of sight it can only see. It cannot hear It cannot hear and see at the same time It is every body's daily experience. Illiterate people say that they can see and hear at the same time The mind moves with a tremendous velocity backward and forward and people imagine that mind can do two things at a time. It is a sad mistake.

79 When your mind is wholly absorbed in deep study of some interesting book, you cannot hear even if a man shouts, because the mind was not there (with the sense of hearing) When you seriously think of a problem you can neither see nor hear nor feel All the Indriyas are detached from the mind There is only the process of anusandhana (enquiry or investigation) by the chitta (the mental substance)

80 Hiranyagarbha otherwise known as harya Brahman and Sambhuti is cosmic mind He is cosmic prana also The sum total of all minds is Hiranyagarbha He represents the electric, cosmic Power House The different Jivas represent the different, small bulbs Electricity from the power house flows through the insulated copper wires into the bulbs Similarly the power from Hiranyagarbha flows into the Jivas

81 There is a difference between Linga sarira and Antaraha sarira Linga sarira is astral body with 17 tattvas viz. 5 Karma Indriyas, 5 Jnana Indriyas 5 Pranas Mind and Buddhi Antavaha sarira is very pure. It is full of sattva. It is free from Rajas and Tamas. It is with this body that a Yogi passes from one body to another (Paralaya Pravesa) Lila through the grace of Saraswati came out of this physical body and travelled to higher worlds with this Antavaha sarira. You will find this in the

Yoga Vasistha. Sri Sankaracharya Raja Vikramaditya Hastamalaka and Tirumular had Antavaha sarira. With the help of this special kind of pure body they passed into the bodies of other persons. A Yogi with Antavaha sarira has Sat sankalpa or Suddha sankalpa

82. According to the state of his knowledge man's conscience is built up and changes from time to time with the correction of his views in the light of further knowledge gained subsequently. The conscience of a child or a savage is entirely different from the conscience of a fully grown civilized man and even amongst civilized men knowledge varies so much that their consciences direct different lines of conduct. The conscience of a Sattvic man considerably differs from that of a Rajasic man. The conscience of Sattvic man is very very clear and pure.

83. Mind tempts and deceives. Think of one as a good friend of yours and there the thing is created as a reality. Think of him as your foe, and there also the mind perfects the thought into an actuality. He who knows the working of the mind and has controlled it by practice is really happy.

84. In early boyhood the power of grasping in the mind is very marked. But there is no power of understanding. In 16 18 20 the power of understanding becomes manifest. The power of retentive memory is also great in this age. The mind becomes

92. Sense knowledge is the product of the connection between the mind and the sensory organs. That is why there is no simultaneity of the knowledge of the impressions received through the various sensory organs. People say: "My mind was elsewhere. I did not see that." The impossibility of this simultaneity of knowledge through various sensory organs is an indication of the existence of the mind.

93. This is the argument for the existence of Antahkarana or mind. Between the Atma and the organs of sense a connecting link is necessary. If we do not admit the internal organ there would result either perpetual perception or perpetual non-perception the former when there is a conjunction of Atma, the sense (Indriya) and the object (Visaya) the three constituting the instruments of perception. If on the conjunction of these three causes, the effect did not follow there would take place perpetual non-perception. But neither is the case. We have, therefore, to acknowledge the existence of an internal organ on whose attention (Avadhana) and non-attention (Anavadhana) perception and non-perception take place.

5 Seat of Mind

94. The seat of mind in deep sleep is heart. In dream the seat of the mind is neck. In waking state the seat of the mind is the right eye or Agni Chakra. Just mark what you do in Alochana (deep thinking). You hold your finger on the chin, turn the neck to the right side turn the gaze towards the space between the two eyebrows and then begin to think seriously on the problem in head. This goes to show that the seat of the mind is the Agni Chakra

95 A king though he has complete sway over his whole territory—though the whole kingdom belongs to him has got special places for his residence. He has got a splendid palace in the capital and another beautiful palatial building in Mussooree or Mount Abu for his stay in summer. Even so the mind though it is all-pervading throughout the body has got three places to reside in during the three states Jagrat Swapna and Susupti (eye or Agni Chakra neck and heart). Whenever there is prana there is mind also. Even in the external movement of breath beyond the nose the mind is mixed with the external breath.

96 Mind has its seat in the physical brain. It gains experiences of this physical universe through the vibrations of the brain. The brain is not mind as the Westerners think. Mind has various faculties and centres and operates through corresponding physical centres in the brain.

6 Seed for the Mind

97 As the first thought is the 'I' thought and as this 'I' thought is at the base of all other thoughts, Ahankara is the seed for the mind. As the buddhi (bheda buddhi) is the cause for this differentiation incessantly without any rest. It arranges classifies compares sorts all facts and works out a proper satisfactory solution

106. With the help of the sub-conscious mind you can change your vicious nature by cultivating healthy virtuous qualities that remain dormant in every human heart. If you want to overcome fear mentally deny that you have fear and concentrate your attention upon the opposite quality the ideal of courage. When courage is developed fear vanishes by itself. The positive always overpowers the negative. This is an infallible law of nature. This is Pratipaksa bhavana of Rajayogis. You can acquire a liking for distasteful tasks and duties by cultivating a desire and taste for them. You can establish new habits new ideals, new ideas and new tastes and new character in the sub-conscious mind by changing the old ones.

107. The functions of the chitta are Smriti or Smarana Dharana attention and Anusandhana (enquiry or investigation). When you repeat the Japa of a mantra it is the chitta that does the smarana. It does a lot of work. It turns out better work than the mind or buddhi.

8 Mind is the cause of Bondage and Liberation

108. Mind is the cause of bondage and salvation of man. 'मन एव मनुष्याणां कारणं बन्धनोत्थनाः' It is the mind which binds a man to this world where there is no mind there is no bondage Mind imagines through indiscrimination and ignorance that the soul has been confined and located in this body and hence it perceives the soul to be in bondage Mind exactly identifies itself with the Jivatma and feels itself to be 'I' and hence thinks 'I am in bondage. The egoistic mind is the root of bondage The non egoistic mind is the root of Moksha Mind through ignorance and indiscrimination considers its false personality to be true and thinks it is the doer of all karmas and thus becomes egoistic. It imagines that it is in bondage It identifies itself with the Jivatma it becomes Jivatma itself and takes the responsibility upon itself for doing good or bad karmas and enjoying or suffering from their fruits

109 Hence is mind the doer of karmas (actions) and responsibility for the karmas therefore rests with it.

110 Mind and Jivatma always live together They cannot be separated Mind drags the Jivatma into Visayas (sensual enjoyments) Jivatma is the abhi asa chaitanya or reflected intelligence in mind

111 Mind is the stealer of Atma It is a thief. Slay the mind the stealer of Atma through vichara manana and nididhyasana (constant and profound meditation) on Brahman.

112. The mind has two aspects one is discriminative and the other is imaginative. Mind in its aspect of discrimination releases itself from the bondage and attains Vol-ya. In its aspect of imagination it binds itself to the world.

9 Antahkarana

113. In vedanta the term Antahkarana is used for mind. It means the "Inner Instrument. Antah means inner Iarana means instrument as distinguished from the term Bahya Karana—outer instrument or the senses or Indriyas

114 Concentrate and meditate on the expansive sky This is another kind of nirguna niralaya meditation. By the previous methods in concentration the mind will leave off its thinking of finite forms. It will slowly begin to melt in the ocean of Peace as it is deprived of its contents viz., forms of various sorts It will become subtler and subtler as well

115 Even though consciousness is one, when Rama is stung by a scorpion only Rama feels and not his friend Krishna who is standing near him. Antahkarana or mind is different in every individual. It is antahkarana that limits a man who is in reality identical with the Brahman or Supreme Soul this identity is realised when the avarana or veil of ignorance is removed

116. When you pass through a mango garden, a ray of the mind comes out through the eye and envelopes a mango It assumes the shape of the mango. The ray is termed चित्. The enveloping process is called vr̥tti vyapti. The function of a vr̥tti is to remove the avarana (veil) that envelops the object and the Upahita chaitanya. The veil that envelops the mango is removed by the vr̥tti or the mental ray. There is chaitanya associated with the vr̥tti. (Vr̥tti sahita chaitanya) This chaitanya illuminates the object mango. This is termed Phal vyapti. Just as a torch light illumines an object in a flash this vr̥tti chaitanya illumines the object. Then only does perception of the mango take place. Mind makes Sankalpa-vikalpa —Is this a mango or not. Buddhi comes to help the mind and determines—this is a mango through previous experience. Chitta makes anusandhana (enquiry).

How can I get the mango? May I ask the gardener or the proprietor? Ahankara asserts "I must get the mango anyhow. I want it. Theo the command is given by the mind to the Karma Indriyas for execution.

117 Atma is the proprietor of a big firm this mental factory. Buddhi is the manager. Mind is the head clerk. The head clerk has got two functions to perform. He gets direct orders from the manager and he has to supervise the workmen also. Even so the mind has got two functions. It has connections with the Buddhi, the Manager and Karma-Indriyas, the workers.

118 Ahankara creates the body. Prana does all sorts of shrestas (efforts). Mind experiences pleasure and pain.

119 Pleasure and pain are 'dharma' of the antahkarana or mind. They have nothing to do with pure nityamukta (externally free) asanga (unattached) Atma. Atma is not in the least affected by these emotions. Atma is Saks (silent witness) of these feelings. It remains free like the crystal which is not affected by the tinge of various colours that are exposed before it. Atma remains unaffected like the subtle all-pervading Akasa.

10 Mental Body

120 The mental body varies much in different people. It is composed of coarse or of finer matter according to the needs of the more or less unfolded consciousness connected with it. In the educated it is active and well-defined; in the undeveloped it is cloudy and ill-defined.

121 On descending for rebirth a new mental body is formed for every individual.

122 Study of philosophical works, right thinking, exercise of good and noble emotions, prayers and beneficent endeavours and above all regular and strenuous meditation are the means to improve the mind. These will bring about the rapid evolution of the mind.

123 During intense anger the whole mind is suffused with the black hue of malice and ill will which expresses itself in coils of the thunderous blackness from which fiery arrows of anger dart forths seeking to injure the one for which the anger is felt.

124 There are several zones or slices in the mental body just as there are various compartments in the brain for particular types of thought

11 Ahankara

125. If you destroy egoism (Ahanlara this false little I') and control the Indriyas (the senses), the Vasanas (desires) will die by themselves. The root cause for all troubles is Ahanlara. Just as the dependants of a family hang upon the chief of the house—the father—similarly all Vasanas Trishnas Hamantas etc. hang upon Ahanlara the chief of this house-body

126 When you are a boy the Ahanlara is not very potent. It is like a shadow in a glass. It gets developed and firm-rooted during your adolescence after you marry and entangle yourself in the achievement of various worldly desires. You are fearless in your boyhood. The moment this little 'I' becomes stronger in you side by side various sorts of fear various sorts of desires a host of delusions take firm hold of you. The world appears to you more real too.

127 Whenever Ahanlara asserts itself raise a question within thyself, 'What is the source' of this little 'I'? Again and again moot this question and enquire. This little 'I' will gradually vanish. It will dwindle into an airy nothing 128 When you say 'Aham Brahma Asmi — "I am Brahman" it is satvic Ahanhara. It is Moksa Ahanhara. It will not bind you in any way. It will help you realise Brahman.

129 Even if you identify yourself with a subtle body inside it will help you in your self-realisation. It is only the identification with the fleshy physical body that brings all sorts of troubles through gross Ahanhara and mineness. The physical 'I' is a very great menace.

130 Just as the cloud screens the sun so also this cloud of Ahanhara screens the Jnana Surya the Infinite Sun of Knowledge Brahman.

131 The sprout of Ahanhara ramifies here and there with its long branches of mine and thine. It is inveterate. The deep roots should be burnt by the fire of knowledge (Jnanagni). Then you will quite easily get the wealth of Volga. All tribulations sorrows miseries and afflictions will terminate now.

132 Ahanhara is after all nothing. But tremendous is its influence! Maya means Ahanhara. Mind is another name for Ahanhara. World means Ahanhara. Ahanhara wants to live in flesh (Abhinivesa or clinging to life) to eat flesh and to embrace flesh. This is pure Ajnana (ignorance) only. Look at Maya & deception and wholesale swindling ! Beware ! Awake !

Get Jnana

133 You cannot all at once eradicate Ahankara altogether Try to minimise it little by little Remove one aona of Ahankara within three months Within four years you will be able to root it out completely You will have to remove it either by self-sacrifice through Karmayoga—or self-surrender—through Bhakti—or self-denial—through Vedaotic Atmavichara

134 You cannot realise God if you have the least tinge of egoism if you have the slightest attachment to name and form if you have the least tinge of Vasana or if you have the least trace of worldly desire in the mind.

135 Ahankara is developed through the thoughts of the mind This idea of I will bring in its train the idea of time space and other potencies With these environments the name Jiva accrues to it Contemporaneously with it there arise Buddhi memory manas which is the seed of the tree of sankalpa

136 Ahankara is like a thread It connects or links all the indriyas on itself When the thread is brokeo all the pearls fall down Even so when the thread of Ahankara is broken by Aham Brahma Asmi —bhavana or saksi bhava or self surrender method by taking the nimitta bhava (instrument—in—the—hands—of—the—Lord attitude) all the indriyas will be broken down or destroyed. The connection with Indriyas will be served.

137 Don't exert to destroy the different virtues hama hrodha Dicesa etc. If you can destroy one virtue Ahanlara all other virtues will die by themselves. Ahanlara is the corner-stone or edifice of Jiva. If the corner stone is removed the whole edifice (of Jiva) will tumble down. This is the secret. You can easily give up wife, children money anger. But it is extremely difficult to give up Ahanlara.

138 Atma in conjunction with the buddhi is Ahanlara. The basis of Ahanlara is buddhi. Ahanta and Mamata (I-ness and mine-ness) are Jivasristi. It is Jivasristi that binds a man to the world. Ishvarasristi (God's creation) helps man in his God-realisation. Control of the Indriyas and Pranayama help to develop the buddhi (Vitality of buddhi). When you remove layer after layer the onion dwindles to nothing. When you analyse the little 'I' it becomes a non-entity. Body is not 'I'. 'I' remains even after the leg is amputated. Give up Jivasristi.

12. The Three Avasthas

Jagrat Atastha (Walking State)

139 The state of waking consciousness does not exist either in dream or sleep. Therefore, it is illusory. Reality always exists in all conditions or states.

140 The individual soul (Jīva) is called awake as long as it is connected with the various external objects by means of the modifications of the mind—which thus constitute limiting adjuncts of the soul—apprehends those external objects and identifies itself with the gross body which is one of those external objects

141 The difference between the waking and the dreaming states consists in this that in the waking condition the mind depends on the outward impressions while in the dreaming state it creates its own impressions and enjoys them. It uses of course the materials of the waking hours. Jagrat state is only a long dream (Dirgha Svapna)

Svapna-Jagrat

142 Manoraja (building castles in the air) recollection of the events and things of dream recollection of things long past to the waking state are all Svapna-Jagrat (dreaming in the waking state)

Svapna Avastha (Dreaming State)

143 When the mind enters the Hita nadi which proceeds from the heart and surrounds the great membrane round the heart which is as thin as a hair divided into thousand parts and is filled with the minute essence of various colours of white black yellow and red the individual soul or Jīva (ego) experiences the state of dream (svapna avastha)

144 You dream that you are a king. You enjoy various kinds of royal pleasures. As soon as you wake up everything vanishes. But you do not feel for the loss because you know that the dream creatures are all false. Similarly even the waking consciousness if you are well established in the idea that the world is a false illusion you will not get any pain.

145 When you know the real tattva (Brahman) the waking consciousness also will become quite false like a dream. Wake up! and Realise my child!

146 There is temperamental difference. Some rarely get dreams. A Jnani who has knowledge of the Self will not have any dream.

147 During dream you see splendid effulgent light. Where does it come from? From Atma. The light that is present in the dream clearly indicates that Atma is Self luminous (Srayam Jyoti Sva-Pratasa).

148 When modified by the impressions which the external objects have left, it (the Jiva) sees dreams.

149 In dream state the senses are quiet and absorbed in the mind. The mind alone operates in a free and unfettered manner. The mind itself assumes the various forms of bee, flower, mountain, elephant, horse, river etc. The seer and the seen are one.

Sushupti Avastha (Deep Sleep)

150 The consciousness is continuous. You feel you have existed even during sleep as soon as you are awake. You feel that you exist always.

151. When the mind enters the Puritat nadī the state of deep sleep sets in.

152. This is the way to reduce your sleep. For the first four months go to bed at 11 p.m. and get up at 4 a.m. Have sleep for five hours. For the next four months go to bed at 12 p.m. and get up at 4 a.m. Have sleep for 4 hours. For the next four months go to bed at 1 a.m. and get up at 4 a.m. Have sleep for 3 hours.

153. In Drulha Susupti (dreamless sleep) you have a cessation of empirical consciousness. The self continues to exist though it is bereft of all experiences. There is no play of the mind in this Avastha (state). There is neither Raga nor Dvesa (attraction or repulsion like or dislike). The mind gets Laya into its cause. Manolaya (involution of the mind) takes place. There is no play of the Indriyas (organs senses) too. This state of profound sleep is not a complete non-being or negation for such a hypothesis conflicts with the later recollections of a happy repose of sleep. Vedantins build their philosophy around this Avastha. This state gives them the clue to the non-dual state (Advaitic state). A careful study of the three states (Jagrat Svapna and Susupta) waking dreaming and sleeping is of immense practical use for the clear understanding of the Vedānta

154 Where was the spirit whose nature is like knowledge at the time when one profoundly sleeps? When the spirit whose nature is like knowledge thus profoundly slept then the ether in the midst of the heart, drawing in together with the knowledge of the senses slept therein in the ether. When the spirit draws in that (knowledge of the senses) then he sleeps indeed. Thus life is drawn in speech is drawn in the eye is drawn in the ear is drawn in and the mind is drawn in. Ajata Satru to Gargya in Bṛhadāraṇyaka Upaniṣad Chap II 1st Brahmana 16

155 In sleep the mind is in a subtle state. The vaiśvānara have also assumed a subtle state. But in Adiṣṭa (vedāntic) Āstha there is no mind. There is no universe. The world sinks down in Brahman (Prajñāchopaniṣad) (Vide Mandūkya Upaniṣad II Mantra 1)

156 In dreamless sleep there are no thoughts and hence there is no world too. In waking and dreaming states there is the play of the thoughts and hence the world as well.

157 Sankara observes that the phenomena of duality caused by the action of the mind are present in the waking and dreaming states only but absent in deep sleep state. We taste the nature of Absolute Bliss

in dreamless sleep where a man is cut off from the distracting world. It is the mind (lower manas) that creates differences distinctions duality and separateness. If this mind is destroyed by increasing the Sattva and Ahaugraha Upasana then you will feel oneness everywhere (Sarvatmabhava). This needs continuous and strenuous efforts on the part of the sadhakas.

158. When on the cessation of the two limiting adjuncts (i.e. the subtle and the gross bodies) and the consequent absence of the modifications due to the adjuncts it is in the state of deep sleep merged in the self as it were then it is said to be asleep.

159. "When a man sleeps here then my dear he becomes united with the Sat he is gone to his own self. Therefore they say of him He sleeps (Srapiti) because he is gone to his own (suam apiti)"

Chhandogya Upanisad

13 Theory of Perception

160. According to the adwaitic theory of perception it is the Chaitanya within us that makes perception possible. The Chetana within us unites with the Chetana in the object, and the result is perception. It does not follow from this that the mind and the senses are useless. The senses are necessary for the adaptation of perception to their approximate things. From the soul's essential nature being intelligence, it does not follow that the senses

Susupti) waking dreaming and sleeping is of immense practical use for the clear understanding of the Vedānta

154 Where was the spirit whose nature is like knowledge at the time when one profoundly sleeps? When the spirit whose nature is like knowledge thus profoundly slept, then the ether in the midst of the heart drawing in together with the knowledge of the senses slept therein in the ether. When the spirit draws in that (knowledge of the senses) then he sleeps indeed. Thus life is drawn in speech is drawn in the eye is drawn in the ear is drawn in and the mind is drawn in. Ajata Satru to Gargya in Brihadaranyaka Upanisad Chap. II. 1st Brahmana 16

155 In sleep the mind is in a subtle state. The tritti have also assumed a subtle state. But in Adwaita (vedāntic) Nistha there is no mind. There is no universe. The world sinks down in Brahman (Prapanchopasamam) (Vide Mandukya Upanisad II Mantra 1)

156 In dreamless sleep there are no thoughts and hence there is no world too. In waking and dreaming states there is the play of the thoughts and hence the world as well.

157 Sankara observes that the phenomena of duality caused by the action of the mind are present in the waking and dreaming states only but absent in deep sleep state. We taste the nature of Absolute Bliss

in dreamless sleep where a man is cut off from the distracting world. It is the mind (lower manas) that creates differences, distinctions, duality and separateness. If this mind is destroyed by increasing the Sattva and Ahaṁgraha Upasana then you will feel oneness everywhere (Sarvatmabhava). This needs continuous and strenuous efforts on the part of the sadhakas.

158. When on the cessation of the two limiting adjuncts (i.e. the subtle and the gross bodies) and the consequent absence of the modifications due to the adjuncts it is in the state of deep sleep merged in the self as it were then it is said to be asleep.

159. "When a man sleeps here then my dear he becomes united with the Sat he is gone to his own self. Therefore they say of him He sleeps (Svapiti) because he is gone to his own (svam apiti)

Chhandogya Upanisad

13 Theory of Perception

160. According to the Advaitic theory of perception it is the Chaitanya within us that makes perception possible. The Chetana within us unites with the Chetana in the object and the result is perception. It does not follow from this that the mind and the senses are useless. The senses are necessary for the adaptation of perception to their approximate things. From the soul's essential nature being intelligence, it does not follow that the senses are useless for they serve the purpose of determining the special object of each sense.

14 Theory regarding World

161 Mr Naram my friend who is standing before me is my own mental creation Even this world is my own mental creation

162 According to the idealistic theory there is no world at all in reality It is all mere mental imagination This is Vijnanatada of the Buddhists

163 According to the realistic theory, the world is a solid reality Even the dualistic school of Madhva and Visistadvaita school of Ramanuja and Rajayogic school of Maharsi Patanjali hold that the world is real (Jagat satyam)

164 A finite mind that is gross and conditioned by time, space and causation cannot comprehend the why and how of the universe, a question that is transcendental The question has never been answered by anybody by any Sastra by any sage or Acharya Do not rack your mind on this point You can never get a solution for this problem It is Mouja of Brahman to create this universe. It is His Lila Vilasa It is His Maya It is His Svabhava.

15 Mind and Food

165. Subtlest part of food reaches upward to the heart and thence entering the arteries called the

Hita and thereby bringing into existence the aggregate of the organs of speech and being changed into the form of the mind it increases the mind. And thus the mind being increased by food is material and not eternal as held by the Vaisesikas

166 A Jyñasi (spiritual aspirant) should strictly give up meat, fish and alcoholic drinks as these make the mind coarse and produce excitement in the mind

167 The Upanisadic philosophers believed that the mind depends upon the food for its formation. The mind is manufactured out of the food that we take. The food that we take is transferred in three different ways: the gross or the heaviest part of it becomes the excrement; that of medium density is transformed into flesh; and the finest part goes to form the mind. Chhandogya Upanisad Ch. VI Sect. V. 1. Just as in the churning of curds its fine particles rise up and are transformed into butter, so when food is consumed, the subtlest part rises up and is transformed into mind. Ibid Ch. VI Sect. VI. 1-2. Later even in the days of the Bhagavadgita we find that the three different mental temperaments—the Sattvic, the Rajasic and the Tamasic—were supposed to be due to the three different kinds of food that we eat (xvii. 8, 10). When the quality of the mind depends upon the quality of the food taken, it is natural to insist in the interest of the highest morality upon a kind of Sattvic regime of diet for those aspirants who lead a contemplative life and householders who are attempting to lead a spiritual life in the world

आहारशुद्धौ सत्त्वशुद्धिः ।

सत्त्वशुद्धौ ध्रुवा स्मृतिः ।

स्मृतिलामे सर्वप्रधीना विप्रमोहः ।

When the food is pure the whole nature becomes pure when the nature becomes pure the memory becomes firm and when a man is in possession of a firm memory all the ties are severed.

It was because Narada had his impurity destroyed that the venerable Sanatkumara pointed out to him the way beyond darkness. The way which leads up beyond darkness therefore must be sought for in the purity of food which involves in its train the purity of mind.

168. The mind is made out of the subtle essence of food. So it is attached to those persons from whom it receives the food. If you live with a friend for a couple of months and take food with him your mind gets attached to that friend who feeds you. That is the reason why a Sannyasi lives on Madhukari Bhiksha from three to five houses, avoids attachment and travels from village to village. He is not allowed to stay for more than a day in a village during his parivrajala life (wandering itinerant). A paramahansa's mind (who thus lives on alms) is as clean as the Ganges water and is absolutely free from attachment of any kind ATTACHMENT BRINGS BONDAGE. Attachment is death. Attachment is the root of all evils.

16 Mind is World

169 Mind is Maya. Mind is world When the mind is purified a hole is formed in the centre through which purity light and knowledge flow from Brahman

170 This universe is no other than the mind itself. What you call world in the mind only (Vanomatia Jagrat Manokalpita Jagrat) The self light of Parabrahman alone is appearing as the mind or this motley universe

171 The happiness and misery experienced in this world are caused by the working of the mind. The three worlds are created for the pleasures and pains of the mind. Suspension of the mental activity will cause the three worlds to disappear with their misery By controlling the mind all occult powers are acquired If the mind is not controlled all else become useless and painful.

172. Mind is greater than speech Just as the closed fist holds two Amalaka or two Kola or two Ala fruits so does the mind hold speech and name. When a man is minded in his mind to read the Vedas he reads them. And when a man is minded to perform actions he performs them when he is minded to desire sons and cattle he desires them and when he is minded to wish for this world and the next, he wishes for them. Mind is indeed the self mind is the world mind is Brahman. Meditate upon the mind ( मनो ह्यात्मा मनो हि लोको मनो हि ब्रह्म मन उपास्वति )<sup>१</sup>

Olilandogya Upanisad Chap VII, Sects 3 1.

173 The abhaya of Jagrat (non existence of the world) or its nasa (destruction) does not mean the annihilation of mountains lakes, trees, and rivers. When your nischaya (determination) that this world is mithya (unreal illusory) gets stronger and stronger and when you are well-established on this idea that this world is illusory like mirigatrismila (mirage) this alone is destruction of the world

174 This legerdemain of the world is enacted by the mind and the mind alone—'मनोमात्रजगत्' This universe is no other than the mind itself The Self-light of Parabrahman alone is appearing as the mind or this universe. Mind is Prajna-Sakti Matter is Bhuta Sakti Prana is Kriya-Sakti of Brahman Everything belongs to Brahman In reality there is no Jiva There is Brahman only

175 This universe is like a svapna in Jagrat Just as there is the image in the mirror this world is a big image in the mind-mirror The mind is like a big chaddar (thick cloth) painted with various pictures

176 The play of the mind arising out of chaitanya (pure consciousness) constitutes this universe. There is neither painter nor canvas nor any materials for painting such as brushes, dishes, oil, powder etc. The picture of the universe appears depicted on the spotless Jnana-alasa (knowledge-space)

177 Viksepa Sakti one of the powers of Maya operates both in the Jagrat and Svapna states. Names and forms arise owing to the Viksepa force. The whole world is projected on account of this power only. In sleep it disappears.

178. The mind manifests itself as the external world. The mind is subjectively consciousness and objectively it is this universe.

179. If the mind which is instrument of knowledge, perception and activity vanishes with it disappears this subjective world also.

180. This manas which expands through samlalpas and vilalpas is generated with Brahman as its cause. Through its samlalpas Ahaṁkāra is generated. All the universes which appear only through manas are no other than its modes. This universe appears to be real through manas only.

181. Vaya is mind. The workings of the mind are nothing but the workings of Vaya itself. Attraction or attachment in the mind towards forms is Vay. Identification of one's own self with the mind is Vriya.

182. The motion or vibration of prana moves the mind. The movement of the mind generates the universe. Nama-Rupa (names and forms) manifest themselves.

183. All the universes with their heterogeneity though really Atma-Jnana shine as worlds only through your illusory mind like the blueness of the sky which is really non-existent.

CHAPTER II.

1 Shuddha Manas

184 Suddha manas (pure mind) is Brahman itself. It is an embodiment of purity itself.

185 All lofty aspirations pure compassion all embracing tenderness and pity all go a long way in increasing the Sattvic material of the mind. The higher manas is developed.

186 A stainless mind can be judged through speech face and eyes. Through these expressions can the opinion be formed whether a person has a stainless mind.

187 Your real enemy is this impure mind on which is full of delusion trishas vasanas and host of other impurities. Destroy the lower Asuddha (impure) Manas through the higher Suddha Manas. Then and then alone will you get eternal infinite peace and bliss of Atma. Then alone will you become a Jnanmukta.

188. Sattvic minds and Rajasic minds move in diametrically opposite directions. A sattvic mind likes solitude silence, simple living, high thinking, study of spiritual books, philosophical discussion.

concentration of mind and company of sādhus mahatmas and sannyasins. A rajasic mind likes crowded cities much talking luxurious life low thinking the company of women study of romantic novels eating dainty dishes and selfish works.

189 As one iron shapes another iron the pure mind of a person which makes efforts in the virtuous path should correct and mould his impure mind.

190 If the lower mind is done away with through the higher mind alone then only will you have eternal happiness and peace. Then alone will you attain Valsa Supreme Knowledge and perennial Bliss

191 In this ocean of samsara, desires are the crocodiles. Kill them as soon as they arise on the surface of the mind. Do not yield to them. Do not become despondent under your trials. Make friendship with the pure Sattvic mind and destroy the impure mind with the help of the pure mind. Make your mind rest in the blissful Atma. The desires should be crushed the very moment they arise in the mind by discrimination and dauntless indefatigable efforts.

192 There is the lower mind filled with passion. There is the higher mind filled with Sattva (purity). There are two minds. You will have to make it into one—Sattvic mind only if you want to meditate.

193 The thought itself must be calm and unruffled. Then only you can draw inspirations. In such conditions only benign influences can be thrown down into the lower mind from the higher. In such calm mental states you can hold communion with God. Planning, angry and depressed moods all disturb the mind and act as stumbling blocks to God-Realization.

194 Higher desires, noble aspirations, lofty ideals, true religious feeling, mercy, sympathy, pure unselfish love, devotion, vichara (Atmic enquiry), inspiration, genius, all come from the higher, pure sattvic mind. You will have to develop this part of mind by annihilating the lower, impure, instinctive mind. Sattvic mind unifies, Instinctive mind separates and divides.

195 There are two kinds of mind: Suddha Manas and Asuddha Manas, i. e. pure mind and impure mind. There are two kinds of Buddhi also: Vyavaharic Buddhi and pure Buddhi. There are two kinds of Aham or Ahamkara viz. Suddha Aham which identifies with Brahman (sat-chit-ananda) and Asuddha Aham which identifies with the body. There are two kinds of sankalpa (resolve, conation) viz. Suddha sankalpa (thoughts of God) and Asuddha sankalpa (thoughts of body and the world).

2. Ashuddha Manas.

196 The enemy of Atma is this impure mind which is replete with excessive delusion and a host of thoughts. Lest this enemy of mind should spoil you in diverse ways through the enjoyments of the many pleasures in this world, slay it in the hope of getting eternal bliss and spiritual illumination

197 A goldsmith converts 10 carat gold into 15 carat gold by adding acids and burning it several times in the crucible. Even so you will have to purify your sensuous mind through concentration and reflection on the words of your spiritual preceptor and the Upanishadic sentences, meditation Japa or silent repetition of the name of the Lord etc.

198. A dirty mirror produces a dirty image. A clear mirror gives a clear image. People with a dirty mind judge others according to their own standard of judgment and thereby commit serious blunders. If they see even a good moral man passing along the road with a woman at once they will entertain some strong suspicion and scandalise him then and there. They have no other work besides scandal-mongering. Pitiable indeed is the lot of such people. Once a son of a peasant was drinking some cold water with his mother in a lonely place during their journey to a neighbouring village. Another traveller suspected that these were immoral people and were drinking liquor. Later on when he found out the truth he repented very much. Therefore be careful in your judgment of others.

199 Sensual enjoyment brings no diseases and destroys the power of discrimination (viveka). It makes the mind malina (impure). Therefore shun

visayabhoga (sensual enjoyer) Try to realise the Self within wherein lies eternal Bliss and Immortality

200 Instinctive mind is the lower impure hama manas with desires passions and appetites The vast majority of persons have this instinctive mind only Even the so-called civilized and educated persons live on the plane of this instinctive mind. Their senses are very sharp and acute and they run after more refined things for their sense-gratification They identify themselves with the physical body and the senses They have no idea of the subtle Atma which is entirely distinct from the body and the Indriyas Their I is the physical gross body only though they know that there is a mind

The Asuddha manas which creates Asuddha sankalpa the Vyavaharic buddhi and Asuddha ahanlara all these three form a vicious circle. These three work in co-operation The seed of the mind is Ahankara Mind is a bundle of thoughts. Of all thoughts the I thought is the root thought. It is the first thought also that emanated from the mind Buddhi is the basis of Ahankara It is Buddhi that forces you to identify yourself with the physical body It is Buddhi that creates differences (bheda) and Nana bhava (the idea of many in the world)

3 Vritti and Mind Ocean

201. The chitta is the mind stuff. It is the mental substance Vritti or thought-wave is a modification of that mental substance. It is a process. Just as waves and bubbles arise from the surface of the ocean so also these vrittis arise from the surface of the mind-ocean. Just as rays emanate from the sun so also these mental rays (modifications of vrittis) emanate from the mind sun. Just as the sun merges itself in the horizon at the sunset by collecting all its rays so also you will have to merge in that Sun of suns. Absolute Consciousness. Eternal Peace by collecting all the dissipated mental rays and dissolving the mind itself.

202. Be silent. Enter silence. Silence is Atma. Silence is Brahma. Silence is centre. Silence is the Hridaya Gufa, (heart-cave). When the mind is controlled fully vrittis cease, when all the modifications subside you enter into the silence then and then alone. Realize this this very moment. Feel the Divine Glory and Brahmic splendour now by closing the eyes by drawing the Indriyas by stilling the mind by silencing the thoughts by sharpening the intellect by purifying the chitta by meditating on OM by chanting OM with bhava (feeling). Keep up the continuity of Brahmic Consciousness throughout the 24 hours. Have an unceasing flow of Atmic Consciousness. This is very very important. This is a sine qua non. This is a great desideratum.

203. Wherefrom does a vritti arise? From the chitta or mind. Why does a vritti arise? It is Swabhava of Antahkaran. What is its function? It causes Avaranabhanga (removes the veil of stibhas avidya that envelops the objects) It helps the evolution of a man till he attains perfection (Jnanamul ti)

204 It is not the object that hinds you. It is vritti and identification (padatmya sambandha) with the vritti that causes attachment and bondage

205 It is vritti that opens the Kundalini in a Inani in the Agnachakra and joins it in Sahasrara This is one path.

206 Through its own efforts the mind assumes the shape of any object it concentrates itself upon. It thinks of a woman it assumes the shape of a woman This is termed Vritti tadakara If it thinks of God or Brahma Brahmalara vritti develops In the former case rajas (passion) will be infused into the mind while in the latter sattva (purity) will be infused

207 If you keep lemon juice or tamarind juice in a golden cup it is not spoiled or tainted If you keep it in a brass or copper vessel it is at once spoiled and rendered poisonous Even so even if there are some Visaya vrittis (sensual thoughts) in the pure mind of a person, they will not pollute him and induce Ilara (sensual excitement) If there are sensual thoughts in persons with impure minds they cause excitement in them when they come across sensual objects

208. In a big surgical clinic, the assistant surgeon allows only one patient to enter the consultation room of the senior surgeon for examination. Even so the mind allows one idea only to enter the mental factory at a time through the mind door (Manodwara). The sub-conscious mind brings to the threshold of the conscious mind during an act of smṛiti (memory) the right thing at the right moment suppressing all others. It serves the part of a censor and allows only relevant memories to pass by. What a wonderful mechanism it is! Who is the driver for these dual minds? Who created these? What a magnanimous Being He must be! My hairs stand on their ends when I think of Him! My pen quivers when I write. Don't you like to dwell with Him? What a great privilege and joy it is to be in communion with Him!

209. According to Rajayoga of Maharsi Patanjali, Prāmāṇa (right notion or right proof) viparyaya (misconception) vikalpa (fancy or imagination) nidra (sleep) and smṛiti (memory) are the five mental vṛttis or mental functions. If these five mental functions are suppressed the suppression of desires and other functions will follow.

210. From manovṛtti you must jump to viveka-vṛtti. Manovṛtti concerns Manomaya kośa. Viveka-vṛtti belongs to Vijñānamaya kośa. By developing the Vijñānamaya kośa manovṛttis are conquered. From Viveka-vṛtti you must jump to Sakṣi-vṛtti. From Sakṣi-vṛtti you must jump to Ahaṇḍakara vṛtti.

From Akhandakara-vritti you must jump to Akhandal-arasa which is Brahma-svarupa. This is kaivalya or final goal of life

211. Vrittis are modifications of the mind. They are the effect of avidya. When avidya is destroyed by Jnana, Vrittis get absorbed in Brahma (Laya) just as water thrown in a heated pan is absorbed in the pan.

212. Anger clouds understanding. Even if you have forgotten the feeling of annoyance it lurks in the mind in a dormant form. The effect is there for some time. If you renew a number of times the same kind of thought of jealousy, envy or hatred about the same person, the effect lasts longer. Repetition of angry feeling intensifies hatred. Mere ill-feeling develops into intense malice by repetition of anger. When the mind is violently agitated you cannot understand a passage of a book clearly. You cannot think properly and clearly. You cannot write a letter with a cool mind. Anger spoils the brain, nervous system and blood.

213. Prejudice makes the mind and brain callous. The mind cannot think truly. Prejudice is like an open sore on the physical body through which the will-power of the man is leaking. Be liberal or catholic to your views. You must give a place for every school of philosophy and every religion. A particular religion suits a particular nation according to the stage of evolution, temperament and capacity.

of the people. Arya Samaja Brabmo Samaja New Thought movement, Occultism and cults of various kinds and denominations serve their own useful purpose. Prejudice is only unreasonable dislike. You must remove it by efforts and right thinking.

214 Prejudice or unreasonable dislike prepossessions and intolerance are three undesirable vrittis in the mind. Prejudice makes the mind callous. It is a kind of mental sore. If you have prejudice against Mohammedans you cannot understand the teachings of Mohammed in the Koran. The brain and the mind will not harmoniously vibrate to receive the spiritual ideas of Koran because the prejudice has rendered the mind callous. Intolerance is narrow mindedness on account of some narrow beliefs, convictions and views. You must be extremely detached and sohere in your views. Your mind will be greatly disturbed through intolerance. Even though your views are diametrically opposite to the views of others you must have perfect tolerance. A man of tolerance has an expanded heart. Tolerance brings lasting peace.

215 Self sufficiency is a peculiar modification in the mind. It is the effect of vanity pride and Dambha. It is a Rajoguna vritti. Remove it by right thinking vichara and practice of the opposite virtue humility.

4 Thought Power<sup>1</sup>

216 If you entertain healthy thoughts you can keep good health. If you hold on sickly thoughts in the mind thoughts of diseased tissues thoughts of weak nerves thoughts of improper functioning of organs or viscera you can never expect good health beauty and harmony I have to reiterate once more that the body is the product of the mind If you hold on vigorous thoughts in the mind, then the physical body also will be vigorous 217 If you entertain thoughts of hatred you are really a murderer of that man against whom you foster thoughts of hatred. You are your own suicide because these thoughts rebound upon you only

218. The stronger the thoughts the earlier the fructification

219 It is difficult to explain the detailed workings of a thought and karma Every karma produces two-fold effects one on the individual mind and the other on the world

220 Every change in thoughts is accompanied by vibration of its matter (mental) Thought as force needs a special kind of subtle matter in its working

221 Evil thoughts of all kinds defoul and injure the mind and if persisted in will become veritable diseases and maimings of the mind incurable during the period of life.

222. A man forms his own character becoming that which he thinks. He makes the circumstances of his future life by the effect of his actions upon others If you think nobly you shall gradually make for yourself a noble character but if you think basely a base character will be formed Man is created by thought that which he thinks upon in one life he becomes in another

223 If the mind dwells continually upon one train of thought, a groove is formed into which the thought-force runs automatically and such a habit of thought survives death and since it belongs to the ego is carried over to the subsequent earth life as a thought tendency and capacity

224 Selfish coveting of the possessions of others though never carried out into active cheating in the present makes one a thief in a later earth life while hatred and revenge secretly cherished are the seeds from which the murderer springs So again unselfish loving yields as harvest the philanthropist and the saint and every thought of compassion helps to build the tender and pitiful nature which belongs to one who is a friend to all creatures

225 The expansion of this mind alone is sankalpa and sankalpa through its power of differentiation generates this universe. Divest yourself of all sankalpas and be a Nirvankalpa You will be then in perfect peace and joy

226 Every action has a past which leads up to it. Every action has a future which proceeds from it. An action implies a desire which prompted it and a thought which shaped it. Each act is a link in an endless chain of causes and effects each effect becoming a cause and each cause having been an effect and each link in the endless chain is welded out of three components—desire thought and activity A desire stimulates a thought a thought embodies itself in an act

227 As a man thinketh so he is Man is created by thought what a man thinks upon that he becomes If you meditate on courage you shall work courage into your character So with purity patience unselfishness and self-control Steady persevering thought sets up a definite habit of the mind and that habit manifests itself as a quality in the character You can build your character as surely as a mason can build a wall working with and through the law

228. The thread of thought has woven into mental and moral qualities and these qualities in their totality form what we call character

229 The first step towards a deliberate creation of character lies then in the deliberate choosing of what we will think and then of thinking persistently on the quality chosen Ere long there will be a tendency to evince that quality a little longer its exercise will become habitual Thought makes character You spin the thread of thought into your destiny

230 Thought is a great force. It has got tremendous power It becomes a matter of great moment to know how to use this power in the highest possible way and to the greatest possible effect. This can best be done by the practice of meditation.

231 You can aid a friend in trouble by sending him thoughts of comfort a friend in search of Truth by thoughts clear and definite of the truths he knows. You can send into the mental atmosphere thoughts which will raise, purify and inspire all who are sensitive to them.

232 A mind tenanted by evil thoughts acts like a magnet to attract like thoughts from others and thus intensifies the original evil.

233 Evil thoughts thrown into the mental atmosphere poison receptive minds. To dwell on an evil thought gradually deprives it of its repulsiveness and impels the thinker to perform an action which embodies it.

234 While electricity travels at the rate of 186,000 miles per second thoughts virtually travel at no limit, their speed being as much faster than electricity as their vehicle manas is finer than ether, the medium of electricity.

235 What is the possible medium through which thoughts can travel from one mind to another? The best possible explanation is that manas or mind-substance fills all space like ether and it serves as the vehicle for thoughts as Prana is the vehicle for feelings ether is the vehicle for heat light and electricity and air is the vehicle for sound.

236. If we throw a piece of stone in a tank or a pool of water it will produce a succession of concentric waves travelling all around from the affected place. The light of a candle will similarly give rise to waves of ethereal vibrations travelling in all directions from the candle. In the same manner when a thought (whether good or evil) crosses the mind of a person it gives rise to vibrations in the manas or mental atmosphere which travel far and wide in all directions.

237. A good thought is thrice blessed. First it benefits the thinker by improving his mental body (Manomaya-losa). Secondly it benefits the person about whom it is entertained. Lastly it benefits all mankind by improving the general mental atmosphere.

238. An evil thought on the contrary is thrice cursed. First it harms the thinker by doing injury to his mental body. Secondly it harms the person who is its object. Lastly it harms all mankind by viciating the whole mental atmosphere.

239. It is not sufficient that your thoughts are not bad. You must transmute bad thoughts into good thoughts. This is the first part of your Sadhana. You must make them helpful thoughts. When they are sent out they must be capable of doing immense good and benefit to the suffering humanity and your neighbours

240 Think clearly Clarify your ideas again and again Introspect in solitude Purify your thoughts to a considerable degree Silence the thoughts. Do not allow the mind to bubble Let one thought-wave rise and settle down calmly Then allow another thought to enter Drive off all extraneous thoughts that have no connection with the subject matter you are handling at the present moment.

241. In broadcasting a singer sings beautiful songs at Calcutta You can hear them nicely through the radio set in your own house at Delhi. All messages are received through the wireless. Even so your mind is like a wireless machine. A saint with peace poise harmony and spiritual waves sends out into the world thoughts of harmony and peace They travel with tremendous lightning speed in all directions and enter the minds of thousands and produce in them also similar thoughts of harmony and peace. Whereas a worldly man whose mind is filled with jealousy revenge and hatred sends out discordant thoughts which enter the minds of thousands and stir in them similar thoughts of hatred and discord

242. Thoughts of sin haunt the minds of some persons They do not know how to divert their minds. They become prey to these haunting thoughts. Virtue and sin are relative terms They are creations of the mind. Japa of God's Name charity and fasting will destroy at once any amount.

of sin Why are you afraid? Even the worst sinner can attain salvation can become holy of holies What was the state of Valmiki Jagai and Madhai and Ajamila in the beginning? Were they not rogues of the first water? Repeat OM Rama and assert boldly I am pure now I am holy now Where is the room for despair? Nil desperandum

243 If you think again and again on impure things an evil thought gains new strength by repetition. It gets the force of momentum You must drive them immediately If you find it difficult to do so entertain counter good sublime thoughts of God Then they will die by themselves This is easier than the former method By repetition of God's Name thousands of times daily good thoughts gain new strength by each repetition By repeating Aham Brahma Asmi 1000 times daily the idea that you are the spirit (Atma) becomes stronger The idea that you are the body becomes weaker and weaker

244 If you send out a loving helpful thought to another man it leaves your brain goes directly to that man raises a similar thought of love in his mind and returns back to you with redoubled force If you send out a thought of hatred to another man it hurts that man and hurts you also by returning back to you with redoubled force Therefore understand the laws of thought, raise only thoughts of mercy love and kindness from your mind and be happy always. Thoughts are your own real children Be careful of your progeny of thoughts. A good son brings happiness name and fame to the father An evil son brings infamy discredit to his father Even so a noble thought will bring happiness and joy to you. An evil thought will bring misery and trouble to you Just as you rear up your children with great care so also you will have to rear up good sublime thoughts with great care

245. You should learn the method of sending out helping loving thoughts to others and the whole world at large You should know how to remove distraction and collect all thoughts and send them out as a battalion of helpful forces to do good to the suffering humanity Thought transference is a beautiful science It is an exact science.

246. Just as the flowing Ganges brings joy and coolness to those who live on its banks so also your strong thoughts of love and peace must flow out as a healing stream to bring solace peace and glee to those persons whose minds are filled with care worry anxiety tribulation affliction etc.

247 Thought is a great force. Thought moves. Thought creates You can work wonders with the power of thought

248. If a Yogi whose thought is very powerful speaks one word it will produce tremendous impression on the minds of others.

249 A man who speaks the Truth and has moral purity has always powerful thoughts

250 One who has controlled anger by long practice has tremendous thought power

251 Just as energy is wasted in idle talk and gossiping so also energy is wasted in entertaining useless thought. Therefore you should not waste even a single thought. You must conserve all thought energy and utilise it for meditation and helpful service to humanity

252 Thought is very contagious. Keep a good and honest man in the company of a thief. He will begin to steal. Keep a sober man in the company of a drunkard. He will begin to drink.

253 Thought is subtle matter. Every thought has got weight, shape, size, form and colour. A spiritual thought has yellow colour. A thought charged with anger and hatred is of a dark red colour. A selfish thought has a brown colour and so on. A Yogi can see directly with his inner Iogic eye all these thoughts.

254 Even some good-natured householders entertain some occasional good thoughts and send out into the world some helpful thoughts. This is not sufficient for an aspirant in the path of Truth. A continuous stream of helpful thoughts must gush out from his mind. It must be a perennial herling stream of loving helpful thoughts. He must he able to charge groups of twenty persons masses of hundreds and thousands with love joy and cheerfulness. He must stir them with a mere glance and a few sweet powerful words into enthusiasm high spirits and exalted moods and exhilaration That is spiritual strength willforce (Atma-bala)

255 Most of your thoughts are not well-grounded. They come and slip away They are therefore vague and indefinite The images are not clear strong and well-defined You will have to reinforce them by clear continuous and deep thinking Through introspection and meditation you will have to clarify your ideas Then confusion will vanish The thoughts will get settled and well grounded

256 Like attracts like This is a law in Nature. This law operates in the thought world also People of similar thoughts are attracted towards each other That is the reason why the maxims run as follows Bird of the same feather flock together A man is known by the company he keeps A doctor is drawn towards a doctor A poet has attraction for another poet A songster loves another songster A philosopher likes another philosopher A vagabond likes a vagabond.

257 When you send out a useful thought to help others it must have a definite positive purpose and aim Then only it will bring out the desired effect. Then only that thought will accomplish a definite work.

258. Thoughts are like things. Just as you hand over an orange to your friend and take it back, so also you can give a useful powerful thought to your friend and take it back also. You must know the right technique to handle and manipulate a thought. The science is very interesting and subtle. The thought world is more real relatively than this physical universe.

259. Thinkers are very few in this world. Most of us do not know what right thinking is. Thinking is shallow in the vast majority of persons. Deep thinking needs intense Sādhana (practice). It takes innumerable births for the proper evolution of the mind. Then only it can think deeply and properly. Vedantic Sādhana (Manana reflection) demands a sharp intellect. Hard thinking, persistent thinking, clear thinkings, thinking to the roots of all problems to the very fundamentals of the situations, to the very presuppositions of all thought and being is the very essence of Vedantic Sādhana. You will have to abandon an old idea however strong and ingrained it may be, when you get a new elevating idea in its stead. If you have no courage to face the results of your thinking, to swallow the conclusions of your thinking whatever they may mean to you personally, you should never take the trouble to philosophise. Take up to devotion. Independent and original thinking is resorted to by the Vedantis.

260. You have entirely in your own hands to determine the order of thought you entertain and consequently the order of influences you attract and are not near willowy creatures of circumstances unless indeed you choose to be

261. The great law that Like attracts like is ever operating You are continually attracting from this side of life influences and conditions to those of your own thoughts and lines.

262. The power of thought is very great Every thought of yours has a literal value to you in every possible way The strength of your body the strength of your mind your success in life and the pleasures you give to others by your company all depend on the nature and quality of your thoughts. You must know thought culture

263. Every evil thought is as a word drawn on the person to whom it is directed

264. Carry any kind of thought you please about with you and so long as you retain it no matter how you roam over land or sea you will unceasingly attract to yourself knowingly or inadvertently exactly and only what corresponds to your own dominant quality of thought. Thoughts are your private property and you can regulate them to suit your taste entirely by steadily recognizing your ability to do so

265. Thought is focussed and given a particular direction and in the degree that thought is thus focussed and given direction is it effective in the work it is sent out to accomplish.

266 Like attracts like In the realm of thought people of similar thoughts are attracted to one another. This universal law is continually operating whether we are conscious of it or not. We are all living so to speak in a vast ocean of thought and the very atmosphere around us is continually filled with the thought forces that are being continually sent or that are continually going out in the form of thoughtwaves. We are all affected more or less by these thought forces either consciously or unconsciously and in the degree that we are more or less sensitively organized or in the degree we are negative and so are open to outside influences rather than positive, which thus determine what influences shall enter into the domain of our thoughts and hence into our lives.

267 Applied Thinking applies the mind to the object and sustained thinking keeps it continually engaged. Rapture brings about the expanding and bliss of the developing mind whose motives for non-distractedness have been accomplished by those two kinds of thinking. Meditation can arise when applied and sustained thinking, rapture, bliss and collectedness of mind arise.

268. It is not necessary that a saint should appear on the platform to preach and elevate the minds of people. Some saints preach by example. Their very lives are an embodiment of teaching. Their very sight elevates the minds of thousands. Many draw inspiration from the sight of holy saints. No one can check the thought vibrations from the saints. Their thought vibrations travel a very long distance purify the world and enter the minds of many thousands of persons. He who practises Nishama Karmayoga in the world purifies himself through disinterested works and he who meditates in a cave in the Himalayas does help the world through his spiritual vibrations. Worldly minded social workers cannot understand this point.

269 The strong thoughts that float in the mind this evening slowly emerge out the moment you rise from your bed in the following morning and materialize

270. When a thought hovers in the mind fulfil it. Do not allow it to linger on for a long time. It will frequently recur again and again. It will be a source of great trouble. Whenever a thought flashes out to write a letter to your friend then and there finish that piece of work. Do not procrastinate it.

271 As soon as you slowly wake up in the morning the first thought that comes in is I. Then comes the memory of the events of previous evening. Then come the thoughts that are to fructify in the course of the day. Watch this carefully

5 Face An Index of Mind

271 Whatever you hold in your mind will be produced in the physical body. Face is the index of the mind. Body is a mould prepared by the mind

Any ill feeling or bitterness towards another person will at once affect the body and produce some kind of disease in the body. Therefore be careful in your thinking in the selection of your thoughts. Always entertain noble sublime loving and kind thoughts. You will have harmony health and beauty.

272. You can read the uppermost thought or dominant thought of a man if you are careful to mark the signs in his face conversation and behaviour. It needs a little pluck acumen training intelligence and experience.

273 In face you can hardly hide your thoughts. You may foolishly think that you have kept up your thoughts in secret. Thoughts of lust greed jealousy anger revenge hatred etc. at once produce their deep impressions on your face. The face is a faithful recorder and a sensitive registering apparatus to register and record all the thoughts that are running in your mind. The face is a polished mirror to indicate the nature of the mind and its contents at a particular time.

274 The eyes which represent the windows of the soul bespeak of the condition and state of the mind. There is telegraphic instrument in the eyes to transmit the messages or thoughts of treachery cunningness fraud pure love, compassion devotion depression gloom hatred, cheerfulness, peace harmony health power strength and beauty. If you have the faculty to read the eyes of others you can read the mind at once.

275 He who thinks that he can hide his thoughts as a dunce of the first water. His position is like that of the ostrich which when chased by the hunters hides its head underneath the sand and imagines that it cannot be seen by any one.

276. Your face is like a gramophonic record or plate. Whatever you think is at once written on your face. Every vicious thought serves as a chisel or needle to write down the thoughts on your countenance. Your faces are covered with the scars and wounds which are made by the vicious thoughts of hatred anger lust, jealousy revenge etc. From the nature of the scar in your face I can at once read your state of mind. I can at once diagnose your disease of the mind.

277 Your thoughts sentiments, moods and emotions produce their strong impressions on the face. The face is like an advertisement board wherein is advertised what is going on inside the mind.

6 Mahat Tatwa

278. Mahattatwa is the first principle that gets evolved from the unmanifested Avyakta. It is the first principle that is manifested first. But it is the last principle that functions on the acquirement of knowledge. Buddhi (intellect) operates in the end and makes Nischaya (determination) This is a pot

this is a pencil'

279 When the lamp is flickering through wind you do not see the objects clearly Even so when the Buddhi (Mind) is flickering or agitated by anger chaos arises in the Buddhi and you are not able to see and understand things properly Buddhi is all light.

280 The Vijñānamaya-kośa is developed by abstract thinking and reasoning by systematic meditation Brahma-chintana study of the Upanishads
Yoga-śāstra and Brahma-Sūtras.

7 Mind Functions Within The Three Categories

281 Mind always functions within the categories of time space and causation These three categories are mental creations only A coconut tree is not really twenty feet high The height is only a mental interpretation There are vibrations only outside.
It is the mind that creates length breadth height, thickness dimensions, void square etc. A distance of two miles comes out of feeling only You actually feel that you have walked so much distance. When you transcend the mind all these categories vanish entirely Annihilate the mind therefore, through Brahmavihāra You will enter a realm of Peace and Ananda which is eternal infinite and causeless (Pāramahansa)

282. With the destruction of the mind all the three periods of time vanish into nothing.

8 Sankalpas

283 It is all the Sankalpas and Vasanas which you generate that enmesh you as in a nest. You become subject to bondage through your own Sankalpas and Vasanas like a silk worm in its cocoon. Destroy your instinctive mind through discrimination and help of your higher Sattvic mind

284 The thoughts are various and changing. Now good thoughts manifest. Five minutes later vicious thoughts appear. The mind is very fickle and changing. It cannot therefore be the changeless Atma or Kutastha Nirvikalpa (unchanging rock-seated) Brahma

285 Don't be a miser in renouncing the Sankalpas. Why should you not then contemplate silently and secretly in your own heart upon the destruction of the Sankalpas? Sankalpa only is Samsara its destruction is Moksha. Even the throne of a mighty emperor will be regarded as a paltry bubble by those who have destroyed their Sankalpas.

286 If with the extinction of the pain producing Sankalpas the mind also is destroyed then will the thick frost of Maha (delusion) affecting you from remote periods dissipate itself. Then like an unobscured sky in the autumnal season Brahma alone will shine resplendent blissful imperishable non-dual formless and without birth and death

287 With the extinction of the base Sankalpas there is the extinction of Avidya and its effect, mind. Sankalpa is pain Nihsankalpa is all bliss Sit alone in a solitary room. Close the eyes Watch the mind and destroy the Vrittis one by one by continuous energetic efforts Asamprajnata Samadhi will ensue

288. Now this mind which arises through Sankalpas perishes through it alone like a flame of fire which though fanned by the wind is yet extinguishable by the same

289 Sankalpa is bondage Nihsankalpa is Moksa When the mind thinks of objects and dwells on them it assumes the shape of those objects It is termed as Visayakara Vritti When it thinks of Brahma or Infinity the Brahmakara Vritti is formed The sadhaka should be very vigilant and circumspect in watching the mind and its activities He must convert Visayakara Vritti into Brahmakara Vritti As soon as the mind drops down from Brahmakara Vritti into Visayakara Vritti he should again make the mind assume Brahmakara Vritti There is very hard struggle indeed.

9 Vasana

290. Increase your Sastra-vasana in the beginning Occupy your mind with the study of standard philosophical books Thereby you can decrease your

Dcha-vasana (thought of the body) and Lola-vasana (desire for name and fame huti, Pratistha etc.) Later on you will have to give up Sastra-vasana also. You must entirely devote all your time and energy in meditation and meditation alone

291 Like a minister obeying the king the five organs of the body act in accordance with the dictates of the mind. Therefore you should through your own pure mind and proper efforts eradicate the Vasanas for objects

292. Chapalata is Vasana of a mild type. It lasts for a short time only. There are two kinds of important Chapalatas viz one Jihva-chapalata of tongue where the tongue wants to eat the various things every now and then. It is a form of morbid appetite. Rich people who lead a luxurious life have this form of Chapalata. The other variety is the Upastha chapalata wherein the sex indriya wants to taste again and again the sexual enjoyment (Sparsa)

293 You should rend asunder the long rope of Vasanas tied to the vessels of man whirled on the ocean of Samsara through enormous efforts on your part.

10 Mind and Body

294 Intense passion hatred long standing bitter jealousy corroding anxiety, fits of hot temper actually destroy the cells of the body and induce diseases of the heart, liver kidneys spleen and stomach

295 It is a point worthy to note with care that every cell in the body suffers or grows receives a life impulse or a death impulse from every thought that enters the mind for you tend to grow into the image of that which you think about most.

296 This physical body is the mould as it were made by the mind for its own enjoyment for its out-pouring of its energy and thereby gaining different experiences of this world through the five avenues or or channels of knowledge the five Jnana-Indriyas (organs of knowledge or perception) The body is really our thoughts moods convictions and emotions objectified made visible to the naked eyes.

297 Every change in thought makes a vibration in your mental body and this when transmitted to the physical body causes activity in the nervous matter of your brains This activity in the nervous cells causes many electrical and chemical changes in them It is thought activity which causes these change

298 The body with its organs is no other than the mind The mind contemplating upon the body becomes the body itself and then enmeshed in it is afflicted by it

299 All the bodies have their seat in the mind only Without water can a garden exist? It is the mind which transacts all business and is the highest of bodies Even should this gross body be dissolved the mind will assume fresh bodies to its liking very quickly Should the mind be paralysed then the body will not evince our intelligence.

300 When the mind is turned to a particular thought and dwells on it a definite vibration of matter is set up and the oftener this vibration is caused the more does it tend to repeat itself to become a habit, to become automatic. The body follows the mind and imitates its changes If you concentrate your thought the eyes become fixed

301 The body follows the mind. If the mind thinks of falling from a height, the body prepares itself immediately and shows external signs Fear anxiety grief cheerfulness hilarity anger all produce their various impressions on the face

302. Violent fits of hot temper do serious damage to the brain cells throw poisonous chemical products into the blood produce general shock and depression and suppress the secretion of gastric juice, bile and other digestive juices in the alimentary canal, drain away your energy vitality, induce premature old and shortens life.

303 Imagine that you hold the whole world in your womb in the physical ether which is again supported in your own Svarupa (Chaitanya) body (Chidakasha Jnana vigraha) Then the ideas of externality and separateness will vanish. There is nothing outside you. There is nothing outside

Brahma

304 During moments of great joy the severe pain entirely ceases as the mind is taken away from the body from the seat of the pain

305. It is lamentable indeed to note that most of the doctors in the world particularly the allopaths do more harm than good to their patients. They exaggerate the nature of the disease to their patients. They fill their minds with imaginary fears of all sorts. They do not know the power of suggestions and their influences on the minds of their patients. As greed is ingrained in their minds as the desire to become rich is deeprooted in their minds, they try their level best to extract from their patients as much money as they can. If they say to their patients: 'This disease is nothing. I will make you all right within a couple of hours, who is going to pay them amply? They give wrong suggestions to their patients. 'This is a terrible disease. This is an incurable disease. A dangerous poison a dangerous microbe lurking in your lungs. The poor patient spends sleepless nights on account of imaginary fear on account of a wrong suggestion given by the doctor. Every moment he thinks 'I may die at any moment. The doctor has said that my disease is dangerous and incurable. He drags a cheerless existence. The worry and anxiety and fear destroy millions of red blood corpuscles daily. The doctor gives the wrong suggestions to glorify his skill dexterity in the profession also.

11 Mind and Indriyas

306 The organ of sight serves as a loving comrade to the organ of taste. The mind is at once tickled at the sight of a yellow colour of the mango. The eye sees a beautiful mango and the different dishes that that are served on the table. At once the glosso-pharyngeal nerves are stimulated. You get good appetite and relish. The food is rendered more palatable. A blind man may not have as good a relish as a man with sharp sight has.

307 There is the elastic theory of the mind. This school of thought says that the mind becomes elastic when several objects come in contact with the various senses and thus puts itself simultaneously into touch with various sense organs or Indriyas of knowledge (Jnana Indriyas). When the mind comes in contact with one object and one indriya it contracts to a point. This theory is exploded and refuted by the Vedantis as unsound.

308. There is another school of thought that says that there are different compartments or parts in the mind. One part of the mind connects itself with one sense indriya, another part with a second indriya and so on. This theory is similarly blown up and discarded by the Vedantis as untenable and unsound.

309 Knowledge comes through Indriyārtha Samuharsa contact with objects. The object comes in contact with the senses. The senses are linked to the mind. The mind is connected to the Atma. The

Atma illumines This is with reference to the physical plane Knowledge of Brahma (Existence or Truth Absolute) comes through feeling and meditation (spiritual anubhava, direct perception or Atmasaksat-lana) wherein the seer, sight and seen merge into the one existence like the hubble in the ocean

310 Speech is even the sight of the Purusa Speech means here sound the object of the sense of hearing When this sease is enlightened reflection is produced in the mind By the mind effort to obtain external thiogs is made for by the mind one sees, one hears. When one at a time at night in the dark cannot distinguish where sound arises (be it the neighing of horses or the braying of donkeys or the barking of dogs) he resorts there wheoce speech proceeds.

311. Just as a minister obeys the king so also the five Jnana Indriyas act in accordance with the dictates of the mind Mind is a higher power than the Indriyas

312. There are six ways of controlling the Indriyas. (1) Through Vichara (2) By will force (3) By Kumbhaka (retention of breath in Pranayama) (4) By Dama (restraint) (5) By Pratyahara (abstention) (6) By Vairagya and Tyaga Perfect control can only be made through Vichara

313. The eyes present before the mind some forms or images It is the mind that creates good and bad forms It says This is good. This is ugly This is beautiful Here comes bondage and trouble. Good and bad ugly and beautiful are pure mental creations. If mind can create it can destroy also. Similarly the ears bring some sound vibrations before the mind. It is the mind that says 'This is praise. This is censure.' Eyes and ears are not to be blamed at all. They are innocent. Mind causes the mischief

314 Fle<sup>shy</sup> eyes are only external instruments (Karana) for perception. It is not an organ of vision. The organ of vision is a centre situated in the brain. So is the case with all senses. Mind is connected with the Indriyas the Indriyas with the corresponding centres in brain and the centres with the physical organs to the external object. The mind presents the sensation to Buddhi. Buddhi takes it to the Purusa (which is pure spirit, which is Immaterial). Now real perception takes place. Purusa gives order back to the motor centres (Karman Indriyas or organs of action) for execution through Buddhi and mind. This is the theory of perception according to the Sankhya Philosophy

315 In some persons the sense of hearing is more developed than the sense of sight. Judges have acute hearing. Commander-in-Chiefs have acute sight. The profession itself forces them to develop the particular sense. Blind people have acute sense of hearing. If one Indriya is defective nature compensates by developing more another Indriya. One of my friends, knows of a blind man who can feel the nature of the colour by mere touch

12 Mind and Avidya

316. There is no Avidya outside the mind. The mind itself is Avidya. Imaginations and Sankalpas are products of Avidya. If this mind is destroyed everything else is also destroyed. If there is mind then everything else manifests. Ignorance is imbedded in the mind. The mind needs thorough cleansing with Japa Pranayama Satsanga Vichara and Nididhyasana just as a rusty copper plate needs cleansing with earth ash tamarind powder etc.

317. So long as there is mind there are all these distinctions of big and small high and low, superior and inferior good and bad etc. But the mind itself is a creation of Avidya (ignorance). It is a Karya (effect) of Avidya. The highest Truth is that in which there is no relativity. If you can transcend the mind by constant and profound meditation on Atma, you will be able to attain the Nirdwandwa state (a state beyond the pairs of opposites) wherein lies the Supreme Peace and Highest Knowledge.

318. On account of Avidya or Bhrami (illusion) in the mind you see the objects trees etc. outside and feel as if they are separate from you and real.

319. Mind is an effect of Avidya (ignorance). It is filled with delusion. That is the reason why it deceives and tempts you. It makes you go astray. If you can destroy the cause of the mind Ajnana by getting Jnana (knowledge of Supreme Self) mind is nowhere. It dwindles into an airy nothing Manonasa (annihilation of mind) takes place when Jnana dawns.

320. The seas of Avidya (ignorance) is in the mind of man. The explanation of the empirical concept must be sought in the nature of our cognitive faculty. Sri Sankara explains Avidya in this way. It is Naisargika it is innate in our mental faculty. It is Mithyajnanaśmitta based on wrong knowledge and knowledge is a function of the mind. It is Nityapratyayarupa it consists in the form of a wrong conception. All Jivas—human entities—which are really non-existent are (with all concomitant appearance of birth death etc.) mere results of the objectivising tendency of the mind and nothing else. The whole experience of duality made up of perceiver and perceived is pure imagination. There is no Avidya apart from the mind. On the destruction of the mind all is destroyed. The activity of the mind is the cause of all appearance.

321. Avidya works through Upadhīs (attributes limiting adjuncts). All the special apparatus required by Avidya constitute the Upadhīs of the soul. Mind is an Upadhī, Buddhi is an Upadhī and Ahankara is an Upadhī.

13 Mind and Prana

322. Ekagrata (one pointedness) and Nirodha (controlled state) are two Avasthas of the mind.

Spanda (subtle or Sukshma) and Nirodha are two Avasthas of the Prana. When the mind becomes one-pointed Spanda-avastha of the Prana comes by itself. Prana is the overcoat of the mind. Mind is more subtle than Prana. Mind is formed out of the conglomerate Sattvic essence of the five Tanmatras. Whereas Prana is formed out of the sum-total of Rojasic essence of the five Tanmatras. That is the reason why mind is more Sukshma than the Prana.

323 The Pranamayakosa (vital sheath) is more subtle than the physical body. It overlaps the Annamayakosa (physical sheath) and is more extensive than it. Manomayakosa is more subtle than the Pranamayakosa and more extensive than the vital sheath. You have to touch the body of another man to have a physical influence over him. Whereas you can stand at a distance and by mere passes you can impart your Prana to him because Prana (vital) is more subtle than the body. You can influence a man mentally through thought even though he lives a thousand miles away from you. Because mental force is more subtle than Prana.

14 Mind and Kundalini

324 After Kundalini is awakened Prana passes upwards through Susumna or Brahmanadi within the spinal cord along with mind and Agni. The Yogi is freed from physical consciousness. After awakening the Kundalini you will have to take it up to Sahasrara in the top of head. Sakti-chalana or Astanga Mudra,

Tadana Pracharana all help in awakening the Kundalini. Mahabheda helps in taking the Kundalini higher up 325 Even a Vedanti (student of the path of Jnana) can get Jnana-nistha (superconscious state) only through the awakening of Kundalini Sakti that lies dormant with  $3\frac{1}{2}$  coils with the face downwards in the Muladhara Chakra (basal lotus) at the end of the spinal column. No superconscious state or Samadhi is possible without the awakening of this primordial energy whether it is in Rajayoga Bhaktiyoga or Jnanayoga.

326. Kundalini the serpent like coiled power that lies dormant at the base of the Muladhara Chakra is connected with Prana and Prana is connected with the mind

327 Kundalini Sakti the coiled serpent power in the Muladhara Chakra the basal lotus at the end of the spine, can only be aroused when the mind is actually free from passions and desires. When it is awakened the mind enters along with Prana and Jiva the Susumna and all perceptions are in the mental space (Chittakasa). You are shut out from the external objective world when Kundalini reaches the Sahasrara Chakra you are in the Chidakasa (knowledge space). When this Kundalini moves from Chakra to Chakra (from centre to centre) layer after layer of the mind opens up. The Yogi experiences different kinds of bliss (Ananda) at each new centre. He gets different experiences also as well as different powers. He gets control over the five elements. He perceives the universe in its subtle or causal form. He gets full knowledge of the types of various kinds of the causal plane. As soon as Kundalini is awakened for the first time a gogi gets these six kinds of experiences which last for a short time viz. Ananda (spiritual bliss), Kampana (tremor of various parts of the body), Udbhara (rising above the ground from his Asana) Ghurni (intoxication Divine—the body moves in a circle) Nidra (sleep) and Murchha (fainting)

15 Mental Image

328. When you see a mango tree it is external to you. There is externality. The mango tree is a mental percept. It is a mental concept also. There is no mango tree apart from the mind. There is a mental image in the mind. The image in the mind plus the external something is the mango tree. Even if you close your eyes you can get at the image through memory. The green colour of the leaves is due to a certain rate of light vibrations (say 10 millions of vibrations). These light vibrations strike at the retina and are taken to the vision centre at the back of the brain. The mango leaves have the power to split the white rays and absorb the green colour only. So says science. Your body also is as much external to you as that yonder mango tree. It is also a mental percept or mental concept. The mango tree is external to you with reference to your body only. The mango tree itself is a mere appearance that floats

ness It deludes you to mistake the body for Atma or Pure self 334 When any one rises to fame and power enemies come in by themselves Even Sri Sankaracharya had many enemies Even Sannyasis who live in forests have enemies Jealous and petty-minded men create various sorts of mischief against people who are prosperous and famous. Have Saksi-bhava (feeling of witness) and rise above the idea of friend or foe. Become an Udasinni (indifferent man) Develop the power of endurance. Bear insult, injury with a cool mind Then only you can be happy in this world.

335. Although you know fully well that the body of a woman is made up of flesh bone, skin hair blood urine, and faeces yet you passionately cling to the form Why? Because of the force of Raga Moha Samskara Vasana and Kalpna (Imagination) When there is Vasana-ksaya (annihilation of Vasanas) through Vichara and Viveka you will not be attached towards a woman.

336. Get rid of excessive Moha and attachment to wife money and also children by Sannyasa (external renunciation) If there is external change internal change must also come. External renunciation is quite necessary

19. Three Gunas

337 Sattvaguna is purity It is Pralasa (illumination light) The effect of Sattvaguna is

Brahmavichara (enquiry or search for Truth, differentiation between Sat and Asat what is real and what is unreal)

338. An ordinary worldly-minded man can hardly hear the inner voice of Atma. He cannot get pure thoughts of Vichara (enquiry into self) also. Every Sattvic (pure) thought emanates from Sattvic Buddhi (pure intellect). In the case of worldlings all thoughts proceed from the mind only. He who does Nishkama Karmayoga (selfless service) and has purity of mind begins to entertain thoughts of God and meditation. Generally the mind raises various sorts of curious-fantastic thoughts. It deludes all. It may pretend to do Vichara also. But when it comes to actual practice it will do nothing. If there is a serious determination in you to concentrate and if you put it into actual practice for months steadily and if the longing for Darsana of God or self-realization becomes keen and acute then alone think that all these kinds of thoughts proceed from your Sattvic Buddhi only.

339. During Sattvic moments when there is preponderance of pure Sattva in the mind you are in touch with the Divine Source owing to the cleanness of the mind mirror. You will get inspiration. You will compose beautiful poetry etc. Preserve those inspired writings. Jot them down in your note-book.

340. In the mind there is an internal fight that is ever going on between Swabhava (nature) and will between old worldly habits and new spiritual habits in the case of the aspirants between old Visaya samskaras and new spiritual samskaras between Subha Vasanas and Asubha Vasanas between Vitarka and instinctive mind and Indriyas. If you try to drive away anger lust etc., they say and assert Oh Jivas! you have given us permission to stay in this house of flesh and body for a long time. Why do you want to drive us now? We have helped you a lot during times of your excitements and passion. We have every right to remain here. We will persist, resist all your efforts to drive us we shall disturb your meditation and recur again and again. But eventually will (pure, strong and irresistible) is bound to succeed. There is no doubt about this.

341. Rajasic mind always wants new sensations and variety. It likes certain persons objects and places now and after some time it becomes disgusted with them and wants new persons for company new vegetables to eat new books to read and new places to see (finds pleasure in sight-seeing). But a Sattvic mind is always steady. It finds delight internally. It may stick to one place indefinitely. It keeps friendship with persons for a long long time. It can read Gita or Yoga Vasistha any number of days. It can live on Dal roti for years together without any grumbling. Develop therefore Sattvaguna by Japa Vichara Satsanga meditation light Sattvic food Tapas and Swadhyaya.

342. In the world also there are persons with a few Sattvic virtues such as patience generosity forgiveness etc But a spiritual aspirant tries to develop the mind as a whole, to acquire all Sattvic virtues.

343 All *Sadhana*s aim at the development of Sattvaguna and the attainment of pure irresistible Will This Will brings about Avidya-nivritti (removal of ignorance) and Paramanandaprapti (Sat-Chit-Anand state) Increase of Sattvaguna and pure strong determined Will pave a long way in achieving God-Realization

20 Karma

344 The gross body and the mind have on account of your past Karmas a tendency to act in a certain way and you act just in accordance with that tendency like a machine. You wrongly impute to yourself the authorship (agency) of these actions and and thus make the matters worse. Most of your actions are done more or less automatically

345 If you find it difficult to do your actions in a Nishkama spirit, have one desire for liberation in doing all things

21 Iswara and Maya

346. All the Samskaras float in Maya Suppose there is a very big mirror You can see in the mirror the reflection of all persons who move in the street all carts cars, and carriages which pass along the road You can be simply watching these movements from a distance in the mirror without being affected in the least. Even so the movements of this whole universe take place in the biggest mirror of Maya Iswara or the Lord of the universe is simply witnessing everything He is the silent Saksi. When the Adrista (the Hidden power in harman) of the Jivas ripens Iswara simply wills and the universe is projected.

CHAPTER III

1 Renunciation

347 Shun the earthly objects as fire or poison or offal. Renounce all desires and cravings. This itself is Moksha (freedom). Renunciation of desires brings about the annihilation of the mind. Annihilation of the mind brings on the destruction of Maya because the mind alone is Maya. Maya is enthroned in the imagination of the mind. How cunning she is! A Viveki knows her tricks well. She is awfully afraid of the man of renunciation and Atmavichara. She bows to him with folded hands.

348. The real Tyaga (renunciation) consists in the renunciation of Egoism (Ahankara). If you can renounce this Ahankara you have renounced everything else in the world. Renunciation of physical objects is no renunciation at all. If the subtle Ahankara is given up Dehadhyasa (identification with the body) automatically goes away.

349 You must renounce the Tyagabhūmana also (त्यागका त्याग). The Tyagabhūmana is very deep-rooted. You must renounce the idea that I have renounced everything. I am a great Tyagi. This Abhūmana of the Sadhus is a greater evil than the Abhimana of householders—I am a Landlord I am a Brahman etc.

2. Brahmacharya

350 If you develop strict celibacy Vicliara sakti (power of enquiry) and Dharana-sakti (power of grasping and holding the Truth) will develop

351 Those who preserve the semen very carefully have good memory even in old age. If a man persistently refuses to yield to his lower nature and remains as a strict celibate the seminal energy is deflected upwards to the brain and is stored up as Ojas-sakti (spiritual power) Thereby the power of the intellect is intensified to a remarkable degree. The strict celibate has keen and acute memory even in old age. The celibate who has achieved the transmutation of the seminal energy will find that sexual desires no longer trouble him. Such a celibate is known as Urdhwareta Hanumana Bhishma Lakshmana Swami Dayananda Swami Vivekananda were Urdhwareta Yogis

352 Once upon a time Sri Vedavyasa was holding his Vedanta class amongst his students. In the course of his lecture he mentioned that the young Brahmacharis should be very careful and should not mix with young ladies and that with all their vigilance and circumspection they may fall a victim, as lust is very powerful. One of his students Jaimini the author of Purva-Mimamsa was a little impertinent

He said Gururji Maharaja ! your statement is wrong No lady can attract me. I am well-established in Brahmacharya Vyasa said Jaimini you will know that soon I am going to Benares I will return within three months Be careful Don't be puffed with pride ! Sri Vyasa through his Yogic powers assumed the form of a beautiful young girl with piercing eyes and very charming face well-dressed in a thin silken garment. The lady was standing underneath a tree at sunset. Clouds gathered together It began to rain. Accidentally Jaimini was passing along the side of the tree He saw the girl felt pity and addressed her Oh lady you can come and stay in my Asrama I shall give you shelter The lady asked Are you living alone ? Is any woman living there ? Jaimini replied I am alone But I am a perfect Brahmachari No lust can affect me I am free from any sort of Iskra You can stay there. The lady objected It is not right for a young virgin girl to stay with a Brahmachari alone at night. Jaimini said Oh damsel don't be afraid I promise you of my perfect Brahmacharya Then she agreed and stayed in his Asrama at night. Jaimini slept outside and the lady was sleeping inside the room At the dead of night Jaimini began to feel the influence of lust in his mind. A little sexual craving arose in his mind. In the beginning he was absolutely pure He knocked at the door and said Oh lady the wind is blowing outside. I cannot hear the cold blasts. I want to sleep inside. She opened the door Jaimini was sleeping inside Again the sexual craving became a little more intense and keen as he was very close to a lady and as he heard the sounds of her hangles Then he rose up and began to embrace her At once Sri Vyasa assumed his original form with his long beard and said Oh my dear Jaimini what about the strength of your Brahmacharya now? Are you established in your perfect celibacy now? What did you say when I was lecturing on this subject? Jaimini dropped his head down in utter shame and said Guruji I am wrong Kindly pardon me

353 Therefore Oh dear aspirants you will have to be very very careful You must never mix with young ladies however strong you may be. Maya works through undercurrents so stealthily that you may not be aware of your actual downfall.

354 You must remove not only the sexual craving and the sexual impulses but also the sex attraction Think of the miseries that you get from a married life with its various entanglements and bondage. The attraction for the sex will slowly die Then only real sex sublimation will take place You will become then only an Urducaraka

355 From the bed of *Samskara*s and *Vasana*s emanates imagination through memory Then comes attachment Along with imagination emotion and impulse manifest. Emotion and impulse exist side by side. Then comes sexual irritation sexual craving excitement and burning in the mind and throughout the body The irritation and burning in the mind penetrates into the physical body just as water in the pot penetrates into the surface of the pot. If you are very vigilant you can drive off the imagination itself in the very beginning and avert the danger. Even if you allow the thief-imagination to enter the first gate keep a careful watch at the second gate when the irritation manifests. You can stop the burning now. You can stop also easily the strong sexual impulse from being transmitted to the Indriya itself. Draw the sex energy up towards the brain through Uddiyana and Kumbhala. Repeat OM mentally with force. Divert the mind. Pray. Meditate.

356 A true Brahmachari is thought, word and deed has wonderful thought-power. He can move the world.

357 By Pranayama the mind gradually proceeds from the gross to the subtle. It therefore exercises a wholesome check upon the sexual irritation. When some evil thought disturbs your mind at once take to Padmasana or Siddhasana and practise Pranayama. The thought will leave you immediately.

3 Necessity for a Guru

358. A spiritual preceptor or Guru is necessary for aspirants. Some do the practice for some years independently. Later on they feel acutely the necessity for a Guru. They come across some obstacles on the way. They do not know how to proceed and how to obviate these impediments Then they begin to search for a Master This particularly happens in Yogi practice.

359 Isicara is Guru of Gurus He removes the veil of ignorance and blesses the ignorant Jivas (Anugraha) The aspirant should regard his immediate Guru in the physical form as an incarnation of that Guru of Gurus and should have equal devotion to him also Guru in the physical form is the main source and embodiment of all good and happiness that can accrue to the Chela The disciple should realize the supreme necessity of obeying the Guru's commands and behests and keeping his faith in him unsullied and staunch.

360 By the Guru's grace the devotee attains the eight-stepped Yoga (Asanga Yoga) by the Grace of Lord Siva he attains perfection in Yoga which is eternal

361. It is the duty of the Guru to set each of his disciples upon that path of spiritual development which is best suited to the Chela one on one path one on another according to the Guru's insight into the innate tendency of each

4 Tree of Maya

362 Maya is a big poisonous tree Santalalpas (thought, mental modification) are the seed Various sensual enjoyments serve as good soil Trisulas and Vasanas water the tree of Mayic illusion Kandas are the fruits Lust anger greed etc. are the sprouts. Sattva Rajas and Tamas are the buds Indriyas are the twigs Ahankara is the trunk. Raga-Dvesa are the two main branches Various sensual objects are the leaves

363 The poisonous tree of the great Maya flourishes more and more out of the seed of the mind's modifications full of Santapa in the soil of the variegated enjoyments of the world

5 Faith -

364 Though any subject has been established by means of arguments and valid authorities still people's minds being entirely taken up with gross external objects any clear conception of subtle ultimate truths is almost impossible without proper faith When there is faith the mind can be easily concentrated on the subject to be understood! and then the understanding quickly follows

6 Vairagya

365 It was only Raja Janaka and Prahlada who had Titra Vairagya (intense dispassion) This kind of Vairagya is necessary for quick realization This is the only means for entering into the Anirvrtta-samadhi (Super-conscious state)

366 In Vairagya (dispassion) Brahmacharya is antargata (hidden) Vairagya includes celibacy in thought word and deed

a high degree of Iaiagya plus capacity for Sadhana (spiritual practice)

375 Study Vairagya prakarana in Yogavasistha
You will have a comprehensive understanding of the real Swarupa of Vairagya. A clear description of the actual dispassionate mental state of Sri Rama is given. Palatable dishes, refreshing beverages, affectionate father and mother, brother, dear friends, diamonds, pearls, flowers, sandal ornaments, soft beds, gardens had no attraction for him. On the contrary, their very sight gave him intense pain.

376. Vairagya (dispassion, indifference, non-attachment) is of two kinds viz. (1) Karama-Vairagya (Vairagya on account of some miseries) (2) Viveka-puraisa Vairagya (Vairagya on account of discrimination between real and unreal). The mind of a man who has got the former type of Vairagya is simply waiting for a chance to get back the things that are given up. As soon as the first opportunity offers itself, the man gets the downfall and goes back to his former state. Visaya does havoc in him with a vengeance and redoubled force from reaction. But the other man who has given up the objects on account of Viveka on account of illusory nature of objects will have spiritual advancement. He will not have a downfall.

7 Desires

377 Desires are innumerable, insatiable and unconquerable. Enjoyment cannot bring in satisfaction.

It is like pouring ghee in fire. Enjoyment strengthens increases and aggravates a desire. See the case of Raja Yayati of yore. He borrowed the youthful state from his son to have sexual enjoyment for thousands of years. At last he cries out in his old age with bitterness. Alas ! what a fool I am ! Still my sexual desires are waxing. There is no end of desires. I have wasted my life. Oh God ! Have mercy on me. Lift me up from this mire of Samsara. This comes in Mahabharata. In Gita Chap III 39 you will find 'कामरूपेण कौन्तेय दुष्पूरेष्वानलेन च — desire which is insatiable as a flame 378 Wise people consider even a spark of desire as a very great evil. Therefore they will not entertain any kind of desire. They will be ever delightful in Atma only.

379 Satyakama the son of Jabala taught me that mind is Brahma for of what use is he who has no mind ? He no doubt taught thee his place and site. He did not teach thee that Brahma is 'only one-footed. Oh King of kings. The Yajnavalkya gives us the explanation.

380 The mind is the place the ether is the site happiness. By this let one meditate on Him. Which bliss O Yajnavalkya ? He said. Verily the mind O King of kings. By the mind O King of kings one has desire after a wife through her a son similar to oneself is born. he the son is bliss. The mind O King of kings is the Supreme Brahma. Mind does mind with the help of the pure mind. Free yourself from the firm grip of the crocodiles of desires. Don't get disheartened under trials. Cheer yourself up. Stand up like a lion. Make friendship with the Sattvic mind and rest yourself peacefully in Atma. Desires are themselves pain. Non-desires are themselves pure Atmic Bliss. Mere annihilation of Maya is Moksha. With the extinction of the base Santalyas there is also the extinction of Avidya.

386. You have no desire for a thing till you know what it is like. It is only after you have seen it or heard of it or touched it that you get a longing for it. Therefore the best principle for a man is not to take, touch or see anything that is likely to taint the imagination.

387. Desire in the mind is the real impurity. Sexual desire, vulgar attraction for the opposite sex is the greatest impurity. This causes the real bondage. Brahmacharya will destroy all desires. There are no desires, o, Brahma. Brahma is All-Purity. Repeat OM. Repeat the Mantra. All purity I am. All the desires will vanish.

388. The cause for pleasure is desire. When there is no desire there cannot be any pleasure.

389. The cause for desire is the existence of objects outside.

390. Sweep out the sphere of your mind :

Make a place for Loved One to sit
 Dust out all thoughts of this world
 So that His throne may be fit.
 A million desires engulf you
 A million ambitions and aims
 How can you make room for His Presence
 Unless they vacate His domain

You can give up wife, children wealth But it is extremely difficult to give up ambition name and fame. Ambition is a serious obstacle in the path of Yoga This is the most powerful weapon of Maya with which she slaughters worldly-minded persons 391 Just as you starve a plant by depriving it of water so you may starve out obnoxious desires by allowing the mind not to dwell upon such desires. You will have to turn aside the attention resolutely and particularly the imagination from the subject. In course of time all objectionable desires will die out.

392. Should all longings for the visibles cease then such an abnegation of mind is itself the destruction of Ajnana or the mind. Such a bliss is generated through one's efforts only There is nothing like Purusartha (right exertion) Purusartha changed the destiny of Marikandeya He became a Chiranjivi

8 Memory

393. When you desire to remember a thing you will have to make a psychic exertion You will have to go up and down into the depths of the different levels of sub-consciousness and then pick up the right thing from a curious mixture of multifarious irrelevant matter. Just as the Railway sorter in the Railway Mail Service takes up the right letter by moving the hand up and down along the different pigeon holes so also the sorter sub-conscious mind goes up and down along the pigeon holes in the sub-conscious mind and brings the right thing to the level of normal consciousness. The sub-conscious mind can pick the right thing from a heap of various matters.

394 Memory is used in two senses. We say Mr John has got a good memory. Here it means that Mr John's capacity of the mind to store up its past experiences is very good. Sometimes we say 'I have no memory of that incidence. Here you cannot bring up to the surface of the conscious mind in its original form the incident that took place some years ago. It is an act of remembering.

395. If the experience is fresh you can have a complete recall of your past experience through memory. You do not get any new knowledge through memory. It is only a reproduction.

396. In ordinary recollection there is a temporal co-efficient. In personal memory there is a specific co-efficient. That which acts together with another thing is a co-efficient. In Mathematics the numerical or literal factor prefixed to an unknown quantity in an algebraic term is a co-efficient.

397 A Samskara of an experience is formed or developed in the Chitta at the very moment that the mind is experiencing something. There is no gap between the present experience and the formation of a Samskara in the sub-conscious mind.

398 Smriti memory is the function of Chitta (sub-conscious mind). It is a separate faculty or category in Vedanta. Sometimes it is antargata comes under Mind. In Sankhya Philosophy it is included in Buddhi or Mahattatva. The Chitta of Patanjali Rishi's philosophy of Rajayoga (योगश्चित्तवृत्तिनिरोध) corresponds to the Antahkaraṇa of Vedanta.

399 Suppose you have received a nice fan as a present from your amiable friend. When you use the fan it sometimes reminds you of your friend. You think of him for a short time. This fan serves as Udbodhaka or Smriti hetu (cause of memory).

400 The following are the four good characteristics of good memory. (1) If you read once a passage and if you can reproduce the same nicely it is a sign to indicate that you have a very good memory. This is termed Sugamata. (2) If you can reproduce the same thing without increase or decrease, addition or subtraction it is called Avaikalya. (3) If you can preserve a fact or passage or anything for a very considerable period it is called Dharana (retentive memory). (4) If you can reproduce a passage at once without any difficulty when it is needed it is called Upaharana.

401 If your brother is a tall man the sight of a similar tall man in another place will bring to your mind the memory of your brother. This is memory due to the similarity of objects (Sādṛśyata)

402 Suppose you have seen a dwarf at Madras. When you see a very tall man or Patagonian this will remind you of the dwarf whom you saw at Madras. The sight of a big palace will remind you of a peasant's hut or a Sannyasi's grass hut on the banks of the Ganges. This memory is due to dissimilarity in objects (Viparīyata)

403 When you walk along the road on a stormy day if you happen to see a fallen tree you conclude that the tree has fallen owing to the storm. In this case the memory is due to the relation between cause and effect (Karya-karana-sambandha)

9 Two Currents of Mind

404 Raga Dvesa (like and dislike) are the two currents in the mind which bind a man to the Samsara wheel of birth and death. All the emotions come under the category of Raga-Dvesa. These two currents are the Dharmas (characteristics) of the mind and not of the spirit. The chief Linga or distinguishing mark of a Jivanmukta or a liberated soul is freedom from Raga-Dvesa. Pleasure and pain Harsa and Soka (exhilaration and depression) are due to Raga-Dvesa. If Raga-Dvesa vanish from the mind, Harsa-Soka also will disappear. Just as heat in fire can be removed by Mantra and Ousadhya (recitation of God and medicine) so also these two currents the characteristics of the mind can be removed by Yogic kriya (practices of Yoga) Raga-Dvesa can be completely fried up by Nirvikalpa Samadhi or Asamprajnata Samadhi. In sleep these two emotions exist in a man in a Bija state (seed form) They are not destroyed. As soon as the man gets up from sleep they begin to operate again That Yogi or Jnani who has destroyed these two Vrittis is the highest man in the three worlds He is the real King of kings Emperor of emperors. Even if a Jnani or Yogi sometimes exhibits traces of anger it is Abhaya matra (mere appearance) Just as the impression made in water with a stick passes away soon, so also the anger will disappear in the twinkling of an eye even though it manifests in a Jnani. This can hardly be understood by worldly people In children these two currents manifest for a short time and disappear soon They fight in this second and join together with joy the very next second They do not keep up any ill-feelings in their minds They do not brood also over the wrongs done by others They do not exhibit any grudge. The wave comes and passes away As the child grows these currents assume a grave phase by constant repetition and become inveterate 105 Real Karma originates from Sankalpas of the mind When the mind is set in motion or vibration through the currents of Raga-Dvesa real karmanas begin External actions manifest later on. It is desire that sets the mind in motion. Desire is a motive force. Emotions and impulses co exist with desire. It is the actions of the mind that are truly termed Karmas.

406 Raga-Divesa (like and dislike) are the two currents in the mind. Not only the Divesa-vritti (the modification of dislike) but also the Vritti of Raga gives pain to man. If an object gives pleasure you get Raga (like) for that object. But when there is Viyoga (separation) from the object as in the case of death of your dear wife or son you get immense pain which is indescribable. Suppose you are in the habit of taking fruits after food. Fruits give you pleasure. You get Raga (liking) for fruits. But if you cannot get fruits in a place you get pain. Destroy the two modifications of the mind Raga-Divesa by Vichara and Brahmachintana (right thinking and meditation). Go beyond the Dwandwas (pairs of opposites). You will get eternal infinite bliss and peace.

407 Raga (attraction) in the mind is as much dangerous as Divesa (hatred or repulsion). Whenever there is Raga there is Divesa also.

408. Some minds hang on you through Raga while some others hang on you through Divesa. Ravana's mind was hanging on Sri Rama through hatred and fear. He was seeing Rama everywhere and in everything through constant intense thinking of Rama. Similarly Kamsa's mind was hanging on

Sri Krisna This is also a form of Bhakti (Vaira-bhakti) Anyhow their minds were on God

409 This Samsara or world-process is kept up by the six-spoked wheel viz. Raga Divesa merit, demerit, pleasure and pain Body is the result of Karma Karma is the result of Raga-Divesa If you do not want a body you must not do karma If you do not want karma you must destroy currents of Raga-Divesa in the mind

410 Raga-Divesa is due to the Anukula-Pratikula Jnana You have Raga for things favourable (Anukula) and Divesa for things unfavourable (Pratikula) When this Anukula-Pratikula Jnana which depends upon Bheda Jnana disappears Raga-Divesa will vanish

411 Raga-Divesa is due also to Abhimana (Aham'ara) If this Abhimana the result of Avidya (Ignorance) vanishes Raga-Divesa will vanish. If the root cause, Avidya is destroyed by attainment of Jnana the whole chain of Abhimana Raga Divesa Karma body merit and demerit pleasure and pain will vanish. One link hangs upon another All the links will be brokeo totally oo the advent of Jnana

412 In your mental lives you can either keep hold of the rudder and so determine exactly what course you take what points you touch or you can fail to do this and sailing you drift and are blown hither and thither by every passing hreeze by every emotion by petty Raga-Divesa currents.

413. Fear is hidden in Raga. When you have got Raga for body fear of death comes in. When you have Raga for money there is fear of losing money as money is the means of getting objects of enjoyment. When you have Raga for a woman you always take care in protecting her. Fear is a very old intimate friend of Raga.

414. Amongst the several Vrittis in the mind Raga-Dvesa and Moha are very deep rooted. They demand strenuous and persistent efforts for their eradication.

10 Moods

415. Mood is a mental state. The Sanskrit term is Bhava. This term also does not express the true significance of the word mood. A Vritti means a thought or emotion. A whim corresponds to the term Taranga in Sanskrit. Taranga means a wave in Sanskrit. Eccentricity is exaggerated whim. The word whim always goes with the term fancy. We say whims and fancies. A fancy is a phase of the intellectual faculty of a lighter and less impressive cast than the imagination or the active play of this lighter faculty. Fancy is a new and pleasing thought or conception due to this faculty.

416. We say Mr Naidu or Mr Arkanson is a moody gentleman. This means he becomes a slave of the mood quickly. We also say "That gentleman is in good mood or happy mood. I can approach him now for a short interview or talk. He is in a very angry mood' I should not see him now

417 In Vedanta there are only two kinds of moods viz. Harsa (exhilaration) and Soka (depression)

418. But the English people during the course of their conversation use the term mood in a broad sense. They say 'He is in a talking mood' 'He is in a silent mood' 'He is in a mood of hatred' 'He is in a mood of love' 'He is in a mood of selfishness' 'He is in a mood of jealousy' 'He is in a mood of separateness' 'He is in a mood of unity'. In the light of Vedanta these are all Illitis only. Dr. Bhagavan Das the reputed author of Science of Emotions classifies these under emotions only.

419 Just as a young beautiful lady covers her face and does not like to come out to mix with others in society when she has a nasty festering sore on her cheeks or nose so also you should not come in public and mix with your friends and other people when you have a mood of depression a mood of hatred or jealousy. For you will infect others with these moods. You are a menace to society.

420 When you get a talking mood practise at once Mouna (silence). This is an antidote to the talking mood. When you are in a mood of hatred develop the opposite virtue of love. This mood will pass off quickly. When you are in the mood of selfishness begin to do selfless work. When you are emotions will arouse corresponding excitement in purely mental matter and all the man's thoughts will be disturbed and distorted

427 There is emotion desire There is emotion feeling also. If the desire element is predominant it is emotion-desire. If the pleasure element is predominant it is emotion feeling

428 Many of the physical desires and emotions in man are akin to those of the lower animals. Anger and sex-impulse in man are the brutal instincts. In the undeveloped man these desires and emotions which belong to the lower nature (Aparaprakriti) predominate and overpower the higher nature (Praprakriti)

429 Pleasure is a particular kind of emotion in the mind The mind expands during pleasure. Coolness prevails in the mind. What takes place in the mind when pleasure feeling arises is not exactly understood by the Western Psychologists It is incapable of being understood also by ordinary persons Only a Yogi or a Jnani knows this psychic phenomenon During pain the mind contracts Considerable heat is produced in the mind

12 Instincts

430 There are two powerful instincts in the human beings and animals too They are the instinct of self-preservation and the instinct of reproduction An instinct is an involuntary prompting to action.

Hunger is a manifestation of self-preserving instinct. Lust is a manifestation of the reproductive instinct. The Jiva or the individual soul with egoism wants power name and fame. This is for self-aggrandisement. Exploitation is greed. It is the act of using for selfish purposes. Domineering is to command haughtily. The Jiva wants to exercise power over others. This is Jiva-bhavana. The root cause for industries business, commerce etc. is greed and self-preservation. If you want to have constant Brahma bhavana you will have to give up exploitation and domineering.

431. There is another third instinct viz. the herding instinct (the instinct for company). Women take delight in the company of men. Men take delight in the company of women. The root cause for this is the reproductive instinct. Another reason is that a weak man gains strength in the company of a strong man. But a man who wants to realize God should shun ruthlessly the company particularly the company of women and worldly-minded persons. He should live alone. Then he will become very powerful and strong. He will develop a strong individuality. One will find difficulty in the beginning in the practice of living alone. Fear will come in. You will have to overcome all difficulties one by one if you want to attain Immortality (Amritatva). The reward is very great—ब्रह्मविद् परमाप्नोति. A knower of Brahma gets the Highest. अमृतमनुते—he drinks the nectar of Immortality.

13 Impulses

432 There are three kinds of impulses viz. impulses of thought, impulses of speech and impulses of action Mauna (silence) checks the impulse of speech Meditation checks the impulse of wrong thinking and wrong action

433 An impulse is a sudden propelling force. There are two important impulses They are the sex-impulse and the impulse of speech There is an intimate relation between impulse and imagination Imagination induces the impulse Impulses must be controlled by reason and will and meditation on God

14 Three Classes of Yogis

434 Aspirants to Yoga are classified into three degrees (1) Arurūṣu, one who is attempting to climb the steps of Yoga (2) Yunyana, one who is busily engaged in the practice of Yoga (3) Yogarūḍha one who has already reached the height of Yoga

15 Powers of the Mind

435 If you closely study the action of the mind upon mind, of mind over matter of mind over the human body you will find that each man is a power in himself You will have to develop the potential faculties by self restraint and mastery over the passions. When mind is so much powerful, to speak any thing of the glory of Atma who is the store-house of everything and from whom the little mind borrows its light and power

436 Whenever any fire accident or any other kind of accident occurs how agile and nimble you are? Do you not exhibit wonderful powers? You jump over a huge wall save many children run amidst fire boldly and carry things. All psychic faculties memory imagination will etc. are at play. Chivalry intrepidity undaunted spirit, mercy and various other noble virtues are exhibited by you. Wherefrom did you draw these faculties and powers? From this you can conclude that you are in reality all-powerful. There is a big magnanimous magazine of power inside. Go to the source by meditation and tap it. You will get everything. Rely on the Self within.

437 If you get a telegram at 12 A. M. on a hot day in summer which informs you that your father is seriously ailing in your native village which is twenty miles distant, at once you leave even your food and begin to gallop. Though you yourself are not in good health at that time you do not mind anything as you are very anxious to see your loving father. You even run the whole distance and reach the place within a couple of hours. Then you begin to wonder. What! I was myself very sick. The day was very hot. I have covered a distance of twenty miles within two hours. What a marvel it is! This clearly shows that you are in reality all-powerful. The mind possesses various kinds of powers and faculties. They lie dormant. You will have to awaken them

438. Vedana-sakti power of cognition or sensation or power of perception and knowing through Indriyas or senses (Indriya-jnana or sense knowledge) Smarana-sakti or Smriti-sakti (power of memory) Bhictana-sakti (power of imagination) Manisa-sakti (power of judgment) Ichchha-sakti or Dauhalpa-sakti (will or volition) and Dharana-sakti (power to hold) are the six important powers of the mind

439 Dharana sakti (power to hold) is really a part of memory or Smarana sakti.

440 The Manisa-sakti (power of judgment) has got two sub-divisions viz. Nirnaya (ascertainment) and Tarka (logical reasoning) Tarka has got two other sub divisions viz Anumana (inference) and Paramarsha (discussion) Power of comparing and contrasting drawing inferences discussion conclusion all belong to Manisa sakti of the mind

441. When you see a river in full floods in the morning you infer that there ought to have been a rain during the previous night. When you see smoke on the hills you infer that there ought to be fire also on the hill This is due to Anumana

442. A is mortal B is mortal C is mortal Again. All men are mortal Mr Choudhury is a man. Therefore Choudhury is mortal These sorts of drawing conclusions through Inductive and

Deductive Logic with major and minor premises and middle term or through the five parts of Syllogistic reasoning of Gautama Rishi's Indian Logic (Nyaya) are done by Manisa-sakti of the mind with the help of Nirnaya and Tarka

443 The Smriti-sakti does three things. Suppose you hear the sound of a bell in the temple. The memory Sakti grasps it. Then it retains it through Dharana. When you hear again the sound of the temple bell it at once reminds you. This is the temple bell. This is not the hostel bell.

444 The Smriti-sakti does three acts. It grasps. It holds. It brings to memory whenever a thing is needed. Though the power of grasping is done by the Vedana-sakti of the mind (power of perception or cognition) the Smriti-sakti also participates in the act of grasping.

445 You have never seen an elephant ride a cycle. When a man who has actually seen it gives you a description your mind forms a mental picture at once. This is done by the Bhavana sakti of the mind (power of imagination).

446. Much has been said about the power of imagination in the West—that it is the most tremendous power in the human mind and that in a conflict between the will and the imagination the imagination would invariably win the day (Will is Atma-sakti. It is the dynamic aspect of Brahma. Will is Brahma in motion.)

447 Some people say that the Will is greater than Imagination. It cannot be truly said that the one is greater than the other, for their independence and power are derived from one another. In Vedanta Will plays a very conspicuous part.

448. There is correlation co ordination and co-operation between the different principles in the mind. Therefore who can say which is greater or small important or unimportant when each depends upon the other for its power ?

449 What would the imagination do without the impelling power of the Will to execute with dynamic power the desires wishes and ideals ?

450 In the East amongst the Vedantis Will is regarded as a greater faculty than Imagination.

451. Apperception is the mind's perception of itself as a conscious agent. The principle of apperception is just like a mail clerk of consciousness receiving sorting out, correlating arranging pigeonholing, associating and sending out messages.

452. There are many higher mental faculties latent in man. Mind is a magazine of power. But the infinite inexhaustible central magazine of power and knowledge and bliss is Atma. The unfoldment of these latent psychic powers is possible through proper Sadhana. The student also must have reached the proper stage of development. The Sadhana should be systematic, constant and intense. There must be genuine Sraddhā also Then only sanguine success is possible.

16 Powers of A Yogi

453. A Rajayogi gets conquest over the mind (Manojaya) through Nirvālpa or Nirbija (without seeds or Samskaras) Samadhi and through Manojaya gets Bhutajaya also (conquest over the five elements) Fire will not burn such a Yogi Water will not drown him Late Tailanga Swami of Benares who lived 80 years ago and Sri Jnanadeva of Alandi (near Poona) had various Siddhis. Sri Jnanadeva made his house move to receive Changadeva who was coming on the back of a tiger He made the masjid to walk Tailanga Swami used to live for six months underneath the Gaoges.

454 The Yogi has got the power to plunge deep into the depths of his sub-conscious mind wherein the samskaras are imbedded and to have direct vision and understanding of the samskaras of different births through his new Yogic eye संस्कारसाक्षात्करणायुवजाति-ज्ञानम् (Patanjali Yoga-Sutras III. 18) Thus he gets the knowledge of his past life. He makes the Yogic Samyama (Dharana Dhyana and Samadhi) on these lateot Samskaras which are only the past experiences in a subtler form

17 Self Analysis

455. Remember the triplet viz. Self analysis self-reliance, self determination It will be of immense use in your spiritual Sadhana. Analyse your self through introspection Find out the nature of your viratis Find out what Guna (quality) is predominating at a particular moment whether it is Sattva Rajas or Tamas? How long can the mind be absolutely fixed on your Lakshya (point of meditation) either God Brahma idea or object, whether internal or external? How long can the mind be fixed on the object rose and rose alone to the exclusion of all other objects? Whether two seconds or two minutes or five minutes or half an hour? This is self analysis Rely on your self alone You are your own redeemer and saviour No body can give you Moksha. You will have to tread the spiritual path step by step Books and Gurus can show the path and guide you. This is self reliance Make a strong self determination I will realize God I will have Atmasakshara or Brahmanubhava this very moment and not in the uncertain future This is self determination.

18 Collect the Rays of Mind

456 Just as you will have to take back with care your cloth that is fallen on a thorny plant by removing the thorns one by one slowly so also you will have to collect back with care and exertion the dissipated rays of the mind that are thrown over the sensual objects for very many years

457 If there is an inflammatory swelling on your back with throbbing pain you do not experience any pain at night when you are asleep Only when the mind is connected with the diseased part through nerves and thinking you begin to experience pain. If you can consciously withdraw the mind from the diseased part by concentrating it on God or any other attractive object, you will not experience any pain even when you are wide awake. If you have a powerful will and strong Titisa (power of endurance) then also you will not experience any pain. By constant thinking of any trouble or disease you only augment your pain and suffering.

19 Antarmukha vritti

458. You will get Antarmukha-vritti (inward-moving mind) only after you have destroyed all the externalising powers of the mind. The Antarmukha-vritti is the withdrawing energy of the mind owing to increase in Sattva.

459. You must learn the art of making the mind introspective or turned inward upon itself through the Logic Ariya—Pratyahara (abstraction). Those who know this practice can really be peaceful. They only can be really happy. Mind cannot do any havoc now. The mind cannot externalise itself. It can be kept inside in the Hridayagruha (cave of the heart). You must starve the mind by Vairagya and Tyaga (renunciation of desires, objects and egoism).

460. When the outgoing tendencies of the mind are arrested when the mind is retained within the heart when all its attention is turned on itself alone.

that condition is Antarmukha-vritti. The Sadhaka can do a lot of Sadhana when he has this inward Vritti. Vairagya and introspection help a lot in the attainment of this mental state.

20 Bahirmukha-vritti

461. The Bahirmukha-vritti is the outgoing tendency of the mind due to Rajas. Further on account of force of habit the ears and eyes at once run towards sound. Objects and desire are an externalising force. A Rajasic man full of desires can never dream of an inner spiritual life with Antarmukha-vritti. He is absolutely unfit for the practice of introspection.

462. When the vision is turned outward the rush of fleeting vents engages the mind. The outgoing energies of the mind begin to play.

463. When you are firmly established in the idea that the world is unreal Viksepa (through names and forms) and Sphurna of Sankalpa (thoughts) will slowly vanish. Repeat constantly the formula "ब्रह्म सत्यं जगन्मिथ्या जीवो ब्रह्मैव नापर" 'Brahma alone is real. World is unreal. Jiva is identical with Brahma. You will gain immense strength and peace of mind through the repetition.

21 Concentration

464. A scientist concentrates his mind and invents many things. Through concentration he opens the layers of the gross mind and penetrates deeply into higher regions of the minds and gets deeper knowledge. He concentrates all his energies of his mind into one focus and throws them out upon the materials he is analysing and so finds out their secrets.

465 He who has learnt to manipulate the mind will get the whole of Nature under his control

466 When you see your dear friend after six years, the Ananda (happiness) that you get is not from the person but from within yourself. The mind becomes concentrated for the time being and you get Ananda from within your own self 467 When the rays of the mind are scattered over diverse objects you get pain. When the rays are gathered and collected by practice the mind becomes concentrated and you get Ananda from within.

468 As mind evolves you come into conscious relation with mental currents with the minds of others near and distant living and dead.

469 When there is faith the mind can be easily concentrated on the subject to be understood and then the understanding quickly follows

470 If you find it difficult to concentrate in your heart or the space between the two eye-brows (Tribhuti) or top of the head, you can concentrate manifest. Many mental weaknesses will vanish. The mind will become stronger and stronger

479 The force wherewith any thing strikes the mind is generally in proportion to the degree of attention bestowed upon it. Moreover the great art of memory is attention and inattentive people have bad memories.

480 The human mind has the power of attending to only one object at a time although it is able to pass from one object to another with a marvellous degree of speed so rapidly in fact that some have held that it could grasp several things at a time. But the best authorities Eastern and Western hold to the Single idea theory as being correct. It agrees with one's daily experience also

481 Some medical students leave the medical college soon after joining it as they find it disgusting to wash the pus in ulcers and dissect the dead bodies. They make a serious blunder. In the beginning it is loathing. After studying Pathology, medicine, operative surgery Morbid anatomy Bacteriology the course will be very interesting in the final year. Many spiritual aspirants leave off the practice of concentration of mind after some time as they find it difficult to practise. They also make a grave mistake like the medical students. In the beginning of practice when you struggle to get over the body consciousness it will be disgusting and troublesome. It will be a physical wrestling. The emotions and

Sankalpas will be abundant. In the third year of practice the mind will be cool pure and strong. You will derive immense joy (Ananda). The sum-total of pleasures of the whole world is nothing when compared to the Ananda derived from the meditation. Do not give up the practice at any cost. Plod on. Persevere. Have patience (Dhṛiti). Utsaha (cheerfulness) and Sahasa (courage application). You will succeed eventually. Never despair. Find out by serious introspection the various impediments that act as stumbling blocks in your concentration and remove them with patience and efforts one by one. Do not allow new Sankalpas and new Vāsanās to crop up. Nip them in the bud through Viveka, Vichara and Dhyāna.

482. Sri Sankara writes in the commentary on Chhandogya Upanishad Ch VII—XXI-1 that a man's duty consists in the control of the senses and concentration of the mind.

483. There was a workman who used to manufacture arrows. Once he was very busy at his work. He was so much absorbed in his work that he did not notice even a big party of Raja with his retinue passing in front of his shop. Such must be the nature of your concentration when you fix your mind on God. You must have the one idea of God and God alone. No doubt it takes some time to have a complete Lagata of mind. You will have to struggle very hard to have a single-minded concentration. Sri Dattatreya made the above arrow-maker as one of his Gurus

484 Even if the mind runs outside during your practice in meditation do not bother. Allow it to run. Slowly try to bring it to your Lakaya (centre). By repeated practice the mind will be finally focussed in your heart, to the Atma the Indweller of your hearts the final goal of life. In the beginning the mind may run out 80 times. Within six months it may run 70 times. Within a year it may run 50 times. Within 2 years it may run 30 times. Within 5 years it will be completely fixed in the Divine Consciousness. Then it will not run out at all even if you try your level best to bring it out, like the wandering bull which was in the habit of running to gardens of different landlords for eating grass but which now eats fresh gram and extract of cotton seeds in its own resting place.

22 Meditation

485 Put a piece of iron rod in the blazing furnace. It becomes red like a fire. Remove it. It loses its red colour. If you want to keep it always red you must always keep it in fire. Even so if you want to keep the mind charged with the fire of Brahmic Wisdom you must keep it always in contact or touch with the Brahmic fire of knowledge through constant and intense meditation. You must keep up an unceasing flow of the Brahmic consciousness. Then you will have the Sahajastha (natural state).

486. Meditation acts as a powerful tonic. It is a mental and oervine tonic as well. The holy vibrations penetrate all the cells of the body and cure the diseases of the body. Those who meditate save doctors bills. The powerful soothing waves that arise during meditation exercise a benign influence on the mind nerves organs and cells of the body. The Divine energy freely flows like Taila-dhara (flow of oil from one vessel to another) from the feet of the Lord to the different systems of the Sadhakas.

487. If you can meditate for half an hour you will be able to engage yourself with peace and spiritual strength in the battle of life for one week through the force of this meditation. Such is the beneficial result of meditation. As you have to move with different minds of a peculiar nature in your daily life get the strength and peace from the meditation and you will have no trouble and worry then.

488. You will find very often these terms in Gita "अनन्यचेता" "मस्तिष्ता" "नित्ययुक्त" "मन्मता" "एकाग्रमनः" "सचभाव". These terms connote that you will have to give your full mind entire 100 mind to God. Then only you will have Self-Realization. Even if one ray of mind runs outside it is impossible to attain God consciousness.

489. Be silent. Know thyself. Know That. Melt the mind in That. Truth is quite pure and simple.

190 Asana (posture) steadies the body Bandhas and Mudras make the body firm Pranayama makes the body light Nadisuddhi effects Samyavastha of the mind Having acquired these qualifications you will have to fix the mind on Brahma Then only meditation will go on steadily with happiness

491. The banks of the Ganges or Nerhudda Himalaya scenery lovely flower garden sacred temples—these are the places which elevate the mind in concentration and meditation Have recourse to them

492. A solitary place spiritual vibratory conditions as at Uttarakashi Rishikesh Badri Narayana a cool place and temperate climate—these conditions are indispensibly requisite for concentration of mind.

493 Just as salt melts in water the Sattvic mind melts in silence during meditation in Brahma—its Adhishthana (substratum)

494 When you are a neophyte in meditation start repeating some sublime Slokas or Stotras (hymns) for ten minutes as soon as you sit for meditation. This will elevate the mind. The mind can be easily withdrawn from the wordly objects. Then stop this kind of thinking also and fix the mind on one idea only by repeated and strenuous efforts. Then Nishta will ensue

495 You must have a mental image of God or Brahma (concrete or abstract) before you begin to meditate.

496 When you see the concrete figure of Lord Krishna with open eyes and meditate it is the concrete form of meditation. When you reflect over the image of Lord Krishna by closing your eyes, it is also concrete form of meditation but it is more abstract. When you meditate on the infinite abstract light it is still more abstract meditation. The former two types belong to Saguna form of meditation the latter to Nirguna form. Even in Nirguna meditation there is an abstract form in the beginning for fixing the mind. Later on this form vanishes and the meditator and the meditated become one. Meditation proceeds from the mind.

497 Examine your character. Pick up some distinct defect in it. Find out its opposite. Let us say that you suffer from irritability. The opposite of irritability is patience. Try to develop this virtue by meditating on the abstract virtue of patience. Regularly every morning sit down at 4 A. M. in Padma or Siddha Asana in a solitary room for half an hour and begin to think on Patience its value its practice under provocation taking one point one day another on another day and thinking as steadily as you can recalling the mind when it wanders. Think of yourself as perfectly patient a model of patience and end with a vow 'This patience which is my true self I will feel and show from today

For a few days probably there will be no change perceptible. You will still feel and show irritability. Go on practising steadily every morning. Presently as you say an irritable thing the thought will flash into your mind, unbidden I should have been patient Still go on in practice Soon the thought of patience will arise with the irritable impulse and the outer manifestation will be checked Still go on practising The irritable impulse will grow feebler and feebler until you find that irritability has disappeared and patience has become your normal attitude towards annoyances In this manner you can develop various virtues on sympathy self restraint purity humility benevolence nobility generosity etc.

498. It is the actions of the mind that are truly termed harinas True liberation results from the disentanglement of the mind. Those who have freed themselves from the fluctuation of their minds come into possession of the supreme Nistha (meditation) Should the mind be purged of all its impurities then it will become very calm and all the worldly delusion attendant with its births and deaths will be soon destroyed

499 Concentration of the mind on God after purification can give you real happiness and knowledge. You are born for this purpose only You are carried away to external objects through Raga and Moha (attachment and infatuated love)

500 If you place a big mirror in front of a dog and keep some bread in front the dog at once barks by looking at its reflection in the mirror It foolishly imagines that there is another dog Even so man sees his own reflection only through his mind mirror

in all the people but foolishly imagines like the dog that they are all different from him and fights on account of hatred and jealousy

501 When you start a fire you heap up some straw pieces of paper thin pieces of wood. The fire gets extinguished quickly You blow it again several times through the mouth or the blow pipe After some time it becomes a small conflagration. You can hardly extinguish it now even with great efforts. Even so in the beginning of meditation in neophytes they fall down from meditation in their old grooves They will have to lift up their minds again and again and fix on the Lakṣya. When the meditation becomes deep and steady they get established in God eventually Then the meditation becomes Sahaja (natural) It becomes habitual Use the blow pipe of Tīvera Vairagya and intense meditation to kindle the fire of meditation.

502 Solitude and intense meditation are two important requisites for Self-Realization

503 During meditation when your mind is more Sattvic you will be inspired. The mind will be composing fine poems and solving some problems of life Stamp out these Sattvic Vrittis also This is all dissipation of mental energy Soar higher and higher to Atma only

504 Drive off negative thoughts Become positive always. Positive overpowers negative. You can do nice meditation when you are positive

505. If the mind constantly dwells on sensual objects the conception of the reality of the universe will surely increase. If the mind ceaselessly thinks of Atma (Absolute) the world appears like a dream.

506. Free yourself from the hase thoughts of the mind the various useless Sankalpas (imagination) Make ceaseless enquiry of Atma Mark the word ceaseless This is important. Then only there will be dawn of spiritual knowledge The Jnana-surya (the sun of Knowledge) will arise in the firmament of Ohidakasa (knowledge space)

507 Just as you render the turbid water pure by the addition of clearing nut (strychnos potatorium) so also you will have to make the turbid mind filled with Vasanas and false Sankalpas pure by Brahmachintana (thinking and reflecting on the Absolute) Then only there will be true illumination

508. You must not be too hasty in longing for the fruits at once when you take to meditation A young lady perambulated an Asvattha tree (Ficus Religiosa) 108 times for getting an offspring and immediately touched her abdomen to see whether there was a child or not. It is simply foolishness. She will have to wait for some months Even so if you will meditate for some time regularly then the mind will be ripened and eventually you will get Atma saksatkara (Self-Realization) Haste makes waste.

you will have to saturate the mind with thoughts of God and Brahma with Divine Glory Divine Presence with sublime soul-awakening spiritual thoughts. Then only you will always be established in the Divine Consciousness.

510 You will get the full Ananda of the Divine Glory only when you merge deep into silent meditation When you are on the border land of Divinity of God when you are at the threshold of God when you are in the outer skirts you will not get the maximum peace and bliss

511. Before saturating the mind with thoughts of Brahma you will have to assimilate the Divine ideas first Assimilation first and then saturation Then comes Realization at once without a moment's delay Remember the triplet always Assimilation—Saturation—Realization

512. There is always a complaint amongst the aspirants I am meditating for the last 12 years. I have not made any improvement. I have no realization. Why is it so? What is the reason? They have not plunged themselves in deep meditation into the innermost recesses of their hearts. They have not properly assimilated and saturated the mind with the thoughts of God. They have not done regular systematic Sadhana They have not disciplined the Indriyas perfectly They have not collected all the outgoing rays of the mind. They have not made the self determination "I will realize this very second". They have not given the full 100% of the mind or 16 annas of the mind, their full mind to God. They have not kept an increasing flow of Divine Consciousness (Tailadharavat) like the flow of oil.

513 Just as the man who foolishly runs after two rabbits will not catch hold of any one of them, so also a meditator who runs after two conflicting thoughts will not get success in any one of the two thoughts. If he has Divine thoughts for ten minutes and then worldly conflicting thoughts for the next ten minutes he will not succeed in anything in getting at the Divine Consciousness. You must run after one rabbit only with vigour, strength and one pointedness. You are sure to catch it. You must have only Divine thoughts at all times. Then you are sure to realize God soon.

514 This is one kind of meditation for beginners. Sit on Padmasana in a solitary room. Close your eyes. Meditate on the effulgence in the Sun, splendour in the Moon, glory in the stars, beauty in the sky.

515 Meditate on the magnanimity of the ocean, its infinite nature. Compare the ocean with the Infinite Brahma, the waves, foams and blocks of ice to the various names and forms. Identify yourself with the ocean. Become silent. Expand. Expand..

516. This is another kind of meditation. Meditate on the Himalayas. Imagine that the River Ganges takes its origin from the icy region of Gangotri near Uttarkashi flows through Rishikesh Hardwar Benares and enters the Gangasagar in the Bay of Bengal. Himalayas Ganges and the sea these three thoughts only should occupy your mind. First take your mind to icy Gangotri, then along the Ganges and finally to the sea. Then again take it to the icy Gangotri. Rotate the mind in this manner for 15 minutes.

517. Imagine that there is a fine garden with lovely flowers. In one corner there are jasmine flowers. In another corner there are beautiful cabbage roses. In the third corner there is the lady of the night. In the fourth corner there are Champa flowers. Now meditate on these four varieties of flowers. First meditate on jasmine. Then take the mind to rose then to the lady of the night and finally to the Champa. Again rotate the mind as above. Do this again and again for 15 minutes. Gross meditation like these will prepare the mind to finer abstract meditation on subtle ideas.

518. Have the figure OM in front of you. Concentrate on this. Do Trata also with open eyes (steady gazing without winking till tears flow profusely). This is both Saguna and Nirguna meditation (with and without attributes). Keep a picture of OM in your meditation room. You can do Puja for this symbol of Brahma. Burn incense etc.

Offer flowers This suits the modern educated persons

519 There is no world. There is neither body nor the mind. There is only one Chaitanya (pure consciousness). I am that pure consciousness. This is Nirguna meditation (without attributes)

520 Only a trained mind which utterly controls the body can inquire and meditate endlessly so long as life remains never for a moment losing sight of the object of his search and contemplation (the Brahma) never for a moment letting it to be obscured by any terrestrial temptation.

521. During the inhalation the air comes out 16 digits. When the mind gets concentrated it will become less and less. It will come to 15 then 14 13 12, 10 8 and so on. When you enter into very deep silent meditation the breath will not come out of the nostrils. There may be occasional slow movement of the lungs and the nature of the breathing you are concentrating on is very carefully thoughts of Brahma or Divine Presence flow like inundation or flood. On Vijatiya-vritti tirashkara Renounce the thoughts of objects. Drive them away with the whip of Viveka and Vichara. There is struggle in the beginning. It is trying indeed. But later on as you will grow stronger and stronger and as you grow in purity and Brahmachintana becomes easy. You rejoice in the life of unity. You get strength from Atma. Inner strength grows when all the Visaya Vrittis are thinned out and the mind becomes one-pointed (Elagra) ॥ २॥

524 During meditation note how long you can shut out all worldly thoughts. Watch the mind very carefully. If it is for twenty minutes try to increase the period for thirty or forty minutes and so on. Fill the mind with the thoughts of God again and again.

525 You will have to note very carefully whether you remain stationary in the spiritual path even after many years of spiritual practice or whether you are progressing. Sometimes you may go downwards also if you are not very vigilant and careful if your Vairagya wanes and if you are slack in meditation. Reacting may set in. Some practise meditation for a period of 15 years and yet they have not made any real progress at all. Why? This is due to lack of earnestness. Vairagya, keep looking for liberation and intense constant Sadhana.

526. When you advance in the spiritual practice it will be very difficult for you to do meditation and

(Truth Wisdom Infinity One Eternal Essence)
Lastly stick to one thing only

531 In meditation do not strain the eyes. Do not strain the brain Do not struggle or wrestle with the mind Relax Gently allow the divine thoughts to flow Steadily think of the Laksya (point of meditation) Do not voluntarily and violently drive away intruding thoughts. Have sublime Sattvic thoughts. Vicious thoughts will by themselves vanish

532 If there is much strain in meditation reduce the number of hours for a few days Do light meditation only When you have regained the normal tone again increase the period. Use your common sense all throughout the Sadhana. I always reiterate on this point.

533 When the mind becomes steady in meditation the eye-balls also become steady A Yogi whose mind is calm will have a steady eye. There will be no winking at all. The eyes will be lustrous red or pure white.

534 Those who meditate for four or five hours at one stretch can have two Asanas either Padma or Vajra or Siddha and Vajra in the beginning. Sometimes the blood accumulates in one part of the legs or thighs and gives a little trouble. After two hours change the Asana from Padma or Siddhasana to Vayrasana or stretch the legs at full length. Lean against a wall or a pillow Keep the spine erect. This is the most comfortable Asana. Join two chairs Sit on one chair and stretch the legs on another chair This is another contrivance

535 You must daily increase your Vairagya meditation and Sattvic virtues such as patience perseverance mercy love, forgiveness purity etc. Vairagya and good qualities help meditation Meditation increases the Sattvic qualities

536 Have the one all-pervading Bhavana (feeling) Deny the finite body as a mere appearance Try to keep up the feeling always

537 Whatever that elevates you you can take it up for your advantage just to elevate the mind and then continue your prolonged meditation

538 In contemplation you are in spiritual contact with the unchanging Light. You are cleansed of all the impurities This Light cleanses the soul which touches it. The sun-glass is exposed to the light of the Sun and the straws that the underneath catch fire. So within yourself if you have an open heart devotedly lifted up to God the Light of His Purity and Love illumining this open soul will consume all your shortcomings in the fire of Divine Love. The Light brings enhanced energy and great comfort.

539 This purifying process leads to a deeper insight into Truth. This is the action of Grace of the Lord upon the soul in meditation In this only when the habit is changed everything will be alright.

546. Those who practise meditation will find that they are more sensitive than the people who do not meditate and because of that the strain on the physical body is enormous

547 All actions whether internal or external can be done only when the mind is united with the organs. Thought is the real action. If you have control over the mind by steady practice if you can regulate your emotions and moods, you will not do foolish and wrong actions. Meditation will help a lot in checking various emotions and impulses

548. During meditation you get rapture or ecstasy. It is of five kinds viz. the lesser thrill momentary rapture flooding rapture transporting rapture and all-pervading rapture. The lesser thrill is only able to raise the hairs of the body (like the goose skin). The momentary rapture is like the productions of lightning moment by moment. Like waves breaking on the sea shore the flooding rapture descends rapidly on the body and breaks. Transporting rapture is strong and lifts the body up to the extent of launching it into the air. When the all pervading rapture arises the whole body is completely surcharged, blown like a full-bladder

549 Just as a very skilful archer in shooting at a bird is aware of the way in which he takes his steps, holds the bow the bow-string, and the arrow at the time when he pierces the bird thus Standing in this position holding thus the bow thus the bow string and thus the arrow I pierce the bird and ever afterwards would not fail to fulfil these conditions that he might pierce the bird—even so should the aspirant note the conditions such as suitable food, Eating this kind of food following such a person, in such a dwelling in this mode at this time I attained to this meditation and Samadhi

550 As a clever cook in serving his master notes the kind of food that he relishes and henceforward serves it and gets gain so the aspirant too notes the conditions such as nourishment etc. at the moment of attaining meditation and Samadhi and in fulfilling them gets ecstasy again and again

551 When you begin to sweep a room that was kept closed for six months various kinds of dirt come out from the corners of the room Similarly during meditation under pressure of Yoga through the Grace of God various kinds of impurities float about on the surface of the mind Bravely remove them one by one by suitable method and counter-virtues with patience and strenuous efforts. The old vicious Samskaras revenge when you try to suppress them. Do not be afraid. They lose their strength after some time. You have to tame the mind just as you tame a wild elephant or a tiger Do not indulge in vicious thoughts which serve as food for the mind. Make the mind Antarmukha (self-introspective) Substitute good virtuous sublime thoughts. Feed the mind with ennobling aspirations and ideals. Old vicious Samskaras will be gradually thinned out and eventually obliterated.

552. Leading a virtuous life is not by itself sufficient for God-Realization. Concentration of mind is absolutely necessary. A good virtuous life only prepares the mind as a fit instrument for concentration and meditation. It is concentration and meditation that eventually lead to Self-Realization.

553. During meditation some of the visions that you see are your own materialized thoughts while some others are real objective visions.

554. Real peace and Ananda (bliss) manifest only when the Vasanas are thinned out and Sankalpas get extinguished. When you fix the mind either on Sri Krishna or Siva or Atma even for five minutes Sattvaguna is infused into the mind. Vasanas are thinned out and Sphurna of Sankalpa becomes less and less. You will feel peace and bliss during the five minutes. You can compare this Ananda from meditation with the transitory sensual pleasure. You will find that this Ananda from meditation is million times superior to sensual pleasure. Meditate and feel this Ananda. Then you will know its real value.

555. In meditation new grooves are formed in the brain and the mind moves upwards in the new spiritual grooves.

556 In meditation and concentration you will have to train the mind in a variety of ways. Then only the gross mind will become subtle (Sul sma)

23 Nirguna Meditation

557 There is a living universal Power that underlies at the back of all these names and forms. Meditate on this Power which is formless. This will form an elementary Nirguna meditation without any form (formless Dhyana) and will terminate in the realization of the Absolute Nirguna Nirakasa consciousness eventually.

558 Sit on Padmasana. Open the eyes. Gaze steadily on the formless air only. This is also another method of formless meditation. Concentrate on the air. This will lead to the realization of the nameless and formless Brahma the One Living Truth.

559 Imagine that there is a Parama Ananta Akhanda Jyoti (supreme Infinite effulgence) hidden behind all the phenomena with an effulgence that mounts to the blaze of crores of suns together. Meditate on that. This is also another form of Nirguna meditation.

560. Concentrate and meditate on the expansive sky. This is also another kind of Nirguna Nirakasa meditation. By the previous methods in concentration the mind will stop thinking of finite forms. It will slowly begin to melt in the ocean of Peace as it is deprived of its contents viz., forms of various sorts. It will become subtler and subtler also.

24 Obstacles in Meditation

561. Very often depression comes in meditation in neophytes owing to previous Samskaras influence of astral entities evil spirits had company cloudy days bad stomach owing to indigestion and loaded bowels in constipation. It must be removed quickly by cheerful thoughts a brisk walk singing, laughing prayer Pranayama etc.

562. Sometimes during the course of meditation the mind suddenly slips into its old grooves for sleeping. People think that they are meditating while they are actually sleeping

563. Various sorts of fantastic dreams trouble some aspirants very much. Sometimes there is a mixture of meditation and dreams. As the phenomenon of dreams is very peculiar and inexplicable it is very difficult to control dreams unless you wipe out all the Samskaras in the Karana-sarira (causal body) and control all thoughts. As you grow in purity Viveka and concentration dreams will decrease.

564. The presence of dreams denotes that you are not yet well-established in deep meditation that you have not removed Viksepa (tossing of the mind) and that you have not done constant intense Sadhana

565 A mixture of drowsiness (Tandra) and Manorajya (building castles in the air reverie) is mistaken by aspirants for deep meditation and Samadhi. The mind appears to be established in concentration and free from Viksepa (distraction). This is a mistake. Closely watch the mind. Remove these two serious obstacles by Vichara Pranayama, light Sattvic diet. Be thoughtful careful and vigilant. Stand up for two minutes and dash cold water on the face and head if drowsiness comes on.

566. Sleepiness passions confused state of the mind Manorajya (building castles in the air) are the chief obstacles that stand in the way of fixing the mind on God or Brahma. Light Sattvic food and Vichara will obviate the above obstacles.

567 When you constantly contemplate on the meaning of the Mahavakya Aham Brahma Asmi or Tat Twam Asi through the process of Mahavakyanusandhana all the Visayas (seeing, hearing, touching, tasting and smelling) will stop. But owing to the force of Samskaras Manorajya (building castles in the air) will continue. Sleep also will intervene. If you are alert and if by protracted efforts and incessant, vigilant Swarupa-chintana (meditation on Brahma) you get over these two obstacles the steady Brahma-laxavritti and Brahmajnana will dawn in no time. Ajnana will vanish. You will be established in Sahaja Paramananda state. All Sanchita (accumulated) Karma will be burnt up in the fire of wisdom.

568. The five hindrances to meditation viz sense-desire ill-will sloth torpor flurry worry and perplexity should be removed For when these are not removed meditation cannot arise The mind that lusts after many things through sense desire is not concentrated on one object or being overcome by sense desire it does not enter upon the progress of meditation in order to put away the sensuous element. The mind that is harassed by ill will concerning an object does not proceed at once The mind that is overcome by sloth and torpor is unwieldy Obscured by worry and flurry it does not repose but flirts about. Struck by perplexity it does not go on the path that leads to the attainment of meditation and Samadhi

25 Samadhi

569 A Hathayogi draws all his prana from the different parts of his body and takes it to the Sahasrara-chakra (thousand-petalled lotus) at the top of the head Then he enters into Samadhi (super conscious state) Therefore it is very difficult to bring him down to objective consciousness by mere shaking his body Hathayogis have remained buried underneath the earth in Samadhi for years together They plug the posterior nostrils through Khechari Mudra (a kind of Hathayogic Ariya) with their long tongues You can bring down to normal objective consciousness a Rajayogi or Bhaktiyogi or Jnanayogi by mere shaking of the body or blowing a conch Chudala brought down her husband

Sikhidhwaja from Samadhi by shaking his body Lord Hari brought Prahlada down from his Samadhi by blowing his conch

570 A Bhakta gets Bhava-samadhi through Prema of the Lord A Rajayogi gets Nirodha-samadhi through chitta-vritti-nirodha (by restraining the mental modifications) A Vedanti gets Bheda-samadhi through Nishyatva-buddhi and concentration on the idea of the asti bhati prajye (the Ananya method)

571 When the Yogi has reached the last perfect stage of meditation and Samadhi the fire whereof burns surely all the residue of his actions he at once gets liberation (Jivanmukti) in this very life.

572 The moving of a bullock cart can be compared to Sevikaalpa-samadhi It stops This is Aisvikaalpa The bulls are detached This is Schajavastha

573 When your meditation becomes deep you generally operate through the subtle Karman-Sarira only The Karana-sarira consciousness becomes your normal consciousness Yogis have a normal Karana-sarira consciousness Bhaktas like Lord Gouranga Tukaram Tulasidas identified themselves with their Karana-sarira and had a normal Karman-sarira consciousness A Bhakta of Karana sarira consciousness is an occupant of Brahmaloka even when living in the fleshy tabernacle. He is one with Brahma or Hiranyagarbha He has Divine Aniswarya yet he has a thin ethereal body He keeps up his individuality

A whirlpool is one with the whole mass of the water. It has a separate existence also. Similar is the case with the Bhakta who has a life with his Karana-sarira in Isvara.

574 The ground floor represents the Life of passion in the sense universe. The first storey corresponds to Savikalpa-samadhi. The second storey tantamounts to Nirvikalpa-samadhi. The third storey represents the Sahajavastha of a Jivanmukta. The ladder with 3 rungs represents Sraṇa, Manana, Nididhyasana (hearing of *Śruti*s, reflection and then meditation on Brahma) through which the Vedānti ascends to Brahma.

575 In Savikalpa-samadhi there is Triputi, or the triad Dhyata (the meditator), Dhyana (meditation) and Dhyeya (object of meditation). In Nirvikalpa-samadhi this Triputi vanishes (Triputirahita). The mind completely melts in Brahma. The happiness or bliss that you get in Savikalpa samadhi is termed Rasaswada. This is also an obstacle (Pratibandha or Vighna) for further spiritual progress. It makes you stop here. It cannot liberate you. You must further march onwards to attain the highest Nirvikalpa state wherein lies your whole freedom.

576. In Yogic Samadhi, Dhyeya remains. Dhyeya means the object of meditation. In Vedantic Samadhi, Keval Asti (existence alone) remains.

577 A sudden stroke of mystic illumination puts an end to all the empirical existence altogether and the very idea or remembrance of such a thing as this world or the narrow individuality of the spirit in this world absolutely leaves the self.

578 Generally when you have what you call dreamless sleep it is one of two things either you do not remember what you dreamt of or you fell into absolute unconsciousness which is almost death—a taste of death. But there is the possibility of a sleep in which you enter into an absolute silence immortality and peace in all parts of your being and your consciousness merges into Sachchidananda. You can hardly call it sleep for there is perfect awareness. In that condition you can remain for a few minutes or hours or days but these few minutes give you more rest and refreshment than hours of ordinary sleep. You cannot have it by chance. It requires a long training.

579 Intuition is spiritual Anubhava. It is direct perception or immediate knowledge through Samadhi. Professor Bergson preaches about intuition in France to make the people understand that there is another higher source of knowledge than intellect. In intuition there is no reasoning process at all. It is Pratyaksa. Intuition transcends reason but does not contradict it. Intellect takes a man to the door of intuition and returns back. Intuition is Dirghadrsti. It is Jnanachakshu. Spiritual flashes and glimpses of truth come through intuition. Inspiration, revelation, spiritual insight come through intuition.

580 Nirvikalpa means free from all sorts of modifications and imaginations. There is a difference between the Nirvikalpa state of a Yogi and the Nirvikalpa state of a Vedanti. The former concerns with the mind. The latter concerns with the pure Atma or Brahma only.

581 If you can fix the mind for ten seconds steadily on a particular object or Murti, it is Dharana (concentration). Ten such Dharanas become Dhyana (meditation). Ten such Dhyanas form a Samadhi.

582 Prana and Apana that move in the chest and anus respectively are united by Yogic processes Jalandhar Mula and Uddiyana Bandhas and the united Prana-Apana is driven into the Susumnanadi of the spinal canal. The Pranas when thus driven draw up the mind also along with the Susumnanadi which is otherwise known as Brahma nadi. When the mind is in the Susumna the Yogi is shut out from the objective consciousness of the world. He is practically dead to the world, sees various visions and moves in the mental ethereal space (Ohudakasa).

583 A life in the spirit (Atma or Divine) is not annihilation. Samadhi is not a stone like inert state as many people imagine. When the self is bound down to its empirical accidents, its activities are not fully exercised and when the limitations of the empirical existence are transcended the universal life is intensified and you have enrichment of self. You will have a rich inner life. You will have an expanded cosmic life and supra cosmic life too.

584 When all the Vrittis die Samskaras and the frame of the mind remain Samskaras can only be fried up by Nirbija samadhi

26 Experiences in Meditation

585 By experiences pleasant and painful man gathers materials and builds them into mental and moral faculties

586 As a merchant closing the year's ledger and opening new one does not enter in the new all the items of the old but only its balances so does the spirit hand on the new brain his judgments on the experiences of a life that is closed the conclusions to which he has come the decisions to which he has arrived. This is the stock handed on to the new life the mental furniture for the new dwelling—a real memory

587 The mind which ever rises and falls with the ebb of desires fancies this illusory universe to be through its ignorance but it should be informed of the real nature of this world then it will cognise it to be Brahma itself

मन एव मनुष्याणां कारणं पञ्चमोक्षयो

588. During meditation you may experience that you are rising from your seat. Some experience that they fly in the air

589 Various persons get various spiritual experiences. There cannot be a common experience for all It depends upon the temperament, mode of Sadhana place of concentration and various other factors. Some hear melodious sounds in the ears. Some see lights. Some get Ananda (spiritual bliss) Some get both Prakasa and Ananda

590 If there is any error in Sadhana (meditation) at once consult the senior Samyasis or realized souls and remove the mistake. If your general health is sound if you are cheerful happy and strong physically and mentally if the mind is peaceful and unruffled if you get Ananda in meditation and if your will is growing strong pure and irresistible think that you are improving in meditation and everything is going all right

591 The Divine Light comes out through open doors but only through narrow slits. The aspirant sees the Divine Ray as a sunbeam passing through a chink into a dark room. It is like a flash of lightning This sudden illumination chokes all sounds of words The aspirant is spell bound in ecstasy and awe. He trembles with Love and awe, just as Arjuna did when he had the Virata Visvarupa Darshana of Lord Krishna. So bright and glorious is the Light environing the Divine that the initiate is dazzled and bewildered and very awful to look at. It has three wings of marvellous length and breadth white as a dazzling cloud. At times they would beat terribly and again would be still. The head never utters a word but remains altogether still. Now and again there is beating with its extended wings.

593 During meditation the colour of lights that you see varies according to the tattva that flows through the nostrils. If there is Agni-tattva you will see red-coloured lights. If Akasa-tattva flows you will have blue coloured lights. If Apas-tattva (water) prevails you will see white coloured lights. If there is Prithvi-tattva you will have yellow lights. If there is Vayu-tattva you will see black colour. You can change the Tattva by various ways. But the best way is by thought. As you think so you also become. When the Agni-tattva flows think intently of Apas-tattva. Apas-tattva will begin to flow soon.

594 If you get experiences of the glimpses of self during intense meditation if you see a blazing light during meditation and if you get spiritual visions of angels archangels Rishis Munis Devatas and any other extraordinary spiritual experiences do not fall back in terror. Do not mistake them for phantoms. Do not give up the Sadhana. Plod on. Persevere diligently. Break veil after veil.

595 March on boldly. Do not look back. Cross the intense void and darkness. Pierce the layer of Moha. Melt the subtle Ahanlara now. Svarupa will

CHAPTER IV.

1 Comparison of Mind

(a) Mind is like a tennis ball

When you play at tennis the ball goes very high in the sky and the next second it comes down to the ground. Even so the mind jumps high to the Divine Glory, dwells on Sattvic Divine virtues for a very short time in the beginning of meditation in neophytes and at once falls down into its old rotten grooves, nasty ruts, foul avenues, stinking channels and dwells on useless, abominable thoughts. The developing soul, the new flame, shudders and quivers at the sight of these shocking thoughts. It does not matter, you need not worry. Just as you raise the ball again to the sky by a good, fresh cut or twist or gentle beating, so also you will have to raise the mind again with effort to the heights of Divine Glory and Divine Consciousness.

(b) Mind is like a mirror

The mind of a man is compared to a mirror in which Reality (Brahma) is reflected. The extent you know about Reality depends upon the state of your mind, whether it corresponds to the full wealth of reality or not. Colours are not revealed to the blind oor music to the deaf nor philosophical truths to the feeble minded 'नायमात्मा बलहीनेन लभ्य The revelation will be imperfect or distorted if there is any fault or imperfection. The selfish desires and passions get between the instrument of mind and the reality to be revealed Hidden subtle desires (Gudha Vasanas) attack the Sadhakas (aspirants) in a variety of ways. Sadhakas should be ever watching the mind through serious introspection When the personality of the subject affects the nature of the instrument the reflection becomes blurred.

(c) Mind drops like a tennis ball.

If you allow a tennis ball to drop down from the highest staircase it will not stop at any of the middle steps in the staircase It will come down to ground floor at once. Even so if you do not take the proper precautions, if you mix with the worldly-minded persons you will get a quick downfall like the tennis ball. The mind that you elevated by spiritual practices in six or eight years will become tainted with various sorts of impurities. Beware therefore O Aspirants !

(d) Mind is like a ghost

The mind is like a ghost which is restless Once a Brahman pundit through Mantra-siddhi had control over a ghost. The ghost said to the pundit I can do any work for you in a minute You must always be giving me some work If you leave me even for a second without work I will at once devour you."

The Brahmana greed. The ghost dug a tank for the Brahman ploughed the fields and did various sort of work in a short time. He was not able to give the ghost any further work. The ghost threatened the Brahman, Now there is no work for me. I will devour you. The Brahman was quite puzzled. He did not know what to do. He went to his Guru and explained to him his whole situation. His teacher said O Chela use your common sense or Yukti (Buddhi). Install a big stout soft wooden post in front of your house. Apply castor oil, wax and other greasy substances to the post. Ask the ghost to get up and get down the whole day and night. The disciple acted accordingly and controlled the ghost. The ghost became very helpless. Even so you must give always some kind of work or other to the mind e.g. Japa meditation Sivadhya service Kirtana prayer Panayama. You must keep it fully occupied. Then only the mind can be easily controlled. You can be established as physical and mental Brahmacharya.

(e) Mind again is like a mirror

If you place a big mirror in front of a dog and keep some bread in front, the dog at once barks by looking at its reflection in the mirror. It foolishly imagines that there is another dog. Even so man sees his own reflection only through his mind mirror in all persons but foolishly imagines like the dog that they are all different from him and fights on account of hatred, malice and jealousy.

(f) Mind is like mercury

The activity of the mind is compared to the mobile mercury. If you place a small quantity of mercury on the ground it will split into several small pieces and run in various directions. You cannot collect them again. Even so the rays of the mind are scattered in various directions in sensual objects. It becomes difficult to collect the dissipated mental rays. Vairagya and Abhyasa will help in making the mind one-pointed.

(g) Mind is like a strolling street dog

The mind can be compared to the shameless wandering street dog with so many wounds on the body. The dog goes to the door of a house. Some one throws a stone at it and it runs away. It goes to another house. There also it gets a good hitting and thrashing. Then it comes back again to the first house wherefrom it received a pelting of stone. Some one again throws a big stone and it gets another wound. The dog will never leave off its wandering habit in spite of the repeated bad wounds it receives. Even so this mind always runs towards sensual objects even though it experiences immense miseries, griefs and sorrows, pains and tribulations. It will never leave off its old habits. You will have to thrash this shameless mind and take to its source—Brahma by chanting OM with feeling again and again. Let it taste the Ananda—the Infinite Bliss of Atma. Then alone it will find its rest in OM its original Abode of Eternal Peace.

(h) Mind is like a pendulum

In a clock the pendulum moves to the right and thence to the left. When the children play on a swing the swing moves high to one side and at once rises high to the other side. Even so in the case of aspirants who are not established or well settled in deep meditation their minds also resemble the pendulum or the swing. They sometimes think of Karmayoga enter the world and do actions. While at other times they run to the Himalayas for leading a contemplative life. There is a struggle inside whether to take up Karmayoga or Dhyanayoga. You must decide it once for all and be firm in practising Karmayoga or in shutting yourself up in a room or cave for some years in the practice of meditation. To run for work into the world for six months and then again into the forest for six months for meditation is no good. Decide one way or the other. Cut asunder the gordian knot. Work till you get Ohitta suddhi. Meditate till you realize. This is the wisest course.

2 Atma, the Source for Mind

598 The source or basis for mind is Atma or Brahma or Absolute Consciousness. It is through this mind the Jiva or the individual soul gathers or gains all the experiences and knowledge of this physical plane during several births (84 lakhs of Yonis according to the Hindu scriptures). When he reaches perfection (Siddhi) after gaining the various experiences the mind melts in its source the Light of lights the Sun of suns.

599 Just as the bird tied by a string having flown in various directions and finding no resting place elsewhere, settles down at the place to which it is fastened so also the mind my dear flying in various directions and finding no resting place elsewhere settles down at Prana because my dear the mind is fastened to the Prana —Ohhandogyā Upaniṣad Ch VI 8. 2. (The mind indicates the human soul. Prana signifies the Supreme Being Brahma)

600 The individual soul Mr so and so who is limited by the mind flies about in various directions in the shape of pleasure and pain, actuated by the desires and actions based on ignorance during the waking and dreaming states experiences all these joys and sorrows and not finding any other resting place save the Prana (Inner Self) settles down at the Prana (Inner Being which is Pure)

3 Vasana kshaya

601 Vasana-kshaya (destruction of Vasanas) is caused by Brahma-bhavana and Vichara Vairagya and Tyaga also help you in their destruction. There is no Vasana in Brahma. Complete annihilation of the Vasanas only take place in Nirvīṇa-samadhi

4 Manonasha

602. The extinction of Vasanas (Vasana-kshaya) Manonasha (annihilation of the mind) and Tattvajñana when practised together for a long time are regarded as fruitful. They should be practised a time. So long as these three are not equal practised again and again the Supreme Self (Paramapada) cannot be attained even after a lapse of hundreds of years. Through the practice of these three for a long time the firm knots of the heart are cut without doubt like the breaking of the thread in a lotus stalk rent in twain.

603. Control the physical body and the speech first. Then slowly proceed to control thoughts. Do not speak ill of others. Control the Indriya of speech first. Gradually the mind will not think ill of others. The mind will say unto itself. Why should I think ill of others when the organ of speech is not prepared to express what I think? You can control your actions only when you have become moral. When you speak ill of a man you poison the mind of several people. It is extremely ignoble to speak ill of others. But just comments without hatred or malice is permissible occasionally.

604. Your thoughts must agree with the words. This is Arjuna (straight forwardness). Practise this. You will derive wonderful benefits.

605. If you practise Satya for twelve years you will get Vak siddhi. Whatever you speak will come to pass. Chinta (anxiety) will vanish. You will be free from committing many evil actions by speaking the truth.

606 If you want to drink water at a tap you will have to bend your body Even so a lower mind will have to bend (to be bumble) before a developed mind if it longs to imbibe its virtues

607 The more you attenuate your Vasanas by Svarupa-lasana or the Brahma bhavana the happier you will become In proportion to the thinning of the Vasanas the mind also is proportionately thinned out Mind is nothing but a bundle of Vasanas

608. The illusory Samsaric Vasanas that have arisen through the practice of many hundreds of lives never perish except through the practice of Yoga for a long time Therefore O Aspirants! after having put away at a distance the desire of enjoyment by discriminative efforts resort to these three above-mentioned alone. The wise know that the mind associated with Vasana tends to bondage while the mind absolutely free from Vasana is said to be an emancipated one. Practise the state of mind absolutely devoid of Vasana Vasana perishes through well conducted deliberation (Ichara) Brahma-dhiana Isiragya and Tyaga

609 Through the absorption of the Vasanas Manas attains quiescence like a lamp without oil

610. Realization of Brahma can be effected through the mind alone after abandoning its Sankalpas and Malpas The origin and the dissolution of this universe which is nothing but a mode of consciousness take place with the complete origination and destruction of the Sankalpas of the mind. It is the Sankalpa of the mind that brings about this world with all its moving and fixed creatures

611. Sravaṇa Manana and Nididhyāsana are the three Vedāntic processes for the attainment of Jñāna (Jñānadīpaśānti) If you do Sravaṇa or hearing of the *Sruti*s once you must do Manana ten times (reflection of what you have heard) and a hundred times or a thousand times Nididhyāsana (profound and constant meditation) Then only real fruit is attained.

612. Amaṇa is a sanskrit term which means 'without mind. Amaṇaskata is a condition where there is no mind. It is mindlessness. You will find this in Jivanmuktas or liberated sages.

613. Destruction of egoism, Raga-dveṣa (attraction and repulsion for objects) and all Vasanas alone is Manonasa (annihilation of the mind). It does not mean that you should take a sword and cut the mind to pieces.

614. Destruction of the mind does not mean annihilation of the self. The Vedāntis divide the mind into the higher and the lower of which the lower one leading to desires is asked to be destroyed.

5 Manolaya

615. Manolaya is a temporary absorption of the mind in the object of meditation. When you meditate on the form of Bhagavan Sri Krishna the mind becomes absorbed in the form of Bhagavan Sri Krishna temporarily. Manolaya cannot save you from bondage. Manolaya cannot give you Mukti. It is only Manonasa (annihilation of the lower mind) that can give you liberation. Manonasa is brought about by Brahma-jnana.

6 Mind in a Jivanmukta

616. Jivanmukta is a sage free (from the trammels of births and deaths) while living. He uses his mind and body as instruments while he is doing Vyavahara (worldly activities). If you say that his mind is completely annihilated as soon as he attains Jnana, Jivanmukti state is impossible. There have been cases of Jivanmuktas like Raja Janaka who attained Jnana and who utilized mind and body as instruments for the well-being of the humanity at large.

617. A Jivanmukta though he has infinite powers cannot express all his siddhis through his finite mind.

618. An occultist learns through self control and discipline to work on two planes at once that is to be partly out of his body at the same time when he is working on the physical plane so that while he is writing or speaking, he may be doing other things with his astral body. When such is the case with an occultist, little need be said of a full-blown Jnani who is resting on his own Swarupa? He fixes himself on Brahma and uses his mind and the body as his instruments when he is doing Vyavahara. He has dual consciousness. He has consciousness of the Brahma as well as consciousness of the world. He sees the world as a dream within himself. Isvara or Saguna Brahma (Personal God) has full consciousness of Nirguna Brahma. That is His Svarupa-laksana. At the same time He has full cosmic consciousness. He knows what is going on in every mind. A Jnani is always in Samadhi. There is no in Samadhi and out of Samadhi for a Jnani like that of a Rajayogi.

7 Jnanayoga

(Its essence)

619 In Jnana (Absolute) there is neither East nor West neither dawning nor setting neither increase nor decrease neither sitting nor standing, neither life nor death neither working consciousness nor dreaming state neither talking nor lecturing neither thinking nor knowing neither light nor darkness. The three—actor (Harta) action (Karma) and instrument (Karana) will shine as one in the Self of Jnanis. What an exalted state it is! It is simply marvellous. It is wonderful. One becomes speechless. It can never be adequately described in words.

620 Till the blissful Jnana dawns on you, you should do constant and intense Sadhana. Although you see your body and the world they really exist not. Never move a fraction of an inch from your established position in Atma Constantly think that you are the all-pervading Atma (Chidakasa) Even if you are in the mouth of a machine-gun repeat Soham — ' Soham — Aham Brahma Asmi Roar like a lion Fear comes only when you identify yourself with this perishable fleshly body If you identify yourself with the Infinite, Eternal Immortal Atma you will become at once absolutely fearless. Fear is an imaginary modification of the mind of an Ajnan

621 Find out your centre Rest in your centre or equilibrium That centre is Atma or Brahma or the One Truth that is shining in your heart from eternity to eternity If you can rest in your centre neither trouble nor tribulation neither loss nor disappointment, neither grief nor sorrow can effect you and throw you off the balance

622 If you can keep yourself up in touch with the Infinite you will have a poised and balanced mind. Nothing can hurt you You will be always in joy because you are identifying yourself with Atma You are resting on the Highest Self Even though Mansoor Shams Tabriz the great Sufi Jnanis were flayed alive they never felt any sort of pain They simply uttered Anallhak (I am He) Every drop of blood that fell down also uttered Anallhak They were always in the bliss of Atma Look at this marvel These are the real Jnanis. They showed their power and knowledge of Atma

623. A small fishing boat is tossed about severely hither and thither even by ordinary waves of a river. But a big steamer remains unshaken even though violent waves dash against it with tremendous impetuosity. Even so a man of the world with a fickle mind is tossed about hither and thither even by the small waves of Raga-Divesa of the mind. Whereas saint or a Jivanmukta with a balanced and serene mind remains to the world quite steady without being in the least affected by the stormy waves of troubles, tribulations, miseries, afflictions etc. He is always resting peacefully in the perpetual calm of Atma or the Absolute Self.

524. If you have an easily irritable mind you will not be able to do your daily duties and business in an efficient manner. You must have the knack to keep the mind always in balance and in tune. Close your eyes. Dive deep into the Divine Source. Feel His Presence. Remember Him always. Praise His Name. Repeat His Name even while at work. You will gain immense spiritual strength. Meditate early in the morning before you mix with people. You must rise above the thousand and one things which would irritate you easily in the course of your daily life. Then only you can turn out wonderful work daily with harmony and concord.

625. He who dwells in the mind is within the mind, whom the mind does not know, whose body is the mind who from within rules the mind is thy Self the Inner Ruler immortal. Brihad Up. Ch.

TIL 7-20 Mind is Jada (insentient) It borrows its light from the Inner Ruler Just as a piece of a piece of iron moves in front of a magnet, so also this mind moves in front of the Inner Ruler It plays thinks feels and imagines before the Divine Presence, just as the Prime Minister plays and works before the presence of the King The mind shines in its borrowed feathers It appears like Chaitanya (pure consciousness) How can the mind which gropes in darkness which changes in every minute which has a birth from Mahat and also death (dissolution) in Prakriti be termed as pure Consciousness ?

626 Moksha (release from the Sansaric wheel or birth and death) comes through Jnana (knowledge of Atma or God) Jnana comes through Vichara (right enquiry) of Who am I ? or understanding and thinking of the right essential significance of the Mahavakya— Tat Tvam Asi 'thou art that' of the Upanisads Enquiry of who am I and understanding of Tat Tvam Asi are one and the same.

627 Like a crystal (sphatika) which though tinged with the seven colours is yet unaffected by them Atma too is not affected by the actions of the mind. Raga Dvesa pleasure and pain Kartritva (agency) Bhoktritva are the Dharmas of the mind only Atma is Saksi (perceiver) and Asanga (unattached)

628. The Jnana state is a state very difficult to be comprehended It is a tremendously high state

634 It is only through your dauntless energy and own indefatigable efforts that you can get Brahma-jnana. Guru and Sastras can show you path and remove your doubts. Anubhava of Aparoksa kind (direct, intuitive knowledge) is left for your own experience. A hungry man will have to eat for himself. He who has a severe itching will have to scratch for himself.

635 There is a cocoanut made of sugar only. It has got marks, lines, external shells, ridges, eyes and everything. But you have got internal Bhava (feeling) in the mind that it is only sugar. Similarly even though you see the different objects of the universe, you must have a Bhava and Nischaya (determination) of the Atma that is at the bottom of all these objects which is the ultimate reality and essence of everything.

636 Why do you look into the leaves, twigs, flowers, fruits of the mango tree? Look into the source, the seed. The cloth is only cotton and thread. Take the cloth as cotton only. Even so take the world as Atma or Brahma.

637 The fire in a picture will not burn anything. A light in the presence of midday sun will not shine and shed its light. Even so the Ahankara of a Sattvic person cannot do any harm to any person.

637 When you see an object with your eye, you know that it is through the light of the sun that you are able to see it. You have a double Dristi.

Similarly a Jnani has always a double Dristi when he does Vyavahara. Even when he works he knows he is not working he is unattached. Even though he sees the world it is all Brahma and Brahma for him.

638 The toy elephant made of wood has hidden the reality—wood when you take it for an elephant. Even so these names and forms have concealed the Reality—Brahma behind these names and forms. Get rid of the Bhramti (illusion) in the mind that is deep rooted from Anadikala (beginningless time). This is wood. This is not elephant. So also this is Brahma. This is not world. This is Atma. This is not body. This is Ajaita-da-yukti in Vedanta. Take out the balance left that is true after throwing off the false thing viz. elephant world body etc.

639 Clay is the only reality in all the three periods of time. Pot is an unreal thing वाचरम्भस्य विकारो नामधेय मृत्तिकेत्येव सत्यम्. Clay only is the reality. The modifications such as jar, pot etc. are in speech only like ornament —Chhandogyn Upanisad. Similarly Brahma or Atma is the only real thing eternal Vastu which has no beginning no end no change. The modifications body mind Indriyas and world are all totally false. They are in name only. See the clay in all earthenware vessels. See Atma in all objects (Atmadristi).

640. The real bliss is that which arises when the mind divested of all desires through the eternal Jnana destroys its subtle form.

641 When the self is once re organized and realized it can never be forgotten. The impression of the recognition of the self if once made, can never be obliterated from the mind. It sticks to the mind always.

642 'That which one cannot think with the mind but that by which they (wise sages) say the mind is made to think know that alone to be Brahma.
Kena Upanisad 5

The capacity of the mind to think exists because it is enlightened by the Brahma or Atma shining within and it is by that the mind is capable of activity. Those who have realized the self say that the mind is pervaded by Brahma. Mind is a mere beggar. It borrows its light and intelligence from Atma that is self effulgent.

643. Time space and Vastu (substance) are the three categories of the mind. Every object has three kinds of limitation (Parichehheda). Grapes for instance are obtainable in a certain season only and in certain places only. So grape has got Desa Kala-parichehheda (limitation by space and time). It has got Vastu-parichehheda also. You cannot find grape in a mango tree. But the existence of Brahma or Sachchidananda is free from these three kinds of Parichehheda (Trividha parichehhedarahita) because He is Eternal Infinite and the essence and Adhithana for all substances.

644. An Englishman is different from an Indian. There is Svayatyabheda A tree is different from a stone. There is Vyatya-bheda There is difference between a fruit flower and leaves in the tree. There is difference between a hand arm leg foot etc. This is Svagata-bheda Brahma has not got these three kinds of Bheda. There cannot be another Brahma because Infinity is One. So there is no Svayatyabheda in Brahma. The world has emanated from Brahma. It is illusory. So it cannot bring Vyatya-bheda for Brahma. World is Brahma Himself. Sat Chit-Ananda are not three entities. They are one. It is only Sabda-bheda like water Pani Jala. Sat is Chit. Chit is Sat. Chit is Ananda. So there is no Svagata-bheda in Brahma. Bheda is a mental creation produced by space colour size etc.

645. If anything is free from the three kinds of Parichehitheda (limitation) of Desa Kala Vastu and three kinds of Bheda as described above then it is termed At handa. You can ascribe Akhandatva laksana to that substance. That Laksana can be attributed to Brahma only.

646. (a) That thing which has no knowledge of itself and of other things also is called Jada.

(b) Claitanya or Chit or Chetana is Svayam-pralasa (self luminous) and Sarva-pralasa (illuminating everything). It illuminates the mind Buddhi and all Indriyas internally and externally the sun the moon the stars lightning fire etc. Brahma only.

is Chaitanya Vastu. Mind Buddhi, Indriyas and all other things are Jada

647 When any thought arises in the mind enquire why has this Vritti (modification) arisen? Whom it concerns? Who am I? All the thoughts will die eventually. All mental activities will cease. The mind will turn inward. It will rest on Atma. This is Vedantic Sadhana. You will have to persist constantly in the Sadhana whenever stray thoughts arise. The one thought who am I? will destroy all other thoughts of wordly nature. That thought will die by itself. Ego will vanish. Balance left is Kevala Asti Chit-matra Kevala Suddha Chaitanya Chidakasa matra which is Nama-ruparहित (free from all names and forms) Vyavahararहित Mala-Vasana-rहित Niskriya Nirataya which is Sata Siva Advaita of the Mandukya Upanisad. That is Atma. That is to be known.

648. When a man gets a firm conviction that names and forms are unreal and the Adhithana at their back is real then it is said that his angle of vision is changed.

649 A man with Antarmukha vritti changed angle of vision. Vairagya and Mumukshuta is alone fit for the study of Vedanta and the practice of OM and Jnanayogio contemplation. Such a man only will be really benefited.

650. Kalpna in the mind means mental creation or imagination. This is the real Iogamaya. You will have to destroy these various Kalpanas. This is the aim of all the spiritual *Sadhana*s. Then you will be established in Nirvikalpa state of bliss. Pure Nivritti is needed to attain this after you get Chitta-suddhi through Nishkama-karmayoga.

651. He who is attempting to fix the mind on Brahma is really doing the highest Karmayoga, highest Iajna, highest duty and highest charity. He need not visit Pirthas. He need not distribute charity.

652. Jnana mouna is that state wherein the mind remains merged in Brahma or Atma or Swarupa. In this state there is not the slightest trace of the notion of I. As there is no mental activity and as there is no doer, all the Karmas are burnt in the Jnanagni (fire of wisdom). The Jiva feels that he is entirely different from the five Kosas or sheaths, as he identifies himself with the Atma.

653. When you are expecting to meet a friend of yours at the railway station, the mind tries to see him in several other persons with a like physiognomy (Sadrisya) because the mind is engrossed with the one idea of meeting a particular friend at a particular time. The mind is very eager to see him. A lustful young man sees a woman in a pillar tried with a woman's cloth in fact everywhere. The mind is charged with very powerful and lustful thoughts. A God-intoxicated man on the contrary sees God in tree, a stone, boy, child, girl, cow, dog in fact in everything.

654 When the water dries up the reflection of the sun in water also vanishes. Even so when the mind lake dries up by extirpation of all Saṃkalpas and Vasanas the reflection of intelligence Chidabhāsa in the mind-lake also vanishes. The name Jīvatma disappears. Ego goes away

655 Mukti is for the mind only. Mukti is for Prakṛiti. It is not for the Jīva. Jīva is already Brahma. Jīva is ever free. He is identical with Brahma

656. Intellectual pleasure is far superior to sensual pleasure. Ananda from meditation is far superior to intellectual pleasure. Spiritual bliss or Ātma bliss from self realization is infinite, immeasurable and unbounded. It is Anandaghana (solid mass of bliss)

657 Attachment, love and Ananda (bliss) all go together. You are attached to your wife and children; you love them also because they give you Ananda. As this world is illusory and as through Bhṛānti (illusion) pain appears as pleasure, you must cut asunder all worldly attachments ruthlessly and direct your love and attachment towards the Reality Brahma, the Adhishṭhāna (substratum or basis) that lies at the back of mind and all objects and is the Saksi (witness) for all the activities that take place in Buddhi.

658 Tattvajñāna is the release from the trammels of one's own mind. Such a release alone leads to the attainment of Mokṣa

659 You must not stop thinking of Brahma (Brahmachintana) even for half a second even for the time taken in one winking. You must become Nidīdhyāsana-parayana (one whose sole refuge is meditation on OM with feeling and meaning). Then only Brahmajñāna is possible.

660 You will have to destroy the Jñāna-bhavana by entertaining the opposite Ajñāna. Brahma Asmi Bhavana. The Jñāna-bhavana is created by the Vyavahāric Buddhi. You will have to destroy this kind of Vyavahāric Buddhi by developing the Sūdhā Buddhi or pure reason.

661 When a Jñāni sees outside he may simply see but the Vṛtti may not assume Viśayākāra as in the case of worldly-minded persons.

662 Just as the mind is free from any Viśayākāra in deep sleep state in all it is free from any Viśayākāra in the waking state also in a Jñāni. The world appears to him as a mere dream. He dwells in Brahma even while working.

663. Īśānasahita mind (mind associated with desires) is Bandha (bondage). Mind free from desires is Mukta (free).

664 Real happiness is within you It is in the Atma. It is subjective. It is in the Sattwaguna and beyond Sattwa It manifests when the mind is concentrated When the Indriyas are withdrawn from the objects outside when the mind is one-pointed (Elagra) when there is Vasanaśaya (annihilation of the Vasanas) and Manonasa (annihilation of the mind) when you become desireless and thoughtless Atmic bliss begins to dawn Spiritual Ananda begins to thrill Why do you search Ananda outside, in vain, in objects money women titles honours name and fame which are false worthless and like cowdung? Search within your heart in the Atma

8 Become a Sakshi of Mind

665 Be the seer of the mind's dramatic performances and be not involved with the mind itself.

666 You are able to see the objects only But the Saksi or Jutastha Brahma sees the mind its modifications the Jivatma nr reflected consciousness and the various objects of the universe.

667 It is the Vritti (modifications in the mind) that binds you with the object. You identify yourself with the Vritti and through the Vritti with the object. That is the secret. Be a Saksi (silent witness to the activities of the mind) of the Vrittis of the mind There will be no longer bondage.

668. When you see a man suffering from appendicular colic you do not feel yourself any pain. But when you get the same colic you cry out and experience intense agony Why? Because of egoism (Ahankara) you identify yourself with the body If there is absence of Ahankara you will not feel any pain This absence of Ahankara can come only when you become impersonal when you become the Saksi when you identify yourself with Brahma (Absolute)

669 I am neither Prana nor the senses. I am quite distinct from these. I am Saksi (witness) for these and these and their activities. I am Sat chit-anandasvarupa This alone is sufficient for the Vedantic Nirguna meditation (formless meditation without any attribute) At once you will be elevated to the highest pinnacle of glory This is the best formula

670 If you have a strong Nischaya (determination) only on the above formula it is termed Paroksa Jnana (Indirect knowledge of Brahma) If you have actual Anubhava through meditation it is termed Aparoksa Jnana (direct intuitive knowledge of Brahma) or Atmasakshatara

671. If you go above body-consciousness if you can abandon the body-idea and if the mind rests on Atma or the Self then doubtless you are Sukhi Santa and Mukti (happy peaceful and free)

672. Mind has got a reflexive power of looking up into its own depths A Rajayogi develops this power Introspection helps to cultivate this Yogic faculty Enter into silence now from today in a dark quiet room Watch the mind carefully Be patient.

Do not identify yourself with the mind Be a Saksi or a silent witness Separate yourself You can directly perceive the various mental states.

9 Assert "I am God"

673 Strangle every thought of deficiency imperfection weakness inferiority Even if you have nothing to eat no cloth to wear even if you suffer from a terrible incurable disease cling tenaciously to the ideas I am God I am perfect. I possess everything All health I am. All joy I am.
Remember that to be your right mental attitude what you habitually think prepares a pattern which the life-processes are constantly weaving outpicturing in the life.

674 Why are you afraid of Kama Krodha etc.?
They are your servants. You are Sat-Chit-Ananda Atma Assert the majesty and magnanimity of the self.

675 I am that Atma or Brahma which is Eka
(One) Chidakasa Akhanda (without parts indivisible) the self of all beings (Sarvabhuta-Antaratma) Try to get established in this Bhava with all efforts (Prayatna) Then the Chanchalata of the mind will vanish. Then you will get eternal bliss. You will become a Jivanmukta There is not an atom of doubt on this point.

676. When you meditate on OM when you assert yourself as Brahma in the morning meditation you will gain a lot of strength. That will help to give you courage that is needed for the progress in the spiritual path. Many difficulties on the path of Truth are to be overcome through the help of fortitude and endurance (Titilasa). These qualities are the forms of courage. Fortitude is mental power of endurance. It is firmness in meeting danger. It is power of resistance.

677. When you remember that a savage or a rogue is a saint of the future and has all the divine qualities in a potential form you will begin to love everybody. Hatred will slowly vanish. It is only a question of time for the rogue of the savage for evolution and development.

10 Pratipaksha Bhavana

(Counter-thoughts)

678. Thoughts of worry and thoughts of fear are fearful forces within us. They poison the very sources of life and destroy the harmony, the running efficiency, the vitality and vigour. While the opposite thoughts of cheerfulness, joy and courage heal, soothe, instead of irritating and immensely augment efficiency and multiply the mental power. Be always cheerful. Smile. Laugh.

679. Every thought or emotion or mood produces a strong vibration in every cell of the body and leaves a strong impression there. If you know the method of raising an opposite thought or counter thought then only you can lead a happy harmonious life of peace and power. Thought of love will at once neutralize a thought of hatred. A thought of courage will immediately serve as a powerful antidote against a thought of fear.

680 When there are diseases discord disharmony in the cells of the body owing to influence of vicious thoughts worry thoughts fear-thoughts hatred thoughts jealousy thoughts, lustful thoughts, you can neutralize the poison or canker in these diseased morbid cells and establish peace, harmony, health, new vigour and vitality by entertaining sublime soul stirring life-giving soul-awakening Sattvic Divine thoughts by vibrations of OM chanting by repetition of the different names of the Lord by Pranayama Japana (singing of the Name of the Lord) study of Gita and the holy scriptures by meditation etc.

11 How to Control the Mind ?

(Practical Sadhana)

681 The desire for comfort is ingrained in the mind. You must be very careful. The mind is ease-loving, easy going and happy go lucky. You must check this nature.

682 Those who are not content with anything that comes in their way are of weak minds only.

Santosha (contentment in the mind) is a very great virtue. 'सन्तोषात् परमं लाभम् —by contentment you will have great gain. It is one of the four sentinels of the vast domain of Moksha. If you have this virtue it will lead to the attainment of Satsanga (association with the wise) Vichara (enquiry of self) and Santi (peace)

683 True freedom results from the disenfranchisement of the mind. If the mind is purged of all its impurities and worldly taints it will become exceedingly calm. All fluctuations of the mind will cease. Then the Supreme Nistha (meditation) will supervene. Then all Samsara delusion attendant with its births and deaths will come to an end. Then you will get Paramadharma (supreme abode of Peace)

684 The sovereign specific presented by the wise sages for the eradication of the mind's disease can be had easily through the mind alone. You must have the knack or the pluck or the aptitude to tame the mind. To tame a lion or a tiger is far more easy than taming one's own mind. Tame your own mind first. Then you can tame the minds of others quite easily. Those who practise Vairagya are real tamers of their minds. Have no longing for objects. Avoid them. Vairagya thins out the mind. Vairagya is a drastic purgative for the mind. The thief mind shudders and trembles when it hears the words 'Vairagya Tyaga Sannyasa'. It gets a death-blow when it hears these three terms.

debases the mind is inseparable from it. Devoid of this fluctuation the mind ceases to exist. It is this fluctuation potency of the mind that you should destroy through ceaseless Atmajnana enquiry

695 If the mind is deprived of its pleasure-centres of all sense-objects, it clings to Vairagya and Tyaga and must naturally move towards Atma

696. The mind becomes of the nature of Jnana by dint of the efforts towards spiritual direction but becomes of the nature of the universe through Ajnana

697 Music exercises a tremendous soothing influence on a ruffled mind. In America doctors use music in curing many diseases, particularly of nervous origin. Music elevates the mind also. Kirtana is one of the nine forms of worship (Navadha Bhakti). It causes Bhava-samadhi (union with God through Bhava or feeling). It is prevalent throughout India. It corresponds to the singing of hymns by Christians. Ramaprasad of Bengal realized God through Kirtana. His songs are very famous in Bengal. In this Kaliyuga or iron age Kirtana is an easy way to God-Realization. Sing the Name of Hari constantly. Praise constantly His qualities. You will have Darsana of Hari. Those who can sing well should retire to a solitary place and sing heartily with Suddha Bhava. In course of time they will enter into Bhava-samadhi. There is no doubt about it.

698. You should, through your higher Sattvic mind avoid the mind which runs in the direction of objects and progressing higher up should without any despondency of heart accumulate wealth of Tapasya for acquiring that imperishable Supreme Seat (Parama Pada) Like an emperor who brings his sway all kings on earth the fluctuating mind should be brought under the perfect control of the non fluctuating mind and then the letter reaches its own state which is the Supreme One 699 Don't allow the mind to wander here and there like the strolling street dog Keep it under your control always. Then alone you can be happy It must be ever ready to obey you, to carry out your behests.

700 If you have the reins of the horses under your control you can have a safe journey The Indriyas are the horses If you have the senses under your efficient control you can have a safe journey in the path of Moksha Indriyas cannot do anything without the help of the mind their master and commander Control of the Indriyas means control of the mind only Control of thoughts leads to the control of mind and Indriyas also It leads to the attainment of infinite bliss and eternal life. Control of thought is indispensable a great desideratum for all.

701. There is a world of difference between "Just comments and Ninda (censure) "Just comments is not Ninda It is permissible. It is unavoidable too. You can avoid it only when you shut yourself alone in a far-off Himalayan cave. If you have no

704 If you get the mastery over the mind and get true Jnana or illumination after destroying Ahankara and subjugating the Indriyas (organs) you will be doubtless free from the trammels of births and deaths. The differentiations such as I YOU 'HE' will vanish.

705. If the mind is bathed in the water of Jnana and cleansed of all its impurities then the shining Molsa will disclose itself in its native effulgence to those who strive after it.

706. Do always virtuous actions. Watch the mind and see what it is doing. These two methods are quite sufficient to control the mind.

707. Bondage is caused by Vasanas (desires in subtle forms). If these Vasanas are destroyed by Vichara (enquiry of Atma) and discrimination the mind which is ever restless will get quiescence like a ghee-less lamp.

708. Once a child sucked the breasts of his mother when she was in a fit of violent fury or rage and died immediately on account of poisoning by virulent chemical products that were thrown into the blood of the mother when she was in great excitement. Such are the disastrous effects of anger. Even three minutes of violent hot temper may produce such deleterious effects in the nervous system that it will take weeks or months for the repair of injury. Therefore you must try your level best to control your anger by Kshama patience, love Viveka Vichara Atma-bhava and such other virtues

709 Vasana Tyaga (renunciation of desires) constitutes the practice of Sama one of the sixfold virtues (Satsampatti) If a desire arises in your mind do not give way to it. This will become the practice of Sama The restraint of the external activities and the Indriyas is the practice of Dama (Bahyavrittisangraha) If you renounce the desire for eating mangoes it is Sama If you do not allow the feet to carry you to the bazaar to purchase the mangoes if you don't allow the eyes to see the mangoes and if you don't allow the tongue to taste them, it is Dama The practice of Dama should go hand in hand with Sama Sama alone will not suffice You must attack the enemy desire from within and without Then you can control the mind quite easily

710 When you become angry with your servant when he fails to supply your usual milk on a day raise a question within yourself 'Why should I be a slave to milk?' Then the wave of anger will at once naturally subside. It will not arise on other occasions also if you are careful and thoughtful.

711 The mind can be controlled by uniting perseverance and patience equal to that of one engaged in emptying the ocean drop by drop with the tip of a blade of grass.

712. A desire arises to eat sweets You don't allow the feet to move to the bazaar to purchase the sweets. You do not allow the tongue to eat the sweets. This kind of restraint of the Indriyas is termed Dama. You do not allow the eyes to see the sweets also.

713 It is termed Sama when you do not allow any thought to arise in the mind concerning sweets by eradication of Vasanas (Vasana-tyr ga). This eradication of the Vasanas can be accomplished through Vichara Brahma-chintana Japa Dhyana Pranayama etc. Sama is an internal restraint. Dama is a restraint of the Indriyas.

714 Though the practice of Sama includes the practice of Dama as the Indriyas will not move and work without the help of the mind yet the practice of Dama is necessary. Then alone the mind will be in perfect control.

715 When a Vrsana or Sankalpa arises in the mind the mind gives a push to the Antar-indriya. From the Antar-indriyas this push is communicated to the Bahih-Indras (external instruments) such as hands legs eyes ears etc. This practice of Sama stops this very push which is the root cause of motion of all the Indriyas and Karanas.

716 Just as you conserve the energy by observing Vruna (vow of silence), so also you will have to conserve the mental energy by stopping useless thinking. Then you will save abundant reserve energy for meditation.

717 If you watch the mind carefully you will find that many thoughts are inconsistent. The mind wanders at random aimlessly. There will be some thoughts of the body and its wants some thoughts of friends some thoughts of acquiring money some thoughts of eating and drinking some thoughts of your boyhood etc. If you can study the mind and if you have consistent thoughts of one subject or one kind only to the exclusion of all other thoughts this itself is a very great achievement is a great step in advancement in thought-control. Do not be discouraged.

✓ 718. A bird laid its eggs on the sea-shore. The waves came in and washed away the eggs. The bird became very angry. It wanted to empty the ocean with its beak. It applied all its energy to emptying the ocean. The king of the birds pitied its condition and came to its help. Narada the peace-making Rishi also came and gave some advice to the bird. When the king of the ocean saw all these he was very much terrified. He brought back all the eggs of the bird and handed them over to the bird with apology and prostrations. Sadhakas (aspirants) who are attempting to control the mind should have the same absolute patience and untiring perseverance as that of the bird which attempted to empty the ocean with its small beak.

719 Shave the mind. Some one asked Guru Nanaka Oh saint, why have you not shaved your head? You are a Sannyasi. Guru Nanaka replied

My dear friend I have shaved my mind In fact the mind should be cleanly shaved. Shaving the mind consists in getting rid of all sorts of attachments passions egoism Moha (infatuation) lust, greed, anger etc. That is the real shaving External shaving of the head has no meaning so long as there is internal craving Trisna

720. Some people suffer from haunting thoughts of sin One man always thinks I have committed a very heinous sin. I do not know what to do. Again and again this one idea haunts his mind This is a bad habit. Sin is nothing but a mistake. Repetition of OM and RAMA can destroy a huge heap of sins in no time. See how miraculously dacoit Ratnakara was transmuted into Rishi Valmiki. There is no room for despair Ni! desperandum Do virtuous actions Remember Him always. Be true to the Intaryami (Indweller of your heart)

721 Thought is the real Karma Thinking is the real action Evil thinking is the beginning of adultery Watch your thoughts with vigilance and introspection. Thought leads to action Thoughts are the sources of all actions. If you can root out all evil thoughts in the beginning you will not do any evil action. If you can nip them in the bud you will be free from the miseries and tribulations of this world.

722 A wise man watches his thoughts and eradicates all evil thoughts as they arise from the surface of the mind So he is happy He has always pure thoughts By meditation on God pure thoughts emanate from the mind because God is purity (Nitya Suddha)

723 Old habits of loose thinking must be replaced by cultivating fresh habits of good thoughts. At first a tendency to think of good thoughts will be formed. By continued practice a positive definite habit of thinking of virtuous helpful thoughts will be developed. You will have to struggle very hard. The old habits will try to recur again and again.

724. On days when you have many troubles vexatious worries from the morning to evening a trifling cause much irritation in the mind. The balance of mind is upset by a paltry affair. A single harsh word throws you out of the balance. Whereas when you are peaceful throughout the day even a strong abuse and a severe censure do not produce any effect whatsoever.

725 Till you are firmly established in the habit of thinking of good thoughts only you will have to fill the mind again and again with Sattva thoughts, Divine thoughts thoughts of the Gita Lord Krishna Lord Rama Upanishads etc. New grooves and avenues will be formed now. Just as a gramophone-needle cuts a small groove in the plate Sattvic thinking will cut new healthy grooves in the mind and brain. New Samskaras will be formed.

726 He who loves another man loves himself only. He who gives Rupees five as a charity to a poor man in distress gives it to himself. For there is nothing else save his own self in the universe. He who hurts hates and abuses another man hurts, hates and abuses himself only. He digs his own grave.

727 Lord Jesus says Empty thyself and I will fill thee. The meaning is destroy your egoism. You will be filled with God. This emptying means 'योगश्चित्तवृत्तिनिरोध'—restraining all the mental modifications. This emptying process or making the mind blank is no doubt a trying discipline. But continued practice of an intense type will bring success. There is no doubt about this.

728 You must eradicate through introspection all sorts of mean thoughts useless thoughts unworthy thoughts, impure thoughts all sexual thoughts thoughts of jealousy hatred selfishness. You must develop thought-culture of good loving sublime thoughts divine thoughts. Then you are a blessed soul on the earth. You are a mighty power on the earth. You can help many heal thousands spiritualize and elevate a large number of persons as did Jesus or Buddha.

729 You must annihilate all destructive thoughts of disharmony and discord. Every thought must be of a constructive nature. It must be strong positive and definite. The mental image must be of a clear cut and well defined nature. You must develop right thinking. Every thought must bring peace and solace.

to others. It should not bring even the least pain and unhappiness to anyone.

730 Just as you grow jasmine rose lily honolulu flowers in a garden so also you should cultivate the flowers of peaceful thoughts, of love mercy kindness purity in the vast garden of Antahkarna. Through introspection you will have to water this garden of mind with meditation and sublime thinking and remove the weeds of vain useless discordant thoughts.

731. Just as sweet perfume continuously emanates from an incense stick so also divine perfume and divine effulgence (magnetic Brahmic aura) radiate from a Yogi who has controlled his thoughts and who is constantly dwelling on Brahma or the Infinite. The effulgence and perfume of his face is Brahmavarchas.

732. When you hold in your hand a bouquet made of jasmine rose and Ohampa flowers the sweet perfume pervades the whole hall and tickles all alike. Even so the perfume or fame and reputation (Uhas and Kirti) of a Yogi who has controlled his thoughts spreads far and wide. He becomes a cosmic force.

733 Do not waste even an iota of energy in useless thinking. Conserve all mental energy. Utilize it for higher spiritual purposes in divine contemplation Brahmachintana and Brahmavichara.

734 Useless thoughts impede your spiritual growth. obnoxious thoughts are stumbling blocks to spiritual advancement. Useful thoughts are the stepping stones to spiritual growth and progress

735 Do not store in your brain useless information. Learn to unmind the mind. Unlearn whatever you have learnt. They are now useless for you. Then only you can fill your mind with divine thoughts. You will gain new mental strength as all the dissipated mental rays are collected now

736 Drive away from your mind all unnecessary, useless and obnoxious thoughts. Entertain only thoughts that are helpful and useful. Substitute thoughts of God

737 You are away from God when you entertain useless thoughts. Do not allow the mind to run into the old grooves and to have its own ways and habits. Be on the careful watch

738. Prana (energy) is the outer overcoat for the mind. The vibration of the subtle psychic Prana gives rise to the formation of thought. By Pranayama (control of Prana or restraint of breath) you can also increase the mental energy and develop thought-control and thought-culture. This will help concentration and meditation. This will make the mind steady. This will remove Rajas and Tamas (passion and inertia). This will burn the dross in the mind

739 Observance of Mouna (vow of silence) for a couple of hours daily will check the impulses of speech and thinking, will conserve energy and help meditation and thought-control and thought culture.

740 If you are not able to control any evil thought, control the body and speech first. Slowly you will gain mental strength and will-force and will be able to control the thoughts gradually. Do not allow any useless or evil thoughts to develop themselves into words. Curb the speech. Divert the mind at once to some good thoughts. Try to remember some Slokas from the Gita or repeat some prayers. Keep some word-image as Om Hari Om Siva Om Narayana

741 Those who have even a little control over their thoughts and speech will have a calm, serene beautiful, charming face sweet voice and brilliant lustrous white eyes

742. Just as you know by the flowering of mango trees that you will get mango fruits shortly so also you can know that you will get Abhedajnana (knowledge of identity of Atma and Paramatma) when the flower of Santi blossoms in your mind

743. Santi or peace of mind is of two kinds Sadharana Santi (ordinary peace) and Parama Santi (supreme peace). Ordinary Santi comes when the Vrittis (modifications in the mind) are controlled and the Vishaya (tossing of mind) is removed. Parama Santi manifests when you get Jnana (Knowledge of Brahma or the Absolute)

744 There are four ways of destroying evil thoughts. A Jnanayogi (student of the path of Knowledge) does it by living in OM or Truth. The Rajayogi does it either by destroying the Vrittis as they arise or by substituting opposite positive thoughts of Sattvic nature. A Bhakti does it by prayer. He gets help from God through self-surrender.

745. An acrobat girl while exhibiting her performances has her attention riveted on the water pot she bears on her head although all the time she is dancing to various tunes. So does a truly pious man attend to all his business concerns but has his mind & eye fixed upon the blissful feet of the Lord.

746. Even Jesus was tempted by Satan. Buddha had to fight severely with Mara (lust) just before He attained His Nirvana or Buddhahood. Therefore keep yourself at the farthest distance from everything that would stir up your passions. Then only you will be safe. Do not test your spiritual strength and purity when you are a beginner on the spiritual path. A small fire will be very easily extinguished by a heap of dust.

747. Do not rush into evil associations when you are a spiritual neophyte to show that you have the courage to face sin and impurity. It will be a serious mistake. You will be running into a grave danger. You will have a quick downfall.

748. A serpent is very fond of music. If you sing Punnaha Virahi tune melodiously the serpent will will force. This is no doubt difficult and taxing. It exhausts your energy much. (2) Pratipaksa-bhavana method. Entertain counter thoughts, thoughts of purity and love. This is easy. (3) Live in Truth or Brahma. There are no Vrittis of any kind in Brahma. Brahma is Nirmalata, Nirmalalpa and Nitya Suddha (ever pure). This method is a perfect and powerful one. Vrittis completely die away.

757 If the mind says to you go eastward then go westward. If the mind says to you go southward then march northward. If the mind says to you take a hot cup of tea in winter then take a cup of icy cold water. Swim like fish against the mental current. You will control the mind quite easily.

758. Blessed are the pure in heart for they will have Darsana of the Lord. The heart must be pure. The eye also must be chaste in its look. There is a tongue in the eye. A lustful eye wants to taste the different types of beauty for its selection. Lust of the eyes is as much dangerous as lust of the flesh. Beauty of nature emanates from the Lord. Train the eye properly. Let it see Atma everywhere.

759 Thought is the real action. Activities of the mind are the real Karma. If the Vishaya of the mind vanishes, you will get good Nistha (meditation). The mind will be very very calm. Get rid of the impurities of the mind. Have mastery over the mind. Then all the the miseries of the Samsara with births and deaths will come to an end. If you free yourself from the clutches of the mind Moksa (liberation) will come by itself. There is no doubt about this. Vichara Sadhana Nididhyasana Satsanga will all pave a long way in the control of the mind and the attainment of Moksa.

760 Mind is Maya. If the mind runs towards the sensual objects wildly Maya takes a strong hold of the man. Maya havoc through the mind. Maya through her power raises millions of Sankalpas in the mind. The Jiva becomes a prey to the Sankalpas. Renounce desires renounce Sankalpas of objects. Cultivate Vairagya. Give up this little false I. All the Sankalpas encircle and envelop this I. Do not pay much heed to the body. Think of the body and its wants as little as possible.

761 Have no Sankalpa. The fluctuating mind will die by itself. It will melt in Brahma (Arupa Ananasa). Then you will have the Salvatara (Beatific vision of Atma). When the mind dies I You! He! this! that! time, space Jiva, Jagat all will dwindle into nothing. Idea of inside and outside will vanish. There will be only one experience of the One, Ahanda (the Indivisible) Chidalsa which is Paripurna (All full). All the doubts and delusions will disappear through the Jnana in the heart.

762. Suppose you like tea, mangoes grapes and sweets very much. Make it a point to renounce them and even the desire for these objects. After some months the craving or the hankering will be attenuated and will slowly vanish. You must be devoting three or four hours daily in proper prayer Japa and meditation of God. The above objects which used to attract you before very much seem very loathsome now. They present the very reverse of your former feelings. They give you intense pain. This is a sign of true Vairagya (dispassion) and destruction of the mind.

763 If you can do the extinction of all sorts of Kalpanas (imaginings, thoughts) the mind will get absorbed into the source (pure consciousness). Then you will be free from all sorts of tribulations and worries and miseries. Then only you will have perennial happiness and the wealth of Mohan. Slay the lower mind which is the enemy of Atma through the higher and Sattvic mind. This lower impulsive mind drags you down in all kinds of sensual enjoyments, enjoyments and deludes you in a variety of ways. This lower Manas cannot approach those who have a strong Viveka (power of discrimination) between Sat and Asat (the real and the unreal).

764 Vedanta does not want you to renounce the world. It wants you to change your mental attitude and give up this false illusory I-ness (Ahanta) and Mine-ness (Mamata). The snakecharmer removes only the two poisonous fangs of the cobra. The snake remains the same. It hisses, raises its hood and shows the teeth. In fact, it does everything as before. The snake-charmer has changed his mental attitude towards the snake. He has a feeling now that it has got no poisonous fangs. Even so you must remove the two poisonous fangs of the mind viz. Shanta and Vamata only. Then you can allow the mind to go wherever it likes. Then you will have always Samadhi only.

इहाभिमाने गलितं विज्ञातं परमात्मनि ।

यत्र यत्र मनो याति तत्र तत्र समाधय ॥

"With the disappearance of the attachment of the body and with the realization of the Supreme Self to whatever object the mind is directed one experiences Samadhi.

He is not affected by the world. He need not have a separate room or Asana. He need not close the eyes. He need not do any Pratyahara of the senses.

765 Fully realize for yourself the grave and ruinous consequences of evil thoughts. This will set you on your guard when the evil thoughts would come. The moment they come, exert yourself or divert the mind to some other object of divine thoughts prayer or Japa. A real earnestness to drive away the evil thoughts will keep you on the alert, so much so that even if it appears in dream you will at once wake up. Should the enemy appear when you are awake it will not be very difficult for you to cope with him if only you are sufficiently watchful.

766. If for a moment you think you will not succeed in vanquishing an evil thought, at once get up and set about some work involving physical labour. One effort after another will make gradually the task easy and in a few weeks you will obtain a complete control over your thoughts.

767 By Pranayama the mind gradually moves from the gross to the subtle. It, therefore, exercises a wholesome check upon sexual irritation. When some evil thought disturbs your mind, at once take to Padmasana or Siddhasana and do Pranayama. The thought will leave you immediately.

768. The spiritual path is rugged, thorny and precipitous. Sruti declares 'दुरस्य धारा निर्यता दुरस्य धारा पयस्नस्त्वयो यन्ति'. The path is as sharp as the edge of a razor and impassable. That path, the intelligent say is hard to go by. The thorns must be weeded out with patience and perseverance. Some of the thorns are internal, some are external. Lust, greed, wrath, delusion, vanity etc. are the internal thorns. Company with the evil-minded persons is the worst of all the external thorns. Therefore, shun ruthlessly evil company.

769. Calmness of mind is a direct means to the realization of Brahma (or the Highest Self).

770. An untrained mind can only see or hear at a time, but a perfected mind can see and hear at the same time. It can be linked to several organs, to one or to none. It can be manipulated in any way the Yogi likes. It can do eight things at a time. Thus is called Astavadhana. It can do hundred things at a time This is Sataadhana

771 A Rajayogi who wants to control the mind must be able to avoid the two extremes viz. luxury and severe Tamasic Tapas. Too much fasting brings about extreme weakness. You cannot do any Sadhana. You cannot think. You cannot ratiocinate. Take any food that suits you. Do not make much fuss about it. Any food that is readily available and that agrees with your system is harmless.

772 Irritability is a weakness of the mind. If you are easily irritable it is likely that you may do injustice to many. Remove this by the practice of patience Itihsa tolerance Karuna (mercy), love Brahma-bhava Varayana bhava etc

773 To attain self-realization one must constantly struggle with the mind, for its purification and steadiness. It is only the power of the will which can control it and stop its fluctuations.

774 Reflection of the Self made upon the mind cannot be perceptible when the mind is not free from its fluctuations as the reflection of the moon made upon the surface of turbulent ocean cannot be visible or perceptible.

775 Maya is very easy to be detected and self to be realized by men who possess discrimination and strong determination. Through these powers viz., Intellect and Will, it can be controlled.

776 You cannot see your face clearly if the mirror is dirty. Similarly, if the mind-mirror is dirty you cannot see the Self. The dirt is Mala (Hamā, Krodhā, Lobhā etc.) Remove them by strenuous Nishāma Karmayoga.

777 Miscellaneous talking is a very bad habit. It distracts the mind. It keeps the mind always Bahirmulha (outgoing) and makes a man unspiritual. A vow of silence must be practised once a week. Much energy is wasted in talking.

778. Rajasic mind has a tendency to look into the defects of others. It also remembers the bad deeds or wrongs done by others and forgets easily their good acts. These two tendencies intensify hatred and cause frequent disturbance in mind.

779 A man may have psychic powers and Siddhis through concentration of the mind. But he may not have mental purity. Mental purity is of paramount importance for Self realization.

780 An aspirant is asked to give up company and observe Mouna because on account of Raga he will multiply acquaintances on account of Dvesa he will incur the displeasure of others by uttering some unpleasant words. There is a sword in the tongue. Words are like arrows. They injure the feelings of others. By observing Mouna and giving up company one can control the Vāch-indriya and remove Raga. Then the mind will become calm.

781. A Rajayogi destroys an evil thought by supplanting a sublime thought in its stead (Pratipalsabhavana) A Bhakta destroys the same by prayer and self-surrender. He says Oh God! I have surrendered myself the fruits of all actions and the actions themselves to Thee. Give me strength to drive away and destroy these evil thoughts. God sublimates the sex-impulse into Sattva or Ojas (spiritual energy) A Jnanayogi destroys the same by Ishvara and attitude of no indifference. He says This has nothing to do with me I am Sachchidananda-svarupa Sivoham Sivoham These impulses belong to the mind. I am distinct from the mind

782. Inside there are helping forces also to act against the the hostile forces of demoniacal nature. If you once repeat Om or Rama ten times, if you once sit in meditation for five minutes the Samskara of this will force you to repeat the Mantra again many times to sit again in meditation for some time though you forget all about spirituality owing to the force of Maya or Avidya. The hostile forces e.g. lust anger etc., will try to bring you down the spiritual currents the force of Sattva and Subha Ishtas will try to take you up to God. If evil thoughts enter your mind once in a month instead of thrice weekly (remember that evil thinking is the beginning of adultery) if you become angry once in a month instead of once weekly that is a sign of progress that is a sign of your increased Will Power. That is a sign of growing spiritual strength. Be of good cheer. Keep a diary of spiritual progress.

783. If you have to live amidst noise, do not complain of it but profit by it. One may make use of outer disturbances for the practice of concentration. You must develop the power to work undisturbed by whatsoever may happen nearby. The power comes with practice and it is then useful in a variety of ways. To learn to work under different conditions means progress and a great deal of mental control.

784. It is only the Rajayogi who attempts the Vrittis 'योगवृत्तिनिरोध' Nirodha Samadhi—(Patanjali Yogasutras Chap 1.2) A Vedanti has always Atmabhava Brahmanbhava whenever he comes across objects. So he does not try to annihilate the Vrittis. There is no Pratyahara for him. There is no Bahirmulha Vritti for him. He rejects Nama-Rupa and takes Asati-Bhakti-Praya (Dheda samadhi) A Bhakta sees Narayana or Krishna in all objects. He also does not check the Vrittis. He like the Vedanti changes his mental attitude. It is the mind that creates all the differences and separateness. The world is all Ananda only if you change your angle of vision your mental attitude. You will find heaven on earth.

There are only facts vibrations or phenomena outside. Prakriti is indifferent. Prakriti is blind. There is neither pleasure nor pain in objects. It is all mental creation mental perception mental jugglery. Maya has her powerful seat in the imagination of the mind. Atma is sexless. There is no sex in the five elements. It is the mind that creates the sex idea.

Sukadeva had no sex idea. Consider that a woman is a combination of five elements a mass of electrons or Anus (atoms). The sex idea will slowly vanish.

785 Take everything as it comes instead of complaining. By this means one seizes every opportunity. One develops easily gains a great deal of mental strength and evenness of mind. Irritability vanishes. Power of endurance and patience will develop.

786 Do not let failures discourage you but go on doing your best. Do not brood over your faults and failures. Only look at them to see the reason why you failed and then try again. So doing you will starve out the tendencies which led you into them whereas thinking about them only gives them new strength. Do not make too much fuss about little failures. Do not sit down and brood over failures.

787 A calm mind means courage. You may face without fear the trials and difficulties of the spiritual path. It has its root in the recognition of the onity of the Self. Abhayam (fearlessness) is one of the Dattā Sampadās (divine qualities). Constantly think you are Atma. You will slowly develop immense courage. Fear is due to delusion or Moha—attachment to the physical body on account of Avidyā—ignorance.

788. You should discriminate between a thief and an honest man. But you should love the thief. A worldly minded person hates a thief sees him outside and considers that he is entirely separate from the thief. Whereas a Jnani loves a thief as his own self and sees him within himself

789 When you remember that a savage or a rogue is a saint of the future and has all the divine qualities in a potential form you will begin to love him. Hatred will slowly vanish. It is only a question of time for the rogue or the savage for his evolution and development

790 Just as the six tastes sourness, bitterness, astringency sweetness etc. are rendered full and enjoyed completely only when the Saktis of tastes and the mind join together so also the plenum (All full Brahma) arises when all these articles of worship as contentment equal vision etc. are combined with Santi (sweet patience or quiescence of mind)

791. If you can do consciously Pratyahara at will of consciously attaching and detaching the mind to and from the senses you have gained really a great control over the mind. You can check at any time the outgoing tendencies or outgoing forces of the mind. Pratyahara is the stepping stone to inner spiritual life. He who has succeeded in Pratyahara can concentrate his mind quite readily for a very long time. Dharana and Dhyana come automatically if Pratyahara is perfect. An aspirant has to struggle hard to have mastery over Pratyahara. Perfect Ishtagya is indispensable for success in Pratyahara. You can succeed after strenuous and incessant struggle for some years. तत परमा 'वस्यतन्द्रियाणाम् Theoce arises the supreme control of the organs (Pataojali Yoga-Sutras Chapter II 55) If Pratyahara is perfect all the organs are onder perfect control

792. Durioq the period of Sadhana do oot mix much do not talk much do not walk much do oot eat much do oot sleep much observe carefully the five do nots. Mixiog will cause disturhaoces in the mind Talkiog much will cause distraction of the mind Walking much causes exhaustion and weakness. Eating much induces Alasya and Tandra (laziness and sleepiness)

793 You have got the four means of salvation Sadhana-chatushtaya in Vedantic preliminary practice. One of the four means is Satsampat (sixfold virtues) Of these six virtues Sama Dama and Samadhana are really Yogic practices to control the mind Sama represents the Chittavrittinirodha of Rajayogis by Vasana-tyaga Dama correspond to Pratyahara Samadhana is Ekagrata of Yonis. Yoga and Juana are the two wings of the Hamsa Bird (Moksa)

794 You will have to exert in the beginniog to get an equilibrium of mind Later on you will have a habitual balanced state of mind. So is the case with meditation After some years of practice meditation becomes habitual

795 Things which used to opset you easily will not touch you now Occasions which would have made you irritable do oot make you so oow You have gained strength power of endurance power of resistance power to deal with troubles Certain unkind words from other people which used to torment you no longer give you the trouble now Even if you become irritable and show signs of anger you are able now to compose yourself quickly These are all the signs of your gaining mental strength and will power Meditation brings about all these beneficial results

795. It is easy to control the conscious mind But it is very difficult to control the sub conscious mind. You may be a Sannyasi. You may be a moral man. Mark how the mind behaves or conducts itself in dreams. You begin to steal in dreams You commit adultery in dreams The sex impulses ambition low desires are all obtained in you and deep rooted in the sub-conscious mind Destroy the sub conscious mind and its Samskaras through Vichara Brahma-bhuta meditation on OM' and its meaning A man who is established in mental Brahmacharya can never have even a single thought of evil in dreams He can never have a bad dream. There is lack of Vichara or Viveka in dream That is the reason why you get bad dreams even though you are pure in the Jagrat state through the power of Viveka and Vichara

797 Try to acquire the power of closing yourself against detrimental or undesirable influences by making yourself positive by a particular attitude of the mind By so doing you may be receptive to all higher impulses of the soul within and to all higher forces and influences from without. Make a suggestion to yourself I close myself. I make myself positive to all things below and open and receptive to all higher influences to all things above. By taking this attitude of the mind consciously now and then it soon becomes a habit. All the lower and undesirable influences from both the seen and the unseen side of life are closed out while all higher influences are invited and in the degree that they are invited they will enter.

798. When a doubt arises whether there is God or not whether I will succeed in Self-Realization or not it must be dispelled by well directed suggestions and affirmations such as It is true I will succeed. There is no doubt of this. In my dictionary in my dictionary in my vocabulary there are no such words as 'can't impossible difficult. Every thing is possible under the Sun. Nothing is difficult when you strongly make up your mind. Strong determination and firm resolution will bring sanguine success in every affair or undertaking.

799. In Physics you have the term power of orientation. Though the mass of energy is there the current will not flow. It must be connected to the magnet and then the electric current will flow through the power of orientation. Even so the mental energy which is dissipated and misdirected in various worthless worldly concerns should be well directed in proper spiritual channels.

800 If the mirror is dirty you cannot see your face properly Even so if the mind mirror is dirty through the accumulation of Mala (six passions Hamakrodha etc) Brahma cannot be reflected in the mind. When it is cleansed thoroughly when it becomes Sattvic it is fit (Yogayujita) to reflect Brahma

801. In controlling the mind you have to do seven things (1) You must get rid of all desires and Vasanas and Trishnas. (2) You must control your emotions. You must control the temper so that you may feel no anger or impatience. (3) You must control the mind itself so that the thought may always be calm and unruffled (4) You must control the nerves through the mind so that they may be a little irritable as possible (5) You must give up Ahimsana. Ahimsana strengthens the mind It is the seed of the mind. When you have become a Nirahimsani how can criticisms taunts and censure affect you? (6) You must destroy all attachments ruthlessly (7) You must give up all hopes and prejudices

802. By the practice of Ishtana patience tolerance pity universal love (Vishva-prema) Udasinata Nirahimsanata you can weed out the angry feeling Even then a slight movement of impatience lingers although the angry feeling has gone You must eschew this slight disturbance also For a man who is leading a divine life this is a very serious drawback.

803. Love and pity make the mind soft. Pity has the characteristic feature of evolving the mode of removing pain the property of not being able to bear (seeing) others suffer the manifestation of not harming the proximate cause of seeing the need of those overcome by pain. Its consummation is the suppression of harming its failure is the production of sorrow

804. Doubt is a great tormentor of mind. It has got a mental world of its own. It again and again troubles a man. There is no end for doubts. If one doubt is removed another doubt stands ready to take its place. This is the trick of the mind. Cut the knot of doubts by the sword of wisdom. Know him who gets the doubts. No one doubts the doubter

805. Serve the man whom you hate. Share with him what you have. Give him something to eat. Shampoo his legs. Make prostration sincerely. Your hatred will subside. He will also begin to love you. Gifts and kind words tame the untamed men. Men bow their heads by gifts and kind words

806. When hatred manifests reflect on the blessings of love it will slowly vanish. The blessings of love are many. Happy he sleeps. Happy he lives. He sees no bad dreams. He is dear to all alike. He is dear to sub human beings. Devas guard him. Fire, poison and sword cannot approach him. Quickly he concentrates the mind. His complexion is serene. He dies peacefully and goes to Brahmaloka.

evils of hatred and the very many advantages of forbearance. Verily by means of this practice hatred will slowly vanish and forbearance will be developed. A man who is overcome with hatred and whose mind is assailed by hatred kills beings. Patience is the highest virtue. Nothing can excel forbearance. He who is strong in forbearance is indeed a Divine Being.

816. One thing at a time and that done well is a very good rule as many can tell. This is a very good rule for success in life. There are some people who have got the habit of trying to do one thing while thinking of another. These people always fail in undertakings. The thinking part of the mind should work in harmony with the acting part of the mind. While attending to any one object our thoughts ought not to wander on another. While you are reading think of reading only. Don't think of cricket match. While you are playing in a cricket match don't think of studies. The frequent cause of failure is striving to think of more than one thing at a time.

817. He who does Manana (reflection) and introspection through Antarmukhya vritti can only change his worldly nature. In him only the idea of Brahma can get permanently lodged.

818. The mind is very plastic if you know the secret of its manipulation. You can bend it any way you like. You can create a dislike for the things you like best now and a liking for the articles which now you dislike most.

819 With the triple weapon of strong desire, Srad̥dha (faith) and strong will-power you can have sanguine success in any attempt you undertake.

820 If you change the habits you can also change your character. You sow an act you reap a habit. You sow a habit, you reap a character. You sow a character you reap a destiny. Habit originates in the conscious mind. But when they become established by constant repetition they sink down into the depths of the unconscious mind and become second nature. By new practice you can change the manner of your handwriting. So also by new mode of thinking you can change your destiny. Now you are thinking 'I am the body'. Think 'I am Brahma'. In course of time you will be established in Brahmic consciousness.

821 Though habit is a second nature it can be changed by new healthy agreeable habit of a stronger nature. Mind is a bundle of habits. You can change any habit by patient efforts and perseverance. Habit of sleeping in the day time late rising loud talking etc. can be gradually changed by developing new habits.

822 Mind is your tool or instrument only. You must know how to handle it nicely. When emotions moods sentiments arise in the mind separate them, study their nature, dissect and analyse them. Don't identify yourself with them. The real 'I' is entirely distinct from them. It is the silent Saksi. Master your impulses emotions and moods and rise from the position of a slave to a spiritual king who can rule over them with force and power. You are eternal all-pervading Atma in reality. Shake yourself from the tyranny of the mind that has oppressed you for so long domineered over you and exploited you until now. Rise up boldly like a lion. Assert the magnanimity of your real self and be free.

823 Become an expert driver of the subtle powerful machine mind. Use all the mental faculties to your best advantage. Mind will become quite a good willing servant when you know how to tackle with it ably. Use the sub-conscious mind also pass on orders to work for you while you are asleep and even while you are conscious. It will sort analyse and re-arrange all facts and figures for you in the twinkling of an eye.

824 You must get mastery over your own thoughts and feelings. Ordinary man becomes a prey to his thoughts that take possession of his mind. The image of an impending calamity is no doubt odious but its very odiousness makes it haunt the mind all the more pertinaciously and it is useless to try to expel it.

825 If a pebble in our boots torments us we expel it. We take off the boot and shake it out. Once the matter is fairly understood it is just as easy to expel an intruding and obnoxious thought from the mind. About this there ought to be no doubt no two opinions. The thing is obvious clear and unmistakable. It should be as easy to expel an obnoxious thought from your mind as it is to shake a stone out of your shoe and till a man can do that it is just nonsense to talk about his ascendancy and conquest over nature. He is a mere slave and prey to the bat-winged phantoms that flit through the corridor of his brain. Pitiable indeed is the lot of these creatures !

826 Rajayoga teaches 'योगश्चित्तवृत्तिनिरोध' Yoga is the restraint of the mental modifications. It gives you the power of expelling the thoughts or if need be of killing them dead on the spot. Naturally the art requires practice but like other arts when once acquired there is no mystery or difficulty about it. It is worth practising.

827 If you have control over your thoughts you can turn out immense work with intense concentration. Mental torments of all sorts, cares, worries and anxieties will disappear. The peace that you will enjoy cannot be adequately described.

828 Sit in a comfortable posture and be so far as possible free from outside disturbing influences. Retire to a quiet room or place where you do not fear interruption so that your mind may feel secure and at rest. Of course the ideal condition cannot always be obtained as this is a relative plane. All places combine advantages and some disadvantages also side by side. You must select a place which has the maximum of advantages and minimum of disadvantages. You must do the best you can. You must try to put up with some difficulties. You must overcome them. You should be alone with yourself. You should be able to abstract yourself from the distracting causes. Make no violent effort to control the mind. Don't wrestle with it with force. It is a mistake to do so. But rather allow it for a while and let it run and exhaust its efforts. The mind will jump now like an untrained monkey first. Gradually it will slow down. Then you can fix the mind on your Lakshya either on concrete form or an abstract idea.

829 For a man of Vichara (enquiry) the mind dwindles into an airy nothing.

830 "I must cleanse my teeth" "I must take my morning tea" "I must take my bath" "I must take my dinner" "I must take a little rest in the afternoon" These are the habitual thoughts that float in superficial layers of the mind. These also must be controlled. You must appease the mind by getting rid of these thoughts.

831 Ohra prejudice, intolerance, contempt are modifications of hatred. Malice is extreme enmity. Remove these defects by love Titiksha Brahmabhavana, Atma-dristi Satsanga Vichara. Love is the greatest power on earth. Haruna is the highest Sadhana. Do not give pain to others and relieve pain where it is. This is Haruna. No Samadhi or union with God is possible when hatred, prejudice, jealousy, anger, lust etc. exist in the mind.

832. Some say that children are very happy. It is wrong. They only become exuberant. They get serious reaction also. They have no balanced mind. They weep for hours together for nothing at all. It is only a man of balanced mind that can really be happy.

833. When anger tries to exhibit itself observe silence. Keep quiet. Never utter a harsh word or obscene speech. Try to nip it before it emerges out from the sub-conscious mind. You will have to be very alert. It tries to come out suddenly. Before anger manifests there is an agitation (Udīga) in the mind. You must try to extirpate this very agitation in the mind before it assumes a very gross form in the shape of twitching of muscles of the face, clenching of teeth, red eyes etc. You will have to punish the mind well. You will have to impose self-restraint and punishment on yourself by way of fasting for a day whenever Udīga (agitation) manifests in the mind.

834. Just as waves and ripples rise on the surface of the ocean, whims, various caprices, fancies and wrong determinations also arise on the surface of the mind-ocean. The whims represent the ripples. You need not be afraid of these. They come and pass off quickly. You must be careful about the strong waves, wrong determinations. The strong thoughts must be eradicated by strong Vichara and proper reasoning.

835. Don't have a goat's mind or a prostitute's heart. A goat grazes for a few seconds in one patch of green grass and then immediately jumps to a far distant patch even though there is plenty of grass to eat in the first patch. Even so a wavering mind jumps from one Sadhana to another Sadhana from one Guru to another Guru from Bhaktiyoga to Vedanta from Rikhiresh to Brindahan. This is extremely deleterious for the Sadhaka. Stick to one Guru one place one form of Yoga one kind of Sadhana. Be steady and firm. Then only you will succeed. Have a steady resolute mind.

836 Whims are Tarangas that arise in the mind. They rise up and break quickly. They drag you hither and thither. Watch the whims. They are caprices. They produce sudden changes in the mind. They upset you. Don't do actions through whims. Action must be done through Vitela and wisdom. Whimsical actions bring on misery. Mind cheats whims. Destroy them as soon as they arise through Vichara. Always enquire whether the proposed action will bring you pleasure and spiritual gain or not. Be on the alert.

837 The following will bring you peace of mind undoubtedly. (1) Avoid the company of evil persons. (2) Live alone. (3) Reduce your wants. (4) Don't argue. Arguing creates sense of hostility. It is a sheer waste of energy. (5) Don't compare yourself with others. (6) Don't lend your ears for popular criticism. (7) Give up the idea of name and fame.

838. According to Patanjali Maharsi Maitri (friendship) between equals Karuna (mercy towards inferiors) Mudita (complacency towards superiors) Upeksa (indifference towards rogues) will bring about Chitta-prasada or peace of mind.

839 The love between a husband and wife is mainly physical. It is of a selfish ephemeral and changing nature. He who has realized Atma can really love all with sincerity of heart. The love between two aspirants based on psychological affinity and intellectual parity is real and lasting. Get rid of selfishness. Selfishness is a major dirt. It clouds the understanding. Remove it by selfless service, charity, study of Vedantic literature and Satsanga.

840 He who has purified his mind becomes a centre of force. All the lesser impure weak minds are unconsciously drawn towards the purified greater mind because they derive peace, power and strength from the greater purified mind.

841. These are the beneficial results of observing Mouna (a vow of silence). The bal-vidriya seriously distracts the mind. Considerable peace follows Mouna. The speech energy becomes transmuted into spiritual energy (Ojas). Santalpas become much decreased. Will becomes stronger. Spiritual aspirants must observe Mouna for some hours daily.

842. By mere ethical training jealousy Raga, Dvesa, Arodha, hama etc. can be suppressed though not eradicated completely. Only Nirvikalpa samadhi can completely fry up the seeds of impure vasanas. These impure Asubha vasanas can be considerably attenuated (Tanuavastha) by moral culture. They attain a subtle condition. They cannot harm the individual. They remain under perfect control.

843 The first and foremost of all thoughts—the primeval thought is I. It is only after the birth of this thought that any other thoughts can arise at all. It is only after the first personal pronoun I has arisen in the mind that the second personal pronoun You and third personal pronoun He etc. can make their appearance. If I vanishes 'Ynu and He will disappear by themselves. Eradicate this false little I of an illusory nature through proper Brahma-Vichara. There is no other way.

844 The background of the thoughts of a young married lady is usually lustful. The background of thought of an old mother is the affection towards her sons and grandsons. The background of thoughts of vast majority of persons is hatred and jealousy. You must have Sattvic background of thought to take you to the goal (Salvation). If you are a devotee of Lord Krishna have a background of thought of His picture and the repetition of His famous Mantra OM NAMO BHAGAVATE VASUDEVAYA and His qualities (Form-Formula qualities). A Nirguna-Upasaka (Vedantist) should have a background of thought—of OM and its meaning (Infinite ocean of light—Sachchidananda Vyapaka Paripurna-Atma). Work in the world and the moment the mind is free begin to think of the background of thought either Saguna or Nirguna background according to taste.

temperament and capacity for Sadhana. By constant thinking a habit in the mind will be formed and without effort the mind will run towards the background of thought. It is a pity that vast majority of persons have no ideal no programme of life at all and no background of thought. They are doomed to destruction. Even the so called educated persons with many University qualifications which is only hush when compared with spiritual knowledge have no ideal, no programme of life and no background of thought. A deputy collector after getting pension marries a third wife and goes on as a Dewan of a state. After retirement everybody should have a background of thought and should spend his time in philosophical studies and divine contemplation.

845 Try to acquire some good spiritual Samskaras in this birth at least if you are not able to devote all your time in spiritual pursuit. Do some kind of meditation for a short time at least daily say for half an hour in morning and evening. Have a meditation room. Make some kind of Japa of any Mantra. Study the Gita regularly. Have Satsanga. Visit Rishikesh Nash Benares Hardwar Prayag once a year for week's stay. Have the Darsana of Mahatmas. By doing so you will acquire some spiritual Samskaras which will be a valuable spiritual asset for a new good life. You will have a very good birth. You will be placed in suitable environments in the next birth for unfolding the Divinity that is lurking in your heart for practice of Yoga. All opportunities and facilities will be given to you by God through His Grace.

cannot compete with coolness of the Antahkarana of a man of Sama. Generally the Antahkarana of a worldling is a blazing furnace. A man of Sama is neither exalted when he gets a desired object (Ista) nor depressed when he gets an undesired thing (Anista). He keeps a balanced mind always. He has no enemies. The happiness of an Emperor is nothing when compared with the supreme spiritual Bliss of a man of Sama. Sama is one of the four sentinels of Moksha. If you have Sama you will get the company of the other three friends viz Santosha (contentment) Vichara (enquiry into Atma) and Satsanga (association with the wise and saintly).

853 Satsanga helps a long way in the attainment of Moksha. There is no other way. It thoroughly overhauls the mind and changes the current and its Rajasic nature. It removes the old Isaya samskaras and fills the mind with Sattvic Samskaras. It destroys the three fires Adhyatmic, Adhibhautic and Adhidaimic Tapa and cools the Antahkarana. It destroys Moha. If you can have Satsanga you need not go to any Tirtha. It is Tirtha of Tirthas. Wherever there is Satsanga the sacred Tirtha is already there.

Tapas destroys sins, weakens the Indriyas, unifies the Chitta and leads to Ekagrata (one pointedness of mind).

855 You must be saved from the malformation and the miscarriage of your minds. The clamant energies of the mind must be bent to become the passive channels for the transmission of truth. The mind must be filled with Sattva (purity). It should be trained to think of Truth or God constantly. Mind is like a playful child.

856. The Yoga methods give directions as to how you should purify and refine the mind and improve the mirror and keep it clean by getting rid of the impurities such as lust, anger, greed, vanity, jealousy etc. It is only through the rigorous discipline that you can rise to that height of strenuous impersonality from which the gifted souls of the world see distant visions and enjoy a higher Divine Life.

857. There are three ways of destroying jealousy.

(1) Mithya Dristi (Dosa Dristi) The whole world with its enjoyments, wealth and luxury is quite illusory. What do I gain by being jealous of another? When any one thinks like this seriously several times daily, jealousy Vritti will slowly die. This Vritti is the root of all miseries. It is deep-rooted.

(2) Bhratri-bhava (feeling of universal brotherhood) You are not jealous of your intimate friend or loving brother. In these cases you have become one with your friend or brother. You feel inwardly that all that belongs to them is yours. You will have to do this with everybody. You will have to love everybody as your brother or friend. Then you will have no jealousy Vritti.

the surgeon's knife and bistoury You should get rid of fear of all sorts. The one idea that you are the Immortal Self (Atma) can destroy efficiently fears of every description This is the only potent tonic, the one sure panacea for this dire disease of fear

13 Garland of Yoga

864 Abhava or non-existence is said to be an object of perception since non-existence of a thing means its existence somewhere else

865 Agni (fire) is of two kinds viz, Samanya Agni (ordinary fire) and Vishesa Agni (special fire)

Samanya Agni is hidden in all trees and woods It is of no use for burning purposes. Vishesa Agni that is formed by rubbing a match stick or rubbing two pieces of wood is useful for man for cooking and other purposes Similarly there is Samanya Chaitanya (ordinary intelligence or consciousness) that is pervading everywhere There is also Vishesa Chaitanya (special intelligence) Samanya Chaitanya cannot destroy the ignorance or Avidya of men It is only the special intelligence—Atmaharavritti or Avichchhinna Vishesa Chaitanya that can destroy the Mula Ajnana the primitive ignorance that envelops the Swarupa (Brahma or Existence) This special intelligence is developed when a man meditates on the Infinite with a pure heart.

866 The relation between the cause and the effect as the thread and cloth is termed Samanaya

Sambandha in Vaishnava and Nyaya philosophy The relation between the blue cloth and blue colour i. e. substance and its attribute body and hand : e whole and its part is also termed Samavaya Sambandha (inherent inseparable relation) The relation between the drum and the drum stick is Samyoga Sambandha (relation by contact)

867 Every man entirely differs from another man in mode of thinking temperament, taste mentality physical characteristics etc. Every man has a mental world of his own. Physically also a man differs from another man although there might be slight resemblance. Observe carefully the nose the ears the lips the eyes the eyebrows the arrangement of the teeth the shoulders hands fingers toes look voice gait way of talking etc. of different men. You will find vast differences between any two persons. Even the lines of the palm will differ. No two leaves are alike. Variety is the beauty of creation.

868. An aspirant can live only for a short time in his native place if there is an urgent call. Yogic rules and laws cannot permit him to stay there for a sufficiently long period however suitable the place may be and whatever may be the degree of Iskra (dispassion) of the aspirant. The force of Samskara (impressions) is tremendous. Unless all the *Samskara*s are thoroughly burnt through pure Asamprajnata Samadhi or Nirvikalpa Jnana (seedless state) it is not safe for one to stay for a long time in one's own native place. He is still within the danger-zone.

869 Radium is a rare commodity There are only 16 grains in the world Yogis who have controlled their thoughts are also very rare in this world like radium.

870 If an aspirant moves with rich people Zamindars and Rajas his mind begins to imitate the luxurious habits of these people and ere long he gets an unconscious downfall. Certain bad habits creep to him unconsciously And he finds it difficult to tear out or remove these bad habits After forty it is difficult to tear out old habits and establish new healthy habits.

871 Mind is more internal than speech Buddhi (intellect) is more internal than mind. Ahankara is more internal than Buddhi Jiva Chaitanya (Abhasa reflected intelligence) is more internal than Ahankara. Atma or Kutastha is more internal than the Jiva Chaitanya There is nothing internal to Atma It is Paripurna (All Full)

872 Prana (energy) digests the food turns it into chyle and blood and sends it to the brain and mind. The mind is then able to think and do Brahma Vichara (enquiry into Brahma)

873. When you play on the harmonium you adjust the tune first. It may be fixed either on the second reed or the fourth reed according to the strength and power of your voice Then you begin to play on the various reeds. The Sapta Swara are pronounced now You can play now various Raga Raginis He who is aware of the main Śruti can be compared to a Jnani who knows the Atma or support for this universe. He who is aware of the Sapta Svara only without knowing the fundamental Śruti is like an Ajnani who is unaware of the Atma but who has knowledge of the sense objects only.

874 The wheel of the bullock-cart rests on the spokes. The spokes rest on the nave. Even so the mind rests on Prakṛiti and Prakṛiti rests on Brahma.

875 If an honest man begins to take bribe for the first time he shudders. His consciousness quivers and trembles. He feels a lot of uneasiness. If he repeats it again several times his consciousness becomes blunt. He does not feel any uneasiness at all. If a chaste man begins to visit for the first time a house of ill-fame his conscience pricks his conscience shudders. If he frequently visits his conscience becomes blunt. He will not feel anything. The inner mechanism of conscience is very subtle. Keep it sensitive by doing virtuous deeds only.

876 If you give a blanket to a needy man with unwillingness it is not Dana (charitable act) at all. It is a selfish act only. The mind will be waiting to take the blanket back when the first chance comes. Give anything willingly.

877 In a bungalow you will find two gates, one for entrance, another for exit. Our body also is a nice bungalow for the Lord. Eyes and ears are entrance gates for the reception of forms and sound. These are avenues of sense-knowledge (sight and hearing) Upastha Indriya (organ of reproduction) and Guda (Anus organ of excretion) are exit gates. They throw out urine and faeces

878. It is the Rajasic mind that splits separates divides and deceptively shows plurality (Nanatva) The sun is one The moon is one. Akasa is one The idea behind languages is one. The feeling of sincerity is one. There is no inside or outside Husband and wife become one in heart. Intimate friends are one in heart Matter is one Energy is one Sattvic mind is one. It unifies Cosmic Mahat is one Karma (law of cause and effect) is one. Dharma is one Religion is one. Truth is one Brahma is one—एकमेवाद्वितीयम् मह्य (One without a second)

879 Ajnatis have fickle minds with a great deal of fluctuation and myriads of Sankalpas Their minds ever vacillate through Sankalpas But Jnanis will be free from Sankalpas They will be ever resting in their Atmic Jnana (Jnana swarupa) which gives the highest satisfaction (Tripti) and Supreme Peace (Parama Santi)

880. The sight is more internal than speech as the sight generally informs without contradiction. Similarly the hearing than the sight as the eye may convey false impressions e. g., the mother of pearl as silver but the ear never hears a non existing sound.

Similarly the ear only exercises its functions with the aid of the mind's attention and similarly the mind depends on the Prana or life. Prana is therefore Brahma the Innermost of all.

881 Love and kill Marry and observe Brahmacharya 'Enjoyment without desire action without fruits are paradoxical terms. A man with gross Vyavaharic Buddhi can hardly understand these terms. A subtle pure intellect is needed. Suppose you were a terrible smoker for the last fifteen years. Then you gave up smoking for five years. The craving for smoking also died. Suppose one of your friends offers you a cigar in the sixth year. You have no craving for smoking now. If you take it now and enjoy it just to please your friend it will be called a Suddha Bhoga only. You have enjoyed it without a craving or a desire. Ishvara enjoys Suddha Bhoga.

882. A spiritual aspirant will have to face boldly misrepresentation calumny and misunderstanding. That has always been the lot of those who tried to raise themselves above their fellows. Moral strength and courage is necessary to meet that and to enable that man to maintain his position and do what he thinks right, whatever those around him may think or say or do. People will despise and persecute you. You will have to stand boldly on your moral footing to live for your own convictions. An aspirant who has outgrown the rules of society should act according to the dictates of his pure conscience and pure reason. Then alone he can grow spiritually.

883 Lay bare to your Guru the secrets of your heart and the more you do so the greater the sympathy and help you get from the Guru. This sympathy means an accession of strength to you in the struggle against sin and temptation

884 Learn thou this by prostration by investigation and by service. The wise, the seers of the essence of things will instruct thee in wisdom. Gita IV 34

885. What reason then is there for despair? The most impious of men can by earnestly devoting himself to God reach the highest Bliss "Even if the most sinful worship Me with undivided heart he too must be accounted righteous for he hath rightly resolved Gita IX. 30 प्रति जानाहि न मे भक्तं प्रणश्यति Know thou for certain that My devotee perisheth not Gita IX. 31 Therefore he up and doing God will surely crown your efforts with success Even the vilest of us shall obtain Moksha

886 Language is different but thought is one. Mental image is the same in all. Sound has got four forms viz. Para Pasyanti Madhyama and Vaikhari. Vaikhari is the ordinary speech. It differs in different countries But Para Pasyanti and Madhyama are one and the same. Para is undifferentiated sound that lies dormant in Brahma. The language of the Devatas the language in the mental plane is one. It is Madhyama. The rotatory vibration of the causal body (Karana sarira) is Pasyanti. That is your real name. When you operate through your Karana sarira

(lower Prahaṃyā or lower Divya Dṛiṣṭi) you will hear the Pasyanti sound your real name.

887 Even this world does not disappear as absolute as is supposed in Jīvanmukta state. Empirical world in fact, ceases to exist. But this does not mean annihilation. It merely means that existence changes its form and colour as it were for the Absolute. It is empirical existence and not all existence which vanishes. Existence—Reality remains but its limited forms vanish. Externality has to go, spatial and temporal views of things must go, causal determination of one thing by another must go, manyness and oneness must go. This is inevitable. But the universe with all its reality will not go even for the liberated soul. It will merely change its form, meaning and significance. Nothing will disappear except a false view, a limited horizon, erroneous idea, and a circumscribed vision. Fact, Reality, Existence however will remain as fundamental as ever. But the viewpoint will change.

888 A complete detachment from the outward things, the manifold of sense together with a capacity for metaphysical abstraction and concentration on inward things are demanded from a spiritual aspirant or a earnest seeker after Truth.

889 The voice of the pure spirit cannot be heard till all superficial organs cease to exist.

890. In Svarga or heaven all the earthly experiences of the mind are sorted and analyzed. The essence is taken. The Jua is born again in the physical universe with a new frame and bent of mind according to the nature of the essence extracted in the mental plane.

891 There is an intimate connection between the mind and the five Tattvas. When Agni-tattva flows through the nostrils mind is much agitated and meditation is interrupted. During the flow of the Alasa tattva meditation is very favourable. Those who have knowledge of the flow of the five Tattvas in nostrils can very rapidly advance in meditation. A knowledge of Svara-sadhana or Starodaya as it is popularly termed is an indispensable necessity for those who take up to meditation.

892 You cannot destroy a mountain but you can destroy the idea of a mountain.

893 There are as many spiritual *Sadhana*s as there are individual minds. What suits one mind may not suit another. Rajayoga will be easy for one mind while Jnanayoga will be easy for another. One form of Tapas may suit one mind. A different kind of Tapas will suit another.

894 Do not argue unnecessarily. Argument brings about hostility, heated feelings, and wastage of energy. Every man has got his own views, his own opinion, ideas, sentiments, beliefs and convictions. It is very difficult to change the views of others. Do not try to convince others. When you are an aspirant, when you are gathering facts and knowledge from the study of sacred lore, do not argue with others till your thoughts have become mature and steady

895 Why do you care for psychic Siddhis? They are absolutely useless Shun them ruthlessly even when they try to manifest. They will mislead you and cause your downfall Beware Lord Buddha shunned Mara (temptations and Siddhis) Try to get Brahmajnana Then you will have everything All spiritual Siddhis will welcome you with outstretched hands You cannot have a downfall then

896 It is difficult to speak about Brahma It is still more difficult to understand It is yet still more difficult to practise spiritual Sadhana This corresponds to Gita's teaching Chapter II. 29

आश्चर्यवत्पश्यति कश्चिन्न-

माश्रयवद्दति तथैव चान्य ।

आश्चयवच्चैनमन्य श्रयोति

यत्वाप्यने वेद् न चेव कश्चित् ॥

As marvellous one regardeth Him as marvellous one speaketh thereof as marvellous one heareth thereof yet having heard none indeed understood '

It demands a subtle pure clear mind determined will patience perseverance and Utsaha (cheerfulness) for the realization of Brahma

897 Sri Rama and Sri Krishna were ever resting on Brahma even when they were ruling their

the opposite Sangraha Buddhi. We must be as free as a lark who has no Sangraha Buddhi.

907 There is a slight difference between Sambhava and Samadristi. The former is the condition of the mind (as balanced in pleasure and pain, gain and loss, heat and cold victory and defeat). The latter is the condition of Knowledge. The Jnani sees the Atma alone in a scavenger and a king.

908 Dvaita slowly develops when the child reaches the second year. Place a baby within one year of age in any place. It will remain there like a block of stone. It will laugh and see alike all people without any Raga-Dvesa. Ask a child of two years of age to sit. It will stand. Ask the child to come near. It will recede back to a distance. Tell the child don't go to the street. It will immediately march to the street. It will do contrary actions. Because Dvaita is developing now in the child.

909 There are two kinds of Vrittis in the sound viz. Laksana Vritti and Sakti Vritti. There is a special power in every Shabda (Achintya Sakti—indescribable power). A sound moves the mind. When your friend shouts from the street you open the door by hearing the sound and immediately run to meet him. When the bell rings in the college hostel all the students immediately proceed to take their meals. In all Vedantic terms which describe the swarupa of Brahma such as Akhandam Advaitam Aparichchhinna Vyapaka there is a special Achintya Sakti. Some say in

Tat Tvam Asi Mahavakya there is a special Achintya Sakti to denote the identity of Jiva and Brahma

910 When you are writing a drama if sleep comes in you stop writing and retire to bed As soon as you get up you continue to write from where you have left the previous night. Even so when you take up a new incarnation you begin to continue the work which you had left unfinished in your previous life in accordance with the current of Vasanas of your past life.

911 Just as you can give an orange to a man and take it back so also spiritual power can be transmitted by one to another and taken back also This method of transmitting spiritual power is termed Sakti-Sanchara Like birds, fish and tortoise the transmitting of spiritual power can be done by the Guru through touch or sight or willing and thinking The transmitter sometimes enters the astral body of the student and elevates his mind through his power The operator makes the subject sit in front of him and asks him to close his eyes and then transmits his spiritual power The subject feels the electric current actually passing from Muladhara Chakra higher up to the neck and top of the head He does various Hathayogic Kriyas Asanas Pranayama Bandhas, Mudras etc., by himself without any instruction through inspiration Here Prakriti works herself. The student must not restrain his Ichchha-sakti He must act according to the inner light. The mind is highly elevated The moment the aspirant closes his eyes meditation comes by itself ' Through Sakti-Sanchara Kundalini is awakened by the grace of the Guru in the disciple.

912. There are fifteen Dosas that arise from company. An aspirant should therefore preferably remain alone during the period of Sadhana. The Dosas of company are 1 Misunderstanding 2 Ill-feeling 3 Displeasure 4 Raga-Dvesa 5 Jealousy 6 Vampirism 7 Attachment 8 Mental sharing of pain of another man 9 Criticisms of others 10 Anatma topics 11 Habit of talking 12 Bahirmukha Vritti 13 Idea and Samshara of duality 14 Slavish mentality and weak will 15 Contempt. Love little but love long

913 Mind precedes matter This is Vedantic theory Matter precedes mind. This is scientific theory

914 Worldlings have no time to think over even for a few minutes the life problems, the mystery of life etc. They get up in the morning Their minds usually run to the special objects of enjoyment on account of Raga. Their mental energies are poured forth in the usual grooves and avenues in thoughts of body thoughts of eating and dressing thoughts of wife children friends and also thoughts of office work and business and thus the day is over The same routine follows day after day week after week. Years roll on and life is wasted It is highly lamentable indeed !

915. There is a corresponding notion and object for every Sabda (sound) There is a notion and an object for the Sabda 'Cow' Maya is deceiving you through Sabda-jala The whole world is a mere notion mere idea It is Sankalpamatra. It is Bhrantimatra. It is Kalpanamatra It is Akasamatra It exists in name only 'वाचारम्भणं विफारो नामधेयं मृत्तित्वेव सत्यम्'—all modifications being only a name based upon words the truth being that all is clay The whole world is a combination of five elements. Analyze, realize the illusory nature of all objects and abandon all false objects When you begin to analyze the whole world vanishes and with it the notion sound and objects also

916 Never accept gifts from anybody, even from your closest friends It will produce slavish mentality weak will and attachment Asking is begging. Recommending is begging A beggar is absolutely unfit for freedom and spiritual pursuits 917 Develop the Prahalaya the Divine vision (Divine Dristi) Jnana-chakru) by concentration, purification and meditation.

918. When two forces of equal quality or power meet a third force is formed When two people of equal force and quality are attracted towards each other a third force is formed between them That is termed love. This is the scientific way of explaining what love is. Attraction is Alasana sakti Repulsion is Vikarsana-sakti When I see myself in another man when I see him as my own self I begin to love him as my own self. This is Vedantic way of explaining love. Love is pouring forth one's affection (Prema), on another. Love is God. Love is of two kinds viz., selfish or physical love. The other variety is real love or Divine Love which is unselfish and lasting. The first kind is love with attachment. The second one is love without attachment. He who is a real aspirant of Vedantic path who feels his own self everywhere and a real Bhakta who sees Narayana everywhere in everything can really love others. When an inferior person hangs on another person for his happiness or existence physical attachment crops up. Attachment causes slave mentality and weak will. Attachment is death. Physical love is death. When I find something in you that I myself possess, I am naturally drawn towards you and I begin to love you.

Cut all sorts of attachment by the sword of non-attachment.'

(Gita xv 3)

14 Samskaras

919 The Samskaras (impressions) are embedded in the sub-conscious mind or Ohitta. The sub-conscious mind is otherwise known as the ur-conscious mind. The seat of this sub-conscious mind is the cerebellum or hind-brain. A conscious action whether cognitive affective or conotive assumes a potential and hidden (Sukṣma and Avyākṛta) form just below the threshold of consciousness. This is termed a Samskāra. In dreams and hypnotic trances this sub-conscious mind plays the part. Owing to the force of stimuli (Udbodhaka Vyāyaka) either from within or from without the seed-like Samskāras again expand and give rise to further activities. The Samskāras should be fried up by continuous Samādhi. Then only you will be free from births and deaths.

920 The new Samskāras wash away the old Samskāras. If the Samskāras are fresh and recent it is easy to recall them back quickly. They come up again from the depths of the sub-conscious mind to the surface of the conscious mind. Revival of old Samskāras take place. If you visit once the college wherefrom you received your education ten years after you became an officer in the Government all the previous Samskāras of your college days will be revived now. You will remember now your old professors, old friends, old books and various other things.

921 When you are born the mind is not a mere Talbula Rasa (a smooth or blank tablet or a blank sheet of white paper). It is a store-house of Samskāras, predispositions, predilections etc. Every man is born with his inborn or inherent Samskāras and these Samskāras are embedded, lodged or imprinted in the Chitta. In earthly life he gains many more Samskāras or experiences through actions and these are added to the original store and become the future Sanchita Karma (accumulated actions)

922 A child is born with his Samskaras. A child is born with his past experiences transmuted into mental and moral tendencies and powers. The earthly experiences are worked up into intellectual faculty

923 The world enters the mind through the eyes, ears tongue (speech) and old Samskaras. If you remain in seclusion you can shut out these first three doors. Through Vichara (right enquiry of Supreme Self) you can destroy the Samskaras the fourth route. Then Jnana (Knowledge of Self) will dawn

924 An experience in the sense-plane sinks down into the depths of the sub-conscious mind (Ohitta) and becomes there a Samskara (impression). You can recall the past experiences from the store-house of Samskaras in the sub-conscious mind. The past is preserved even to the minutest details. Even a bit is never lost. No memory is possible without the help of Samskara. When the fine Samskaras come up to the surface of the conscious mind back again as a big wave it is called memory or Smriti.

925 Samskara is known as residual potency also. Samyama over these Samskaras brings out the direct knowledge of the residual potencies. A Yogi brings into direct consciousness the previous life states by getting direct knowledge of their Samskaras. Such knowledge can hardly be acquired in Universities.

A Yogi alone can impart this knowledge to deserving aspirants.

926 These are the characteristics of the mind viz., change (Parinama) activity (Ohesta) suppression (Nirodha) ideation in action (Sakti) physical life (Jivana) characterization (Dharma)

927 If you forget your real Brahmic nature even for a minute the old Samskaras of Ajnana will try to come up and overwhelm you. See how Narada's determination began to fluctuate even though he was absorbed in meditation when he saw some Deva-girls. He at once experienced the sexual desire in himself. The seed came out, he put it in a pot and Chudala in the form of Kumbha Muni emerged from out of the pot. (Yogavasistha story of Sikhidhawa) Therefore you will have to be very very careful. Keep yourself away from all kinds of temptations—money woman name fame etc.

928. Mind exercises its suzerainty through Samskaras. You will be getting fresh births so long as there are Samskaras. The aim of a Sadhaka is to fry out or burn or obliterate all these Samskaras through Nirbija Samadhi. Then only he will be free from births and deaths.

929 All Samskaras co-exist in the mind. The Vrittis (thought waves) slowly subside and leave traces in the mind. These traces are the Samskaras. From these Samskaras spring memory. If you have a Yogic vision you can vividly notice the marvels that take place in the mental factory of an individual how the Vritti arises in the mind lake how it subsides and how a Samskara is formed You will be struck with wonder

930 A specific experience leaves a specific Samskara The memory of this specific experience springs from that particular Samskara only which was formed out of that particular experience

931 In Dhyana the mind grasps and takes possession of its perceptions or judgments. It makes the content of the idea its own It strengthens the Samskaras so that a voluntary recall is rendered easy In common parlance we say 'Mr Ramkrishna is a man of good Dharana in Vedanta Here it means that Mr Ramakrishna has got fixed and steady ideas in Vedanta He cannot be changed by anybody He is not of a wavering nature. He sticks to Vedanta alone. Nobody can shake him

932 When you repeat OM or the Mahavakya of the Upanisads Aham Brahma Asmi once one Samskara of the idea that I am Brahma or the Absolute is formed in the sub-conscious mind The object in doing Japa or silent repetition of OM 21 600 times daily is to strengthen this Samskara

933. When you perceive an orange and taste for the first time you get knowledge of an orange You know its taste. You know the object orange. A Samskara is formed in the sub-conscious mind at once At any time this Samskara can generate a memory of the object, orange and knowledge of an orange. Though the object and the act of knowledge are distinguishable yet they are inseparable.

934 Vritti (whirlpool thought wave) arises in the mind ocean. It operates for sometime. Then it sinks below the threshold of normal consciousness. From the surface of the conscious mind wherein it was uppermost for some time it sinks down deep into the region of the sub-conscious mind. There it continues to be a subliminal action and becomes a Samskara (impression). Samskaras are embedded in the Chitta. They are not lost. The past Vritti when it comes back to the surface of conscious mind again by recollection is termed Smriti or memory.

935 A seed gives rise to a tree and the tree in turn brings forth seeds. This is cyclic causation. Even so a Vritti in the mind produces a Samskara and a Samskara in turn causes again a Vritti. There is cyclic causation here also as in Biya-vrikhsanyaya (analogy of seed and tree).

936 This above cycle of Vritti and Samskara is Anadi (beginningless) but has an end when one obtains Divine Knowledge and liberation. They get Maya (dissolution) into Prakriti. They cease to produce any effect on the Jivanmukta.

937 Which is the seat for Prarabdha? It is the Chitta or the sub-conscious mind. All Samskaras lie dormant in the Chitta as latent activities not only of this life but of all previous innumerable lives from

Anadikala (beginningless time) The Samskaras of animal life (those of dog's births etc.) the Samskaras of a Deva life the Samskaras of kingly life the Samskaras of the life of a peasant. are all hidden there in the Ohitta. In human life only those Samskaras which are appropriate to that particular type of birth will operate and come to play. The other kinds of Samskaras will remain concealed and dormant.

931. Like forces Samskaras aid or inhibit one another. When you see a man in serious sickness and when the feeling of mercy arises in your heart, all the Samskaras of your previous merciful actions coalesce together and force you to serve and help that sick man. Similarly all the Samskaras of charitable actions come forth to the surface of the conscious mind when you see a man in a serious distress and straitened circumstances and they force you to help this man. You begin to share with him your physical possessions. When one Samskara or virtuous action comes into play another Samskara of dissimilar nature may emerge out and come in the way of its fulfilment. This is fight between a virtuous and a vicious Samskara.

939. The physical body may die. But the thoughts and Samskaras of actions enjoyments and thinking follow you after death till you attain Moksha. These are the variable upadhis that accompany you after death. They are variable because you carry different kinds of Samskaras each time when you die. In different incarnations you create different kinds of Samskaras The permanent upadhis that accompany you after death are the five Jnana Indriyas five Karma Indriyas five Prana fourfold mind, and the Karana Sarira which is the support or Adhara for the Linga-sarira or astral body. It is the death of the Samskaras it is the death of the Karana Sarira that leads on the final Moksha. It leads to the attainment of Brahmajnana. You will have to take birth again and again till all the Samskaras are obliterated or fried up by the acquisition of Brahmajnana. When the Samskaras are wiped out Brahmic Knowledge shines by itself in its own glory.

940 In your mind two objects have produced a very deep Samskara. One is woman and the other is the scorpion. During summer you get the thought of the scorpion daily at the time of sleep. You get a mental sting daily from scorpion through scorpion phobia.
